Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Pryor Creek, K.T., September 13, 1900.

In the matter of the application of Lettie J. Thomas for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood; being sworn and examined by Commissioner Needles, she testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A Lettie J. Thomas.
Q What is your age? A 19 years old.
Q What is your post office address? A Claremore.
Q Are you a recognized citizen by blood? A Yes, sir.
Q What district do you live in? A Cooweescoowee.
Q What degree of blood do you claim? A I don't know hardly, I suppose I claim 1/4 of white blood.
Q Are you married? A Yes, sir.
Q For whom do you apply for enrollment? A Myself is all I suppose.
Q What is your father's name? A Louis Wolf.
Q What is your mother's name? A Ellen Wolf.
Q Are they Cherokee citizens by blood? A Yes, sir, both of them.
Q Are they living? A My mother is dead, my father is living.
Q What is your husband's name? A Marion W. Thomas.
Q When did you marry? A July 4, 1898.
Q Have you always lived in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q Live here now? A Yes, sir.

Lewis Wolf on 1880 roll, page 209, No. 3457, Cooweescoowee district.
Ellen Wolf on 1880 roll, page 209, No. 3458, Cooweescoowee district.
Lettie J. Thomas on 1896 roll, page 280, No. 5094, Lettie J. Wolfe, Cooweescoowee district.)

The name of Lettie J. Thomas is found upon the census roll of 1896 as Lettie J. Wolfe. She avers that she was married to one Marion Thomas, a non citizen, in the year 1898. The names of her father, Lewis, and her mother, Ellen Wolf, are found upon the authenticated roll of 1880. Satisfactory proof has been made that the said Lettie J. is the lineal descendant of the said Marion and Lewis Wolf, whose names appear upon said roll. Satisfactory proof also being made as to her residence, and she being duly identified, the said Lettie J. Thomas will be duly listed for enrollment by this Commission as a Cherokee citizen by blood.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES

Muskogee, Indian Territory, January 10, 1907.

John Doe,
Claremore, Indian Territory

Dear Sir:

There is inclosed a copy of the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated January 10, 1907, rejecting, among others, the application for your enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. The Commissioner's decision has this day been forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior for review. You will be advised of the Secretary's action as soon as this office is informed of same.

Respectfully,

Incl. Decn. B

Commissioner.

ACTING CHAIRMAN

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Pryor Creek, I.T., Sept. 13, 1900.

In the matter of the application of Thomas P. Jones for the enrollment of his wife and two children as Cherokee citizens; being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge he testified as follows:

- Q What is your full name? A Thomas P. Jones.
Q How old are you? A Twenty-nine years old.
Q What is your post-office? A Pryor Creek.
Q In what district do you live? A Cooweescoowee.
Q Who is it you want to have put on the roll, yourself? A My wife and two children.
Q And you want to apply for your own enrollment? A No.
Q Do you apply for your wife as a Cherokee by blood? A Yessir.
Q Give me your wife's present name? A Rachel Jones.
Q How old is she? A She is about twenty-five or six years old.
Q When were you married to her? A I was married in 1896.
Q What was her name when you married her? A Rachel Byres.
Q That was her maiden name? A That was her maiden name.
Q How long has she lived in the Cherokee Nation? A She was born here and lived here all her life.
Q Give me the name of her father? A Nick Byres.
Q Was he a Cherokee or a white man? A Cherokee.
Q Is he dead or alive? A He is alive, I reckon.
Q Give me the name of her mother? A Martha Shirley.
Q Cherokee or a white woman? A Cherokee.
Q Is she dead or alive? A Dead.
Q How long has she been dead? A About twenty-three or four years.
Q Where was your wife in 1880? A I could not tell you.
Q In 1896 what district was she enrolled in, you know? A Tahlequah.
Q Give me the names of these two children? A Thomas Bryan Jones.
Q How old is that child? A Three years old, past.
Q And the next child? A Polk Jones.
Q How old is that child? A He is right about two years old.
Q These children are both living now are they? A Yes sir.
Q Your wife is not on the roll of 1896 as your wife is she?
A Yessir, I reckon she is.
Q Have you got a certificate of marriage? A Yes sir. (Produces papers.)

Com'r Breckinridge: The applicant presents certificate from the Rev. J. S. Lamar showing that he and his wife were united in marriage as stated by him in 1896; this is filed with his application. 1880 roll page 354 #242 Rachel Byres, Flint District, native Cherokee 1896 roll page 1195 #1748 Rachel Jones, Tahlequah District.

Com'r Breckinridge: The applicant applies for the enrollment of his wife and two children; his wife is identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1896 as a native Cherokee; she has lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life; her change of name is explained by her marriage which is attested by the applicant and by the certificate of marriage filed herewith; she will now be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood; their two children, Thomas and Polk Jones are not old enough to be upon any roll; when the Commission is supplied with duly authenticated certificates of the birth of these children, they also will be listed for enrollment as Cherokees by blood.

Commissioner Needles: Was Pink Chandler her father? A Yes, sir.
Q Are these children, Susie and Johnnie, the children of Ada Chandler? A Yes, sir.

on 1896 roll, page 314, No. 638, Lila Mora, Cooweescoowee district.
Susie Moore on 1896 roll, page 209, No. 3093, Cooweescoowee dist.)

Q Is Johnnie on the roll with you? A Yes, sir, he is enrolled;
Joe Sander raised him and he is with him though, he has him yet.

(Johnnie Moore on 1894 roll, page 241, No. 2699, John Moore, Cooweescoowee district.)

Q These children all alive and living with you? A Yes, sir.

The name of William Moore appears upon the authenticated roll of 1880 as well as the census roll of 1896, and the name of Susie Moore and Johnnie Moore are found upon the census roll of 1896, and the pay roll of 1894 respectively. Applicant avers that Susie and Johnnie are the children of a Cherokee woman named Ada Chandler, and the name of Ada Chandler is found upon the authenticated roll of 1880. He also presents a certificate and proof of birth as to David Moore, a child by his last wife, Lila Thompson, who is a non citizen, two years of age, he having been ~~mar~~ married to said Lila Thompson in the year 1896, too late to confer citizenship upon her. They all being duly identified according to the page and number of the roll and having made satisfactory proof as to their residence, said William Moore, Susie, Johnnie and David Moore will be duly listed for enrollment by this Commission as Cherokee citizens by blood.

Bruce C. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above case, and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

SUPPLEMENTAL TESTIMONY AND PROCEEDINGS in the matter of the application for the enrollment of ALBERTON BROWN as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

ALBERTON BROWN, being first duly sworn, and being examined, testified as follows:

- BY COMMISSION: Your name is Alberton Brown? A Yes sir.
Q How old are you? A Forty-seven.
Q Your post office address is Pryor Creek? A Yes sir.
Q You were on the stand this morning and gave some testimony in regard to your application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q What was the name of your wife to whom you were married before you married your present wife? A Mollie Taylor.
Q If you stated this morning that you were divorced from her? A Yes.
Q Have you had the records of the Executive Department of the Cherokee Nation examined to ascertain whether or not there is any record of that divorce? A They have been hunting for it and have not found it, only a docket or something that way.
Q Found where it was docketed? A Yes sir.
Q Have you a copy of the record as it appears? A No sir.

RIDGE PASCHAL, being first duly sworn, and being examined, testified as follows on behalf of applicant:

- BY COMMISSION: What is your name? A Ridge Paschal.
Q How old are you? A Fifty-seven.
Q What is your post office address? A Tahlequah, Indian Territory.
Q Are you a recognized citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation?
A Yes sir.
Q Do you know Alberton Brown? A Yes sir.
Q The applicant in this case? A Yes sir.
Q How long since you have known him? A Since 1866.
Q Are you an attorney at law? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know anything about a divorce being granted between him and his former wife Mollie Taylor? A Yes sir.
Q Were you counsel for Alberton Brown in that suit? A Yes sir.
Q Was that divorce granted? A Yes sir.
Q In what court was it? A In the Circuit Court of Cooweescoowee District. Mollie Taylor brought suit against defendant for divorce.
Q Was Alberton Brown defendant in that case? A Yes sir. She brought suit against this defendant, and that is the first time I ever saw Alberton Brown. I was a practicing attorney in the Cherokee Courts. They also ran an attachment for some property of Brown's. His brother claimed the property before the Clerk. The Cherokee Clerk had the right to try the right to the property. I represented him before the Clerk, represented the brother before the Clerk, on account of the property. That attachment was at the time she had filed suit for divorce. Afterwards the case came up. I remember the both sides were anxious to get loose, and there was not much dispute over the facts. Mr. Bowdinet, who is dead, and myself, represented the defendant. And we let the case go by without proof, that is my recembrance, in the Circuit Court of Cooweescoowee District. But the Circuit Court record ought to show better than my memory.
Q Then you don't know whether or not the divorce was granted?
A Yes, because I was in the court room at the time. I am positive, the divorce was granted.

Q If the divorce was granted, do you know of any reason why there was not a record made of it? A Nothing except it might be the carelessness of the Clerk. There is no reason why it should not be recorded, and I yet believe it is on record.

Q You stated that you interpleaded for the applicant's brother?

A Yes sir.

Q Were you the attorney for the applicant in the divorce suit?

A Yes sir, Mr. Boudinot and myself.

Q Who brought the suit for divorce? A Mollie Taylor Brown.

Q Was the divorce granted to her? A Yes sir, that is my remembrance, that the divorce was granted to her. Mr. Boudinot and myself realized that we could make no defense.

Q Do you remember on what grounds the divorce was granted?

A I think it was adultery.

Q Had the applicant been married previously to his marriage to her?

A I don't know.

Q Was it proven in that case? A I don't think it was involved at all. We never went beyond the pleading and the mere fact of the Cherokee license, I think. Very likely that was proven, but there was no--

Q She brought suit on the ground of adultery and obtained a divorce from the applicant in this case? A Boudinot and I let them get judgment by default, I think, I don't know now. They showed to us, outside witnesses for the plaintiff told us that this man and the respondent had come to his house and occupied the same room. There was three beds in the room. Boudinot and myself decided we could make nothing of it. They slept in the same room, and there was three beds in it, and we decided that we could make nothing of it. That knocked us off the Christmas tree. I remembered that, and it made a deep impression on my mind. But the Cooweescoowee records ought to show as to the divorce, and I yet believe they do.

Q Are you acting as attorney in this case for the applicant?

A No sir. I never saw the applicant until he came up to my office and asked me if I remembered about the case, and I did remember the circumstances. Another thing that made a deep impression on my mind there was a hundred and twenty-five dollar fee to come out of the property, and I never got a dollar out of it.

Q Who was the judge before whom that suit was brought? A It ought to have been George Clark, either George Clark or his successor, which would be Benges. That was in 1896 or 1897. When the case was brought, it ought to be George Clark or George Benges, in the Circuit Court of Cooweescoowee District.

Q You are not sure who the judge was? A No, I can't tell whether it was tried in 1896. It was probably reported in 1896, and the case continued.

The applicant presents a certified copy of record of divorce suit between Mollie Brown and Burton Brown, as the same appears of record in the Executive office of the Cherokee Nation, the correctness of said copy being certified to by A. B. Cunningham, Assistant Executive Secretary of the Cherokee Nation, under the seal of the Cherokee Nation. This certificate will be filed herewith.

This testimony will be filed with and made a part of the report in the matter of the application for the enrollment of Alberton Brown as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, Cherokee straight card field No. 2666.

Wm. Hutchinson, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of the stenographic notes thereof.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application of Alberton Brown for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and for the enrollment of his wife, Annie Brown, as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

D E C I S I O N.

The record herein shows that on September 13, 1900, Alberton Brown appeared before the Commission at Pryor Creek, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and for the enrollment of his wife, Annie Brown, as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation. Further proceedings were had in the matter of said application at Tahlequah, Indian Territory, on October 4, 1900, at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on October 15, 1900, and again at Tahlequah, Indian Territory, on October 20, 1900.

The evidence in this case shows that Annie Brown is a Cherokee Indian and that she is identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880 and the Cherokee census roll of 1896. She was married under a Cherokee marriage license and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation, on March 13, 1893, to Alberton Brown, a white man. Both applicants appear to have been previously married, Annie Brown being the principal applicant's third wife, and he being her second husband. It appears that Annie Brown was divorced from her former husband in 1887. Alberton Brown filed with the Commission a certified copy of a decree of divorce granted on January 6, 1882, by the Circuit Court of Franklin County, Arkansas, between Martha Ann Brown and Alberton Brown, and it is presumed that the said Martha Ann Brown is the principal applicant's first wife. His second wife, Mollie, was dead at the time of his marriage to his present wife.

The evidence further shows that Alberton Brown has resided in the Cherokee Nation continuously since 1882, and his said wife, Annie, has resided continuously therein since 1880, and since their marriage they have lived together continuously in said nation up to and including September 1, 1900.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Alberton Brown should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and that Annie Brown should be enrolled as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, in accordance with the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 468), and it is so ordered.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of ALBERTON BROWN as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

D E C I S I O N

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That at Pryer Creek, Indian Territory, September 13, 1900 application was received by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes for the enrollment of Alberton Brown as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Tahlequah, Indian Territory, October 4, 1902, Muskogee, Indian Territory, October 15, 1902 and Tahlequah, Indian Territory, October 20, 1902. The records further show that on March 2, 1903 the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered its decision herein granting said applicant the right to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That the applicant herein, Alberton Brown, is a white man and neither claims nor possesses any right to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation other than such right as he may have acquired by virtue of his marriage to a recognized citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation; that said Alberton Brown was married in 1882 to his wife, Mollie Brown, who was at the time of said marriage a recognized citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, and that in 1886 the said Mollie Brown secured a divorce from the said Alberton Brown. It is further shown that the said Alberton Brown, on March 13, 1893, was married to one Annie Brown, nee Proctor, who was at the time of said marriage a recognized citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, who is identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880, Tahlequah District No. 2280 as a native Cherokee, and whose name is included on the approved partial roll of citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation opposite No. 27487. Said applicant did not, therefore, marry in accordance with Cherokee law a recognized citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That the decision rendered by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, March 2, 1903, granting the application for the enrollment of Alberton Brown as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, be rescinded, set aside and held for naught, and that in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, the said applicant, Alberton Brown is not entitled, under the provisions of Section Twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 23, 1898 (30 Stats. 495), to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and his application for enrollment as such is accordingly denied.

A. L. Brown,

Prior Creek, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:

As requested in your letter of July 4, there is returned you herewith original marriage license and certificate filed with the Commission on September 15, 1908, when you made application for the enrollment of yourself and family as citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman

Muskogee, Indian Territory, January 10, 1907.

Alberton Brown,

Pryor Creek, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

There is inclosed a copy of the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated January 10, 1907, rejecting, among others, the application for your enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. The Commissioner's decision has this day been forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior for review. You will be advised of the Secretary's action as soon as this office is informed of same.

Respectfully,

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied

Commissioner.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS,
WASHINGTON.

(COPY)

March 2, 1907.

The Honorable,
The Secretary of the Interior,
Sir:

I have the honor to transmit herewith four communications from Commissioner Bixby, enclosing records in the following Cherokee intermarriage citizenship cases:

Sarah Jane Harlan,
Jackson Kelly,
Alburton Brown, and
James A. Nolen.

The records in these cases have been carefully examined by the Office, and the names of none of the applicants are found on the 1880 roll except that of Jackson Kelly. The record in his case does not show the date of his marriage, but it is shown that subsequent to the death of his first wife in 1895, he married a white woman. The notation on the tribal roll of 1880 shows "married out does not apply".

The Office is of the opinion that the decision of the Commissioner in each of these cases is correct, and it is recommended that they be affirmed.

Very respectfully,

C. F. Larrabee

Acting Commissioner.

The name of Annie Hendrix, for whom applicant applies, appears on the census roll of 1896, as Annie Adair, her maiden name. He avers that she is the child of Julia Adair, whose name is found on the authenticated roll of 1880, and the said Annie Hendrix, being fully identified thereby, and having made satisfactory proof of her residence, she will be duly listed for enrollment by this Commission as a Cherokee citizen by blood, under the name of Annie Hendrix, she having married Mark A. Hendrix, a non citizen.

The undersigned, being sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Dear Madam:

There is inclosed a copy of the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated January 10, 1907, rejecting, among others, the application for your enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. The Commissioner's decision has this day been forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior for review. You will be advised of the Secretary's action as soon as this office is informed of same.

Respectfully,

Incl. Decn. D

Commissioner.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Commissioner.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,

Dear Madam:

There is inclosed a copy of the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated January 10, 1907, rejecting, among others, the application for your enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. The Commissioner's decision has this day been forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior for review. You will be advised of the Secretary's action as soon as this office is informed of same.

Respectfully,

Incl. Decn. 6

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Commissioner.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,

this January 10, 1907.

Department of the Interior,
Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Pryor Creek, I.T., September 13, 1900.

In the matter of the application of Eliza Sunday for the enrollment of herself and one orphan child as Cherokees by blood; being sworn and examined by Commissioner Needles, through J. R. Sequichie, a duly sworn interpreter, she testified as follows:

Q What is your name? A Eliza Sunday.
Q How old are you? A 60.
Q What is your post office? A Pryor Creek.
Q Are you a Cherokee citizen by blood? A About 1/4 Cherokee.
Q What district do you live in? A Cooweescoowee.
Q Who do you want to enroll? A Just myself, and I have an orphan child that I have raised.
(On 1880 roll, page 182, No. 2824, Eliza Sunday, Cooweescoowee dist.; on 1896 roll, page 250, No. 4251, Eliza Sunday, Cooweescoowee dist.)
Q What is the name of this child? A Red Rowe.
Q How old is he? A 19 years old.
Q What is his father's name? A Stand Rowe.
Q What was his mother's name? A I don't remember.
(On 1880 roll, page 656, No. 866, Stand Rowe, Saline dist.)
Q What was the name of the mother of this child? A I don't know what her name was.

Zeke Still, being sworn and examined by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows: ~~WXX~~

Q What is your name? A Zeke Still.
Q What is your age? A 41.
Q Do you know the mother of this boy, called Red Rowe? A Yes, sir.
Q Was she an indian? A Yes, sir; a full blood indian, she lived in Spring Creek.

The name of Eliza Sunday is found upon the authenticated roll of 1880 as Eliza Sunday and on the census roll of 1896, and the name of Red Rowe is found upon the census roll of 1896, and satisfactory proof being made that the said mother of Red Rowe was a full blood indian, said Eliza Sunday and the said Red Rowe will be duly listed for enrollment by this Commission as Cherokee citizens by blood.

Bruce C. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above case, and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.
AUXILIARY CHEROKEE LAND OFFICE.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 30, 1906.

In the matter of the application of Jesse E. Burr, to select allotments in the Cherokee Nation for Eliza Sunday, Roll No. 30016, Card No. 2663, and Red Roe, deceased, Card No. 30016, Card 2663.

Jesse E. Burr, Cherokee citizen, being sworn, testified as follows:

EXAMINATION BY THE COMMISSION:

- Q What is your name? A Jesse E. Burr.
- Q What is your post office? A Fryer Creek, Indian Territory.
- Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
- Q How old are you? A 25 years old.
- Q What is your object in appearing at the Auxiliary Cherokee Land Office today? A To file for Eliza Sunday and Red Roe.
- Q What relation are you to Eliza Sunday? A None.
- Q What relation are you to Red Roe? A Not any.
- Q Are they both living? A Mrs. Eliza Sunday is living Red Roe is dead.
- Q When did Red Roe die? A The 28th of February, 1904.
- Q Is Red Roe's mother living? A No sir.
- Q Is his father? A No sir he is not.
- Q Was he at the time of his death married? A No sir.
- Q With whom did he make his home? A He made his home with Mrs. Eliza Sunday.
- Q How long prior to his death had he made his home with her? A Why I knew of his being with her for the last eight years. Prior to that time I cannot say. She said she had had him since he was a small boy.
- Q Was Eliza Sunday in any way related to Red Roe? A I do not know.
- Q But she adopted him? A Yes sir.
- Q Has any one ever been appointed administrator for Red Roe's estate? A No sir, not that I know of.
- Q Who looks after the property that belongs to him? A She did when he was living? She does now.
- Q Why is it that Eliza Sunday cannot appear here and make these selections in person? A Well she is an old lady and couldn't. Half the time she is sick. Is sick now.
- Q Is she confined to her home? A Yes sir. She is just up and down. Very old.
- Q Is this land that you want to select for Red Roe the same land that she has controlled for him before and since his death? A Well she did want that land. She came to me and it appears as though this land that she selected for Red Roe had been filed on.
- Q What was the description of the land? A Section 36, Township 22 North, Range 17 East.
- Q What part of the Section? A Well it is in the East Half.
- Q Do you know what part of the east half? A No I do not. In fact it is two eighty's laying north and south on the east line.
- Q What did Mrs. Eliza Sunday say to you when she came to you? A She said that my first cousin, Maggie Bumgardner had come down here and though a mistake had filed on Red Roe's allotment and I advised her to go to Key and Campbell at Prior Creek and have them write to the Dawes Commission to see if it was filed on. They have written and she got two letters from them two or three days ago from the Dawes Commission and she asked me to open them and read them.

- Q Is the land that you desire to select for Red Roe under improvements? A Yes sir. The land belongs to me personally and is under fence. Under fence and twenty acres under cultivation.
- Q How many allotments have you and your family? A Seven.
- Q How many have you selected? A All but one.
- Q Then this land that you desire to allot to Red Roe belongs to you? A Yes sir.
- Q What authority has anyone to take an allotment for Red Roe, deceased, on lands or improvements the belong to you? A Well I told her she could take it rather than have a contest with my first cousin?
- Q Who is your first cousin? A Maggie Bumgardner. and rather than have a contest told her she could change for Red Roe if she wanted to.
- Q Does the estate of Red Roe, deceased, pay you anything for this land? A No. It does not. I thought she would let me have the land long enough to get something out of it but she never pays me five cents.
- Q Have you any writing relative to this land for filing on it? A No.
- Q Is the land the Eliza Sunday wants to file on under improvements? A Part of it is. All enclosed.
- Q How long has she had this piece of land that she desires to be selected for her? A Forty acres she has had as long as I can remember, 10 or 12 years, and almost always, everybody says.
- Q This forty acre s you say she has had? Where is the balance of her allotment? A Across the section in our pasture.
- Q How long have you owned the land on which you desire to select a portion of Eliza Sunday's allotment? A Five years.
- Q How is it that she gets this forty acres? A I let her have it. My mother owns part of it and we let her have it.
- Q Have you any contract in writing with her? A Not a thing.
- Q Does Eliza Sunday look upon this piece of land in the nature of a gift? A I suppose so. In fact I have got to let some one to file on it or throw it out.
- Q Mr. Burr, in addition to the filings that you have selected for your own family and the one that you intend to select, and the land which you desire for Eliza Sunday and Red Roe about how much land have you outside of that? A How much enclosed.
- Q Yes, how much enclosed? A Well I believe that I will have a surplus of forty acres. I believe that some parties that come down here today were to file on twenty acres in our pasture and if they do I expect it is nearly all taken.

Witness offers power of attorney executed by Eliza Sunday to Jesse E. Burr, authorizing him to select an allotment in the Cherokee Nation for herself and Red Roe, deceased, whom she claims to have adopted, dated March 29, 190 8.

Q What is her postoffice address? A Pryorocreek.
Q How long have you known her? A About 12 years.
Q Is she nearly a full-blood? A I don't think she speaks English.
Q Has she lived in the Cherokee nation ever since you've known her?
A Yes sir.
Q And she's living here now? A Yes sir.
Q Has she a boy, named Red Rowe, living with her? A He's living there with her.
Q About how old is he? A I should judge he's about 23 or '4.
Q How long have you known him? A I've known him 7 or 8 years.
Q Is he a full-blood? A Yes, he's practically a full-blood.
Q He has lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since you've known him, has he? A Yes sir.
Q And he's living there now? A Yes sir.

Mrs. Patsy McDaniel,
Locustgrove, Indian Territory,

Dear Madam:-

The Commission is in receipt of birth affidavit in the matter of the application for the enrollment of your child Nora Harroth.

The same is herewith returned to you and your attention is called to the fact that the Notary before whom the midwife executed her affidavit failed to affix his seal to this affidavit. Have the affidavit corrected in this particular and return to the Commission as promptly as possible.

Yours truly,

Encl to n

Commissioner in Charge.

acting Chairman

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Pryor Creek, I.T., Sept. 13, 1900.

In the matter of the application of Julia L. Eggleston for the enrollment of herself, husband and children as Cherokee citizens; being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge she testified as follows:

Q What is your full name? A Julia L. Eggleston.
Q How old are you? A Thirty-one.
Q What is your post-office? A Pryor Creek.
Q In what district do you live? A Cooweescoowee.
Q Who is it you want to have put on the roll, yourself? A Yes sir.
Q Anybody else? A My children.
Q How many children? A Six.
Q That's all is it? A Well, my husband I guess.
Q Is your husband here? A Yes sir.
Q Is your husband here? A Yes sir.
Q Do you apply for yourself as a Cherokee by blood? A Yes sir.
Q Do you apply for your husband as a Cherokee by blood? A No sir.

MILLARD F. EGGLESTON, being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge testified as follows:

Q What is your full name? A Millard F. Eggleston.
Q What is your age? A Forty-four.
Q What is your post-office? A Pryor Creek.
Q In what district do you live? A Cooweescoowee.
Q Are you the husband of this applicant here, Julia L. Eggleston?
A Yes sir.

Com'r Breckinridge: Just be present, please, so that you can participate in the application as may be necessary.

APPLICANT RE-CALLED:

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation, all your life?
A No sir, I was brought here by the Government, I don't know.

Q Eighteen or nineteen years? A Yes sir.
Nineteen or twenty, - I ~~think~~ drew money on the 1880 roll.

Q Were you here in 1880? A Well I drew money on the 1880 roll here in the Nation.

Q Are you on the roll of 1880 do you know, the census roll?
A I don't know.

Q Where did you come from? A North Carolina.

Q Were you admitted by the Cherokee authorities? A Yes sir.

Q Have you your certificate of admission? A Yes sir.
(Produces papers)

Q What was your name before you were married? A Ballew.

Q When were you married? A 1887.

Com'r Breckinridge: The applicant presents a certificate from R.T. Hanks, assistant executive secretary of the Cherokee Nation, under the seal of his office, dated February 8, 1894, stating that certain persons enumerated therein appear on the roll of North Carolina Cherokees, who removed to the Cherokee Nation October 22, 1881; among these persons appears the name of Julia Ballew, aged at that time fourteen years.

Q Is that your name? A Yes sir.

Com'r Breckinridge: This is accepted as satisfactory evidence of the facts stated and the document is returned to the applicant.

Q Have you a certificate of your marriage? A Yes sir.
(Produces papers)

Com'r Breckinridge: The applicant presents a duly authenticated Cherokee license, authorizing marriage between herself and her husband, license dated December 28 1887, and issued by J. M. Ross Clerk of Saline District; the certificate shows that she and her husband were united in marriage on the 28th of November 1887.

Q How does it happen that your license is dated in December, 1887 and your certificate is dated November 1887? A I can't tell you.

Q Do you think that is just a clerical error? A I don't know.

APPLICANT'S HUSBAND RE-CALLED:

Q How do you explain this difference in date between the license and certificate? A We were married by a traveling preacher, and the Nation made us marry over, you know, by the laws of the Cherokee Nation.

Q You were married first, November 1887; were you, according to this certificate by the clerk; tell me what this November 1887 has got to do with your marriage? A 1887, that's when we was married by that license, the marriage license.

Q The marriage license is not dated until December, it was not in existence in November? A Well it is a mistake then in the man.

Q The difference in it is in the month, and not in the day of the month; both are on the 28th; did you get the license out before you were married? The clerk himself married you? A Yes sir. And the clerk himself issued us the license at the time.

Q And did he marry you at the time he issued the license? A Yes sir.

Q And you had been previously married, you say, by a traveling minister? A Yessir, I was married by preacher Hogan.

Q But this marriage that the clerk performed, I understand you to say, was upon the first day a very day that the license was issued; the clerk states here that he married you? A Yes sir, he did marry us, by the laws of the Cherokee Nation.

Q What day did he marry you, after Hogan married you? A Oh yes

Q How long after Hogan married you? A Over a year; it was nearly two years.

Q In what year were you married by preacher Hogan, before 1887? A Why certainly.

Q Now does this marriage license and certificate that are filed here have anything to do with Hogan marriage, or simply the clerk's marriage under Cherokee law; I say do you think it looks like the clerk made a mistake in putting down the month? A Well he has made that mistake.

Q Did this have anything to do with the Hogan marriage? A No sir.

Q Separate and distinct? A Yes sir.

Q Did the clerk marry you the same day he issued the license?

A Yes sir.

Q Well, it seems that this is simply a clerical error in putting down the month? A Yessir.

APPLICANT RE-CALLED:

Q Now, madam, is that your understanding, that the clerk married you the same day he issued the license? A Yes sir, to the best of my knowledge it is.

Q Have you and your husband lived together as husband and wife ever since you were married? A Yessir.

Q Give me the name of your father? A Charlie Ballow.

Q Cherokee or a white man? A White man.

Q Is he dead or alive? A He is dead.

Q How long has he been dead? A I couldn't tell you.

Q Give me the name of your mother? A Annie.

Q Is she a Cherokee or a white woman? A Cherokee

Q Is she dead or alive? A She is alive.

Q Now give me your husband's name? A Millard F. Eggleston.

Q Name of his mother? A Anos Perry Eggleston.

- Q White man? A Yes sir.
 Q Dead or alive? A Dead.
 Q Name of your husband's mother? A Charlotte M.
 Q White woman was she? A Yes sir.
 Q Is she dead or alive? A Dead.
 Q Now give me the names of these children? A Omer H. Eggleston,
 Q How old is that child? A He is eleven.
 Q The next child, please? A Nora A. Eggleston.
 Q How old is that child? A She is eight years old.
 Q Now the next child, please? A Noah L.
 Q How old is that child? A He is seven.
 Q The next child? A Josie M. Eggleston, a girl.
 Q How old is she? A She is five.
 Q The next child? A Nellie A.
 Q How old is that child? A Three years old.
 Q She is too young to be upon the roll of 1896 is she?
 A Yes sir.
 Q The next child, please? A Henry Dewey Eggleston.
 Q How old is that child? A One year old.
 Q Have you lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since you were married in 1881? A Yes sir.
 Q What district were you in in 1896? A Cooweescoowee.
 1896 roll page 151 #1539 Julia Eggleston Cooweescoowee district;
 1896 roll page 303 #325 Millard F. Eggleston Cooweescoowee;
 1896 roll page 151 #1540 as Oma Eggleston Cooweescoowee;
 1896 roll page 151 #1541 Zora Eggleston Cooweescoowee;
 1896 roll page 151 #1542 Noah Eggleston "
 1896 roll page 151 #1543 Josie Eggleston "
 Q These children all living now? A Yes sir.

Com'r Breckinridge: The applicant applies for the enrollment of herself, her husband and six children, and her husband appears with her in person in the application; she is identified by the certificate cited in the testimony as being upon the roll of North Carolina Cherokee citizens, having been admitted October 22, 1881; she is identified on the roll of 1896 as a native Cherokee; she has lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since her admission in 1881, and she will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. Her husband is a white man; he is shown by the marriage license and certificate filed herewith to have been married to his wife in accordance with Cherokee law in 1887; he had previously been married to her in accordance with United States law; he and his wife testify that the clerk of the district married them the same day that the license was issued; it will be observed that the clerk has noted the license as issued in December, and has made out his certificate for the month of November, which is obviously a clerical error, and is so shown by the personal testimony of both the applicant and his wife; the applicant's husband has lived with his wife in the Cherokee Nation ever since their marriage under Cherokee law in 1887, and he is identified with her on the roll of 1896 and he will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by adoption. Their children, Omer H., Zora A., Noah L., and Josie M., are identified with their parents on the roll of 1896; they are living at this time and they will now be listed for enrollment as Cherokees by blood; the two younger children are not of sufficient age to be upon any roll, but when the Commission is supplied with a duly authenticated certificate of the birth of these two children, Nellie A. and Henry D. Eggleston, they also will be listed for enrollment as Cherokees by blood.

 Q Did she live with him in the Cherokee Nation? A Why, I think so.
 Q What district did she live in? A Why, near Choteau.
 Q Which way from Choteau, east or west? A Maybe they stayed in Choteau awhile, I don't know; and I believe they did live a little while on Markham Prairie.
 Q That's in Saline District, isn't it? A Yes sir.
 Q How long did she live with Miner? A Why, not very long; I couldn't say; I don't believe more than 6 months. I believe they did stay on the Verdigris while.
 Q Did Miner claim to be a citizen by intermarriage after he had lived with your wife? A No sir, never was married to her.
 Q Since you have married, where have you lived? A When I first married I moved to Chelsea and lived there one winter.
 Q Have you ever for any length of time been outside of the Cherokee Nation since you were married? A No sir; I did go to Colorado but I just turned and come right back.
 Q How long did you stay out there before you turned and came back?
 A About a year.
 Q Have you ever been out since that time? A No sir, just the one trip since I been married; I live on the farm and I worked up here near Tahlequah when the Seminary was built.
 Q Did you ever go outside of the nation to any other place besides Colorado? A No sir.
 Q You have stayed in the nation ever since you were married?
 A Yes sir.

Muskegee, Indian Territory, January 10, 1907.

Millard F. Eggleston,
Pryor Creek, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

There is inclosed a copy of the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated January 10, 1907, rejecting, among others, the application for your enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. The Commissioner's decision has this day been forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior for review. You will be advised of the Secretary's action as soon as this office is informed of same.

Respectfully,

Incl. Decn. D-----

Commissioner.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

ACTING CHAIRMAN

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES
PRYOR CREEK, I.T., SEPTEMBER 13th, 1900.

IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION OF Calvin McDaniel for enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee nation, and he being sworn by Commissioner, T. B. Needles, testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A Calvin McDaniel.
Q How old are you? A Twenty two.
Q What is your Postoffice? A Locust Grove.
Q What district do you live in? A Saline.
Q Are you a recognized citizen by blood? A Yes sir.
Q What degree of blood do you claim? A About one fourth.
Q Are you married? A No sir.
Q Just apply for yourself? A Yes sir.
Q Have you always lived in the Cherokee nation? A Yes sir.

The name of Calvin McDaniel appears on the authenticated roll of 1880 and the census roll of 1896, as Charly McDaniel, he being duly identified as Calvin McDaniel, and having made satisfactory proof of his residence, he will be duly listed for enrollment as a Cherokee citizen by blood.

The undersigned, being sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

The Department's instructions of June 1, 1905 (I.T.D. 6240-1905), and October 4, 1905 (I.T.D. 12224-1905), as to the proceedings to be taken with reference to these persons have been complied with. Notice, under date of March 1, 1906, of the information received as to the date of the death of the above named persons, was given by publication for four consecutive issues in "The Cherokee Advocate" and "Pryor Creek Gleaner", both weekly newspapers of general circulation, the former published in the Cherokee Nation at Tahlequah, Indian Territory, and the latter published at Pryor Creek, Indian Territory, in the Recording District in which the above named persons are shown to have resided at the time of their death. The first issue of this publication in "The Cherokee Advocate" was on March 3, and the first issue in the "Pryor Creek Clipper" on March 2, 1906. Attention was called to section 31 of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 716), and notice given to the heirs of the persons named, the administrators of their estates, or any other person having any interest in the estates of the decedents, that the Commissioner would, at the expiration of sixty days from the date of the notice, recommend to the Secretary of the Interior the cancellation of the enrollment of said persons as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, unless conclusive evidence was presented to the effect that said persons were living on September 1, 1902.

In addition to this notice a letter was on May 1, 1906, addressed to each of the above named persons, or his heirs, at his last known postoffice advising the information received, the law with reference to the making of the roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and that unless conclusive evidence was presented within thirty days from date to the effect that the decedent was living September 1, 1902, the Commissioner would recommend to the Secretary of the Interior the cancellation of the enrollment of said person as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

No information having been received that any one of the above named persons was living September 1, 1902, it is respectfully recommended that their names be stricken from the approved partial rolls of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of the Department and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs; that this office be authorized to strike their names from the copies of the approved partial rolls in its possession, and that the applications for their enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation be dismissed.

The Honorable,
The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to transmit herewith a report from the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated August 9, 1906, forwarding affidavits as to the deaths of certain persons whose names appear on a partial roll of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation. Commissioner Bixby refers to Departmental letters of May 31, (I.T.D. 6186-1905), June 1, (I.T.D. 6240-1905), October 4, (I.T.D. 12226-1905), and January 12, (I.T.D. 110-1906), relative to striking from the approved roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation the names of 286 persons who are shown to have died prior to September 1, 1902.

Commissioner Bixby reports that the Department's instructions as to the proceedings to be taken with reference to these persons, have been complied with, and no information having been received that any of the persons enumerated in his report were on September 1, 1902, he recommends that their names be stricken from the approved partial rolls of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of the Department and this office, and that he be authorized to strike their names from the copies of the approved partial rolls in his possession, and that the application for their enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation be dismissed.

The affidavits have been examined in this Office, and are transmitted herewith, the Office concurring in the Commissioner's recommendation.

Very respectfully,

F. E. Loupp.

Q Was she a Cherokee citizen by blood? A Yes sir.
Q When did you marry her? A Last year.
Q What was her name in 1890? A Gambol, I think.
Q Have you a certificate of marriage? A Yes sir.
Q What is the name of your wifes father? A Bell.
Q Did he have any given name? A Yes sir; Peter.
Q Was he a citizen by blood? A No sir; a citizen by adoption.
Q What is her mothers name? A I can not tell you what.
Q You say she has some children? A Yes sir. She has two children;
Q Is she upon the roll of 1890? A I think she is.
Q What are the names of the children? A General Still.
Q How old is he? A He is five years old.
Q Any other children? A I want to enroll one of my own, by my other wife.
Q What is its name? A Benjamin Franklin Martin.
Q How old? A Five years old.
Q Where was your wife born? A In the old country maybe; Tennessee.
Q What was your wifes maiden name? A Bell.
Q How old is she? A Thirty two.
Q (1890 Roll, Page 413, #264, Carrie Bell, Going Snake District)
Q What was her name in 1896? A Still.

By Mr. W. W. Hastings, Cherokee Representative:
Q You were married to this woman? A Yes sir.
Q These children were born to you while you were living with her?
A Yes sir.

Q Her children? A Yes sir.

Q Have you got the child? A Yes sir; it was decreed to me in the Court.

By the Commission:

The name of Nathaniel R. Martin appears on the census roll of 1896. It appears that he applied to the Dawes Commission for citizenship, September 1st, 1896, and that his application was refused. No appeal was taken. Consequently the judgment is final. He will not be entitled to enrollment and his enrollment is refused.

The name of his wife, Callie, is found on the authenticated roll of 1880 as Carrie Bell, and she is identified as Carrie Martin, having married one Gambol, afterwards Still and afterwards one Martin, a non-citizen. She has a child by her husband Still, by the name of General Still, whose name appears on the census roll of 1896. It is averred that she has one other child, named George A. Martin, by her husband, Nathaniel Martin, and a certificate of birth is filed as to that child. The applicant applies for the enrollment of his own child, Benjamin Franklin Martin, by Lizzie Beckleheimer, a Cherokee citizen by blood, and the name of Lizzie Beckleheimer appears on the authenticated roll of 1880. Consequently, the names of General Still and George A. Martin will be duly listed for enrollment as Cherokee citizens by blood. The name of Benjamin Franklin Martin, not being found on the rolls of the Cherokee Nation, will be duly listed for enrollment as a Cherokee citizen by blood, when satisfactory proof of his birth is filed with this Commission.

The said Callie Martin will be duly listed for enrollment by this Commission as a Cherokee citizen by blood, she being fully identified on the authenticated roll of 1880, and satisfactory proof having been given as to her residence.

Q What is your full name? A Sallie Miller.
Q How old are you? A 21.
Q What is your post office? A Pryor Creek.
Q In what district do you live? A Cooweescoowee.
Q Who is it you want to have put on the roll? A Myself and one child.
Q Do you apply for yourself as a Cherokee by blood? A Yes, sir.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A All my life.
Q What was your name before it was Miller? A Sallie Mayes.
Q When were you married? A In May, 1900.
Q You are on the roll of 1880, are you? A Expect so.
Q Give me the name of your father, please? A Jim Mayes.
Q Cherokee or white man? A Cherokee.
Q Dead or alive? A Dead.
Q How long has he been dead? A He has been dead about six years.
Q Give me your mother's given name, please? A Annie.
Q Cherokee or white woman? A Cherokee.
Q Dead or alive? A Dead.
Q How long has she been dead? A She died when I was a child.
Q Have you a certificate of your marriage? A No, sir, I did have one.
Q Give me the name of your child, please? A Ben.
Q How old is that child? A Five months old.
Q That child was born before your marriage? A Yes, sir.

Q When was she married to him? A One or two months ago.
Q Married in this year? A Yes, sir.
Q Has she a child? A Yes, sir.
Q Is that child recognized as her own child? A Yes, sir.

Sallie Miller---2.

Com'r Breckinridge:

The applicant is identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1896 as a native Cherokee. She has lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life. Her marriage to her husband is established by her own and other satisfactory personal testimony. This accounts for her present change of name. She will now be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. Her child, Benjamin Miller, is too young to be upon any roll. When the Commission is supplied with a duly authenticated certificate of the birth of this child, it also will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

---00000000---

The undersigned, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 17th day of September, 1900.

Tahlequah, I. T., April 11, 1905.

In the matter of the application for the selection of allotments and the designation of homesteads in the Cherokee Nation for Sallie and Benjamin Miller and Walter L. Fields. Nos. 6848-9-3.

GEORGE W. GOSS, being duly sworn and examined by the Commission, testified as follows:---

- Q What is your name? A George W. Goss.
Q How old are you? A Pretty near 45. I guess you would call me 45.
Q What is your post-office? A Pryor Creek.
Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q By blood? A By blood.
Q You present a letter from Sue Vann ~~requesting~~ stating that she can not appear before the Commission, and asking that the Commission permit you to assist in allotting land to her minor child, Walter Fields? A Yes sir.
Q Is Susie Vann related to you? A Yes sir; my step-daughter and kin besides.
Q Is her child, Walter L. Fields, living? A Yes sir.
Q Does the land she desires for that child lie there with the other members of the family? A Yes sir.
Q Its all in one farm is it? A All in one farm and---
Q You have been over it? A Yes sir. I made it all; I guess I have been over it. I have got a plot here of the whole business, if you want to see it, with all the names on it.
Q Is Susie Vann married? A Yes sir.
Q What is her husband's name? A W. M. Hair.
Q Is he a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q You also present a letter from Sallie Hickie, formerly Miller, that the Commission permit you to assist in making allotments to herself and child, B. F. Miller? A Yes sir.
Q Is Sallie Miller living? A Yes sir.
Q Is she married? A Yes sir.
Q What is her husband's name? A George Hickie.
Q Is he a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q What is his father's name? A Tom Hickie.
Q Is his full name George H. Hickey? A I know it is George.
Q When were they married? A About a year ago.
Q Do you remember the month? A No sir, I don't.
Q Do you know what season of the year it was? A Somewhere along about the last of February or March, a little over a year ago. I never give it any thought. They live right there with me. I never asked them. They are Married.

- Q Have you any one here that knows about the date of their marriage? A No sir, I haven't. Lots of fellows here know they were married about that time, but they don't know the date. I know he left his license down at Muskogee. I raised the girl myself.
- Q Can't you state what year it was they married? A I guess about '96.
- Q How's that? A '95.
- Q 1903 was about 2 years ago? A 1903, I guess.
- Q Do you think it was after September 1, 1902, the date of the closing of the Cherokee roll? A I think it was March 2 years ago they were married, as well as I can remember; I can't say positive.
- Q Are they living together now? A Yes sir.
- Q Was she married before she married George Hickey? A Yes sir.
- Q What was her former husband's name? A Bob Miller.
- Q Is he living? A Yes sir.
- Q Were they divorced? A Yes sir.
- Q Do you know when they were divorced? A About 3 months before they was married; somewheres along there in time of court before they was married.
- Q What is the reason Sallie Miller is not present in person to select her own allotment? A I guess she would be if she was here.
- Q What is the reason she's not here? A She couldn't get here. She wrote there that she couldn't come.
- Q I wish, if you know, you would tell me why she isn't here? A She didn't have the money to come on was one reason.
- Q Have you been over and examined all of her land that you expect to select? A Yes sir.
- Q Is there any contest on any part of it? A not as I know of

Dear Madam:

This office is in receipt of your letter of November 30, enclosing a letter from Dana H. Kelsey, U. S. Indian Agent, in connection with Cherokee Intruder case No. 453, and in which he requests you to ascertain the citizenship status in the Cherokee Nation of one Rachel Todd.

In reply you are advised that the records of this office show that application for the enrollment of one Rachel Todd as a Cherokee Freedman was denied by the Secretary of the Interior November 22, 1904, and that a motion for rehearing in said case is now pending before the Department.

The letter from the Indian Agent is returned to you herewith.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June, 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Commissioner.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,

this January 10, 1907.

Cherokee 2684

Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 7, 1907.

Mary Welch,

Fryor Creek, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:

You are advised that the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated January 10, 1907, rejecting your application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, was affirmed by the Secretary of the Interior, January 26, 1907.

Respectfully,

Commissioner.

Cherokee I, et al.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 7, 1907.

W. W. Hastings,
Attorney for Cherokee Nation,
Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Com'r Breckinridge:

The applicant applies for the enrollment of herself and one child: The applicant claims as a Cherokee by adoption. Her deceased husband is identified on the roll of 1880 as a native Cherokee. He has been dead some five years. The applicant is identified under his name on the roll of 1896, and her own and other personal testimony establishes that they were married in 1891. She states that she has never remarried since the death of her husband some five years ago, and has continued to live in the Cherokee Nation, and she will be listed now as a Cherokee by adoption. Her child, Willie V. Martin is identified with its mother on the roll of 1896. It is living at this time and it will now be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Commissioner.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,
this January 10, 1907.

Birdie Martin,

Adair, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:

You are advised that the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated January 10, 1907, rejecting your application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, was affirmed by the Secretary of the Interior, January 26, 1907.

Respectfully,

C
Commissioner.

(On 1896 Roll, page 165, No. 1919 Cora Gray, Cooweescoowee District.)

The APPLICANT: They made a mistake in that, it should be Lairy.

Q These children are all alive and living with you? A Yes, sir.

(1896 Roll, page 306, No. 454. Elisha M. Gray, Cooweescoowee

District.)

The name of Anna Eliza Gray appears upon the authenticated roll of 1880 as ~~Anna~~ Eliza Lairy, and upon the roll of 1896 as Anna L. Gray, and she presents a certified copy of marriage license and certificate of marriage certifying that she married one Elisha Gray on the 28th day of October, 1891, and the name of Elisha Gray is found upon the census roll of 1896 as Elisha; and the names of her children, William, Nellie and Cora Lairy are found upon the census roll of 1896, and are all duly identified. Satisfactory proof having been made as to their residence the said Anna Eliza Gray and her children, William, Nellie and Cora will be duly enlisted for enrollment by this Commission as Cherokee citizens by blood; and the said Elisha M. Gray as a Cherokee citizen by intermarriage.

The undersigned being duly sworn states that as stenographer to the commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and other proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a correct and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

W. S. McWhorter
Subscribed and sworn to before me this 20th day of September

ACTING CHAIRMAN

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, I. T., October 29, 1902.

Cher-2686.

In the matter of the application of Elisha M. Gray for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee nation.

Elisha M. Gray being first duly sworn and examined by the Commission, testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A Elisha M. Gray.
- Q How old are you at this time? A About 65 years old, as near as I can tell.
- Q What is your postoffice address at present? A Prior Creek, I. T.
- Q Are you an applicant for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Cherokee nation? A Yes sir.
- Q What is your wife's name? A Ann Eliza.
- Q Is she living at this time? A Yes sir.
- Q Is she a citizen by blood of the Cherokee nation? A Yes sir.
- Q When were you and your wife Ann Eliza married? A Well, now, I can't tell you; I have got no account of it; it is about 8 or 9 years ago; I can't tell you exactly.
- Q Had you ever been married prior to your marriage to your wife Ann Eliza? A Yes, I was married when I come to this country.
- Q How many times were you married before you married your wife Ann Eliza? A Once.
- Q What was your first wife's name? A Her name was Mary Roden.
- Q Was she a white woman or a Cherokee? A She was a Cherokee, but we never proved up until she died.
- Q You was never married to your first wife under Cherokee laws? A No.
- Q Was your first wife dead when you married Ann Eliza? A Yes.
- Q Had your wife Ann Eliza ever been married before she married you? A Yes sir.
- Q How many times before? A Once.
- Q What was her first husband's name? A Larry.
- Q Was he living or dead when you and she married? A He was dead.
- Q You are her second husband and she is your second wife? A Yes sir.
- Q Did you marry your wife Ann Eliza under a Cherokee license in accordance with Cherokee laws? A Yes.
- Q Have you already filed your marriage license and certificate with the Commission? A Yes sir.
- Q Have you and your wife Eliza Ann lived together from the date of your marriage as husband and wife up to the present time? A No, we have been parted about two years.
- Q Separated two years ago? A Yes.
- Q Where were you living when you separated? A Right close to Prior Creek.
- Q Living on a farm or in town? A On a farm.
- Q What was the cause of your separation? A Well, sir, I can't really tell you as far as that's concerned. She got so--you see I had no children when I married her, and she had six children. I built a good farm for them; they had no farm when I married her, and they didn't treat me just right and just told me they would rather I would leave. Well, I staid there and worked and kept up the family, and finally she said I must leave, and I just pulled out and left her; there was no fight--no scratching, and nothing done at all. We parted in good humor as men ought to, and speak to one another.
- Q You got up and left the place then, where you were living? A Yes.
- Q Is she living there on the same place yet? A Yes sir.
- Q Where have you been living since then? A Most of the time right in Prior Creek with the exception of two months I was in Arkansas to get my eyes doctored, in below Ft. Smith.
- Q You and your wife have not lived together in the last two years? A No.
- Q Have you ever made any effort to get her to come back and live with you? A No, I havn't.
- Q You are still living separate and apart? A Yes sir.
- Q Have you ever been divorced since you separated? A No sir.

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES
OF THE SOUTHERN STATES

- Q Has she ever applied for a divorce? A Not that I know of.
Q In the eyes of the law you were still husband and wife on the 1st of September, 1902? A Yes.
Q Have you lived in the Cherokee nation all the time since your marriage to your wife Ann Eliza? A Yes, I lived with her six or eight years; I have lived at Prior Creek all my life.
Q How long has she lived in the Cherokee nation? A She never was out of the Cherokee nation.
Q Lived in the Cherokee nation all her life has she? A Yes sir.
Q These children, William, Nellie and Cera Larry, are your wife's children by her first husband? A Yes sir.
Q Are they all living at this time? A Yes sir.
Q Lived all their lives in the Cherokee nation? A Yes sir.

Examination by Mr. Starr-Cherokee representative.

- Q Mr. Gray, you are notified that the Cherokee nation will, on November 4, 1902, introduce testimony to disprove your rights as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee nation.

Frances R. Lane upon oath states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes she correctly recorded the testimony in the above entitled cause, and that the foregoing is an accurate transcript of her stenographic notes thereof.

- Q. About how long did they live together before they were first separated? A I guess about two years before the enrollment at Pryor Creek.
- Q. That was in September, 1900, then, that was about two years before September, 1902? A Yes sir.
- Q. Did he leave her or did she leave him? A He left her.
- Q. Did she remain on the place? A Yes sir.
- Q. Are you married now? A Yes sir.
- Q. Were you married then? A Yes sir, I was married when he left.
- Q. How far were you living from them at the time of this first separation? A I lived in about a mile.
- Q. You say your mother continued to live on the place? A Yes sir.
- Q. Well, after the first separation did they commence living together again? A Yes sir, he came back.
- Q. About when? A About a week or so before they enrolled.
- Q. How long did he live with her? A I think he was there about two weeks after they enrolled when he left again.
- Q. Did he leave her again? A Yes sir.
- Q. They have been separated continuously since that time? A Yes sir.
- Q. Did she remain on the place? A Yes sir.
- Q. He left her? A Yes sir, he left her.

- Commissioner: What was the cause of the separation? A I don't know what was the cause of the separation.
- Q. You don't know anything about his treatment toward your mother? A No sir.
- Q. What caused him to leave her or her to leave him? A I don't know.
- A. Yes sir, I don't know anything about that.

William M. Gray et al.

Q Do you know where he is now? A I think he lives in Frytown.
Q Did he ever offer to come back since the separation after the enrollment? A I don't know.
Q How long did you say they were separated the first time? A
I think about two years.
Q And they lived together again about three weeks? A Yes sir, he came back there again about a week before the enrolled and stayed two weeks or so afterwards.
Q Since that time they never lived together? A No sir.

The undersigned, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded

In the matter of the application of Ann Eliza Gray for the enrollment of herself and her three children, William, Nellie and Cora Larry, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

D E C I S I O N .

The record herein shows that on September 13, 1900, Ann Eliza Gray appeared before the Commission at Pryor Creek, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment of herself and her three children, William, Nellie and Cora Larry, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation. The application also includes Elisha M. Gray for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, but his status as such is not passed upon at this time and he is not embraced in this decision. Further proceedings were had in the matter of said application at Muskogee, Indian Territory on October 29 and November 24, 1902.

The evidence shows that Ann Eliza Gray is a Cherokee Indian and that she is identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880 and the Cherokee census roll of 1896. The minor applicants herein are her children by a former husband, and they are also identified on the Cherokee census roll of 1896. The evidence further shows that the said Ann Eliza Gray was married, under a Cherokee marriage license and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation, on October 28, 1891, to Elisha M. Gray, a white man.

The evidence further shows that Ann Eliza Gray and her three children have resided in the Cherokee Nation all their lives.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Ann Eliza Gray, William Larry, Nellie Larry and Cora Larry, should be enrolled as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, in accordance with the provisions of section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), and it is so ordered.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application of Lizzie L. Wright for enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

O R D E R.

The record in this case shows that at Pryor Creek, Indian Territory, on September 13, 1900, application was made to the Commission for the enrollment of Lizzie (L.) Wright as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

The evidence herein shows that the said Lizzie L. Wright died prior to September 1, 1902.

Section twenty-five of the act of Congress approved
July 1, 1902, provides:

"The roll of citizens of the Cherokee nation shall be made as of september first, nineteen hundred and two, and the names of all persons then living and entitled to enrollment on that date shall be placed on said roll by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes."

It is, therefore, ordered that the application for the enrollment of Lizzie L. Wright as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation be, and the same is, hereby dismissed, without prejudice, under the provisions of the law above quoted.

CHIEF CLERK

Y. D. 1889.
S. 1889.

TO THE COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.
AT WASHINGTON, D. C.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

Pryor Creek, I.T. September 13, 1900.

IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION OF JAMES L. TAYLOR FOR THE ENROLLMENT OF HIMSELF, HIS WIFE AND CHILDREN, AS CHEROKEE CITIZENS.

The said James L. Taylor, being sworn and examined by Commissioner T. B. Needles, testified as follows:

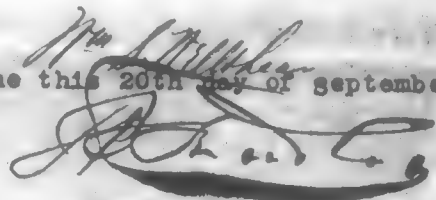

- Question. What is your name? A James L. Taylor.
Q What is your age? A Thirty-eight.
Q What is your post office address? A Pryor Creek.
Q What district do you live in? A Cooweescoowee District.
Q You are a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q By blood or intermarriage? A By blood.
Q What degree of blood do you claim? A I guess about one thirty-second. I don't know.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A I came in June 1881.
Q You have been living here ever since? A Yes, sir.
Q Your name is on the roll of 1880? A On the North Carolina roll of 1880.
Q For whom do you apply for enrollment? A Myself, my wife and two children.
Q What is your wife's name? A Dora B.
Q Is she a citizen by blood? A No, sir.
Q She is a white woman? A Yes, sir.
Q When did you marry her? A April 1895.
Q Have you a certificate of marriage? A Yes, sir.
Q What is your wife's age? A About twenty-four, I think. I don't know exactly.
Q How long has she been living in the Cherokee Nation? A Since her marriage.
Q What is the name of your children? A Nellie; three years old, and Alice, fifteen months old.
Q Are these children alive and living with you? A Yes, sir.
The name of James L. Taylor appears upon the records of the Cherokee Nation in the list of North Carolina Cherokees who removed to the Cherokee Nation June 1, 1881, under an act of the Council approved December 3, 1880. He also presents a certificate of marriage in due form, certifying that he married Miss Dora B. Carty, a citizen of the United States on the 21st day of April, 1895.

Applicant also presents proof of birth as to the two children Nellie and Alice M. whose names ~~appear~~ do not appear upon the census roll of 1896, they having been born after the same was compiled. They being duly identified and satisfactory proof being made as to their residence, the said James L. Taylor and his two children Nellie and Alice M. Taylor, will be enlisted for enrollment upon the records of this Commission as Cherokee citizens by blood, and ~~and~~ Dora B. as a Cherokee citizen by intermarriage.

The undersigned being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and other proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a full and correct transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,

Commissioner.

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.
Pryor Creek, I.T September 13, 1900.

IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION OF JAMES F. BALLARD FOR THE ENROLLMENT OF HIMSELF, HIS WIFE AND CHILDREN, AS CITIZENS OF THE CHEROKEE NATION.

The said James F. Ballard, being sworn and examined by Commissioner T. B. Needles, testified as follows:

- Question. What is your full name? A James F. Ballard.
Q What is your age? A Forty-two.
Q What is your post office? A Pryor Creek.
Q What district do you live in? A Cooweescoowee.
Q Are you a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation by blood?
A Yes, sir.
Q What degree of blood? A One sixteenth, I guess.
Q How long have you resided in the Cherokee Nation? A I was born and raised here.
Q For whom do you apply?
A For myself, my wife and two children.
Q What is your wife's name? A Jessie M. Ballard.
Q Is she a citizen by blood? A No, sir.
Q When were you married to her? A In 1894.
Q Have you a certificate of marriage? A Yes, sir.
Q What are the names of your children? A Henry T and John Chester.
Q How old is Henry? A Fifteen years old.
Q How old is the second one? A He is three years old.
Q You were married in 1894? A I was married before.
Q What was your first wife's name? A Hattie Ellis.

(On 1880 roll, page 228, No. 321, James Ballard ~~Taylor~~, Delaware District.)

(On 1896 Roll, page ¹⁰⁵105, No. 177, James F. Ballard Cooweescoowee District.)

(On 1896 Roll, page 294, No. 41, Jessie Ballard, Cooweescoowee.
District.)

(On 1896 Roll, page 104, No. 178, Henry T. Ballard, Cooweescoowee.
District)

Q Are these children all alive and living with you? A Yes, st
One of them is off at school now.

The applicant presents a marriage license and certificate of ~~marriage~~ ~~marriage certifying that he was married to Miss Hattie Ellis, a white~~ person, in the State of Arkansas on the 6th day of August, 1885. He also presents a certificate of marriage and license in due form certifying that he was married to Miss Jessie Key, a citizen of the United States in the Indian Territory on the 25th day of December, 1894, he being divorced from his first wife.

Q You were divorced from her? A Yes, sir.

The name of James F. Ballard appears upon the authenticated roll of 1880, and upon the census roll of 1896 as James Ballhrd. The name of his present wife, Jessie M. Appears upon the census roll of 1896 as Jessie. The name of his child Henry T. Appears upon the census roll of 1896, and he presents proper proof of birth as to John C., the youngest child, whose name does not appear on said roll.

Satisfactory proof being made as to the residence of said applicants, and they all being duly identified, the said James F. Ballard and his children Henry T. and John C. will be duly enlisted for enrollment as Cherokees by blood by this Commission, and his wife Jessie M. as a Cherokee citizen by intermarriage.

The undersigned being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and other proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a correct and complete transcript of the same.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 12th day of September, A. D. 1900.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, I. T., September 26, 1902.

In the matter of the application of James F. Ballard for the enrollment of himself and children, Henry T. and John C., as citizens by blood, and for the enrollment of his wife, Jessie M. Ballard, as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation; said Jessie M. Ballard, being sworn and examined by the Commission, testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A Jessie May Ballard.
Q What is your postoffice address? A Pryor Creek.
Q What is your age at this time? A Twenty-eight.
Q Are you the same Jessie M. Ballard for whom application was made on September 13, 1900, as the wife of James F. Ballard? A I am.
Q What is the name of your husband? A James F.
Q When were you married to him? A December 25, 1894.
Q Was he ever married previous to his marriage to you? A He was.
Q Was his first wife living or dead when he married you? A Living.
Q Was he divorced from her? A He was.
Q You know where he was divorced, what court? A No, I do not.
Q Was he only married the one time previous to his marriage to you?
A Yes.
Q Were you ever married prior to your marriage to him? A No sir.
Q Have you and he lived together as husband and wife ever since your marriage? A We have.
Q Have you lived in the Cherokee Nation since your marriage? A We have. We were married at Wagoner, but we have lived in the Cherokee Nation soon after our marriage.
Q Practically all the time? A Yes sir, our home, our farm was there.
Q James F. Ballard and these two children, Henry T. and John C., are alive and living in the Cherokee Nation? A Henry T. is not.
Q Where is he? A Bufaula, in the Creek Nation.
Q That is still in the Indian Territory? A Yes sir.
Q They have always lived in the Indian Territory since your marriage? A Yes sir, all their lives.
Q You and your husband never have separated? A No sir.
Q Were you living together on the first day of September, 1902?
A We were.
Q I find that your husband has never filed the decree of divorce from his first wife and it will be necessary before you can be enrolled that he supply a copy of his divorce from his first wife? A I think it was at Claremore.
You want to call his attention to that; he must comply with that.

The undersigned, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,
this January 10, 1907:

Commissioner.

Cherokee 2697

Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 7, 1907.

Mattie H. Bean,

Pryor Creek, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:

You are advised that the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated January 10, 1907, rejecting your application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, was affirmed by the Secretary of the Interior, January 26, 1907.

Respectfully,

C
Commissioner.

Cherokee 1, et al.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 7, 1907.

W. V. Hastings,
Attorney for Cherokee Nation,
Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

For your information there is inclosed a copy of the decision of the Secretary of the Interior, dated January 26, 1907, affirming the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated January 10, 1907, rejecting the applications for the enrollment of Queen Watkins, et al., as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

Respectfully,

Commissioner.

READ THE NOTICE AND AGREEMENT ON BACK.

ALL MESSAGES TAKEN BY THIS COMPANY ARE SUBJECT TO THE FOLLOWING TERMS

To guard against mistakes or delays, the sender of a message should order it REPEATED; that is telegraphed back to the originating office for comparison. For this, one-half the regular rate is charged in addition. It is agreed between the sender of the following message and this Company, that said Company shall not be liable for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery of any UNREPEATED message, beyond the amount received for sending the same; nor for mistakes or delays in the transmission or delivery, or for non-delivery of any REPEATED message, beyond fifty times the sum received for sending the same, unless specially insured, nor in any case for delays arising from unavoidable interruption in the working of its lines, or for errors in cipher or obscure messages. And this Company hereby made the agent of the sender, without liability, to forward any message over the lines of any other Company when necessary to reach its destination.

In the event of a fire, loss of a message to any party on the line of this Company can be INSURED by contract in writing, at the agreed amount of risk, and payment of premium thereon, at the following rates, in addition to the usual charge for repeated messages, viz, one per cent. for any distance not exceeding five miles, and two per cent. for any greater distance. No employee of the Company is authorized to vary the foregoing.

No responsibility regarding messages attaches to this Company until the same are presented and accepted at one of its transmitting offices; and if a message is sent to such office by one of the Company's messengers, he acts for that purpose as the agent of the sender.

Messages will be delivered free within the established free delivery limits of the terminal office. For delivery at a greater distance, a special charge will be made to cover the cost of such delivery.

The Company will not be liable for damages or statutory penalties in any case where the claim is not presented in writing within sixty days after the message is filed with the Company for transmission.

Sam'r Breckinridge:

The applicant applies for the enrollment of himse,f his wife and four children of his own; three children of his wife, and four children for whom he is guardian: The applicant is identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1896 as a native Cherokee. He has lived in the Cherokee Nation all his live, and he will be listed for enroll ent now as a Cherokee by blood. His wife is identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1896 as a native Cherokee. She has lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life. Her change of name is accounted for by her marriage between 1880 and 1896, which is established by the testimony of her husband and of herself. She will be listed nor for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

David W. Ragsdale---4.

With regards to the applicants children Maggie, David and Nancy, children of the present marriage: These three are identified with their parents on the roll of 1896. They are living now and will be listed for enrollment as Cherokees by blood. The youngest of these children, Cloud, is too young to be on any roll. When the Commission is supplied with a duly authenticated certificate of the birth of this child Cloud Ragsdale, it also will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

Now their three step-children as stated, Mary, Benjamin and Laura Raper: They are the children of the applicant's wife by a former marriage. Both the father and mother are identified upon the roll of 1880. The oldest of these three children is identified upon the roll of 1880, and all three of them are identified upon the roll of 1896. They are all minors and living at this time, and they will be listed now for enrollment as Cherokees by blood.

As regards the children for whom the applicant is guardian: They are two, named David R. and Beatrice Alberty. These children are both identified on the roll of 1896. They are living with the applicant at this time. Their deceased father and mother are both identified on the roll of 1880, and these two children will now be listed for enrollment as Cherokees by blood.

As regards the child ~~xxxxxxx~~ Blue Adair, for whom the applicant is guardian: This child is too young to be upon any roll. It is the child of Mary Raper, who is identified upon the rolls of 1880 and 1896. The father of this child, Eric M. Adair, now deceased, is identified upon the rolls both of 1880 and 1896. When the Commission is supplied with a duly authenticated certificate of the birth of this child, it also will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

As regards the child Ruby Uhles: This is a child of Martha Uhles, whose maiden name was Marth Alberty. She is identified upon the roll of 1896 as a native Cherokee. Upon reliable personal testimony, she is shown to be a native of the Cherokee Nation and to have lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life, and her marriage is established as having taken place seven years ago with one Fred Uhles, who is said to be in the Phillipin Islands. The mother of this child is dead. When the Commission is supplied with a duly authenticated certificate of the birth of this child, it also will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

Examined by the Commission:

- Q State your name ? A John F. Warren.
Q How old are you ? A Fifty four.
Q What is your post office ? A Adair.
Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation ? A I am.
Q Do you know David Alberty ? A I do.
Q Has he got any middle name ? A I don't know whether that he has or not, Uncle Dave Ragsdale is guardian for him.
Q Do you know whether this boy has any middle name is what I am asking ? A No sir, just know the boy and know his father, and know his mother.
Q He is on the roll here as David R., and it is a question as to whether it is David R., or David P., but you don't know that do you ? A I don't know about that; his father is Josh Alberty.
Q Had his father any middle name ? A I aint certain about that.
Q Was his father a Cherokee ? A A Cherokee, yes sir.
Q Is he living ? A No sir, dead.
Q What was his mother's name ? A Mary. She was a white when Mr. Alberty married her.
Q Wasn't it Sallie ? A Now you are right, Sallie is right.
Q Is she dead ? A She is dead.
Q Did you know Josh and Sallie Alberty ? A Yes sir.
Q When did they die ? A Well, they have been dead some seven or eight years, I don't know but that Josh has been dead ten years.
Q Did he always live in the Cherokee Nation ?
A Did they, yes sir.
Q They were both residents of the Cherokee Nation at the time they died ? A Yes sir, living at Fryer Creek.
Q Where has David Alberty been living since the death of his parents ? A He lived first with Tom Gaylor, who was his guardian, and after Gaylor got into trouble he give up the guardianship, and he is living with Ragsdale.
Q So that David Alberty has resided in the Cherokee Nation all his life ? A Yes sir.
Q Has he a sister named Beatrice ? A Yes sir.
Q Same father and mother ? A Yes sir.
Q And she has the same status as David ? A Yes sir.
Q Lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life ? A Yes sir.
Q And now living with David W. Ragsdale, guardian ?
A Yes sir.
Q How old are these children, do you know ?
A They are about 17 and 19, or 16 and 18, nearly grown.
Q Did you come in to get a number for these parties ?
A Yes sir I did, I am furnishing them their allotments.
Q Of course Mr. Ragsdale intends to come in and select these allotments for these children ? A Yes sir.

E. C. Bagwell, on oath states that, as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings had in the above entitled cause, and that the foregoing is an accurate transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Q How old is she? A Twenty-eight.
Q How long have you been married? A Six years.
Q To her? A Yes, sir.
(Through the interpreter)
Q Ask him what her name was before he married her. (No response)
Q Has he got any children? A Yes, sir.
Q What are their names? A ~~Swimmer~~ Swimmer Pegg.
Q How old is he? A Seventeen years old.
Q Are these children children of his first wife or of his present wife? A No of his former wife.
Q Has he any children by his present wife? A He has several step children by this woman.
Q Has he got any children of his own by this woman? A No, sir.
Q What are the names of his children that he wants to enroll after Swimmer? A Watt Pegg.
Q How old is Watt? A Fourteen years old.
Q What is the name of the next one? A That is all of his own, and then he has some step children.
Q What are their names? A Bark Leech.
Q How old is Bark Leech? A Seventeen years old. He says Bark or Oohalooga.
Q What is the name of the next? A Cheyoker Leech.
Q How old is she? A Thirteen years. She is a girl.
Q Any more? Arrnela Leech.
Q How old is she? A Five years old.
Q Well, any more? A That is all.
(On 1880 Roll, page 484, No. 831, Thomas Pegg, Saline District.)
Q Ask him who is the mother of Swimmer. A That is his first wife.
Q Ask him what was his first wife's name. A Alsie Pegg.

JOEL M. BRYAN, being first duly sworn, and examined, testified as follows:

Examined by the Commission:

- Q State your name ? A Joel M. Bryan.
Q How old are you ? A Forty seven.
Q What is your post office ? A Locust Grove.
Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee Nation ? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know Thomas Pegg ? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you known him ? A Oh, I don't know; fifteen or twenty years, maybe thirty or forty, I have known Tom a long time.
Q Has he been living in the Cherokee Nation all the time you have known him ? A Yes sir.
Q He is a full blood Cherokee, is he ? A We know him as a full blood.
Q What is his wife's name ? A Nancy.
Q How long have you known his wife Nancy ? A Ten or fifteen years.
Q Do you know where she was living in 1880 at the time the 1880 roll was made ? A No, but I think in Saline.
Q What was her mother's name ? A Jennie Boney.
Q She was a full blood Cherokee ? A Known as such, yes sir.
Q Is she dead, Jennie ? A I don't think she is, I am not sure though; she has filed. I have always known her as Nancy's mother.
Q Do you know Jennie Boney personally ? A Yes sir; I knew her father.
Q Do you know Nancy's father ? A No sir, I don't believe I do, I might have known him, but I don't recollect.
Q Do you know whether Nancy was born in the Cherokee Nation ? A No, not for sure; I have always known them as citizens of Saline district. I think she was born and raised there, but I can't say positive.
Q You have known her ever since she was a little girl ? A The first time I recollect of ever seeing her I think she must have been twelve or thirteen years old.
Q How Thomas Pegg has got how many children ? A Tom Pegg has some children, I don't know their names.
Q He had been married before he married Nancy ? A Yes sir, and I think Nancy had some children herself.
Q Do you know Watt and Swimmer Pegg ? A I have seen them I guess, but I don't know them.
Q She has some children ? A Yes sir, I think she has some children too. I have never been to the house; they own the store and trade.
Q Do you know of any of the family having died in the past three years ? A No sir, not that I know of.
Q No deaths in the family that you know of ? A No sir.
Q All the children that were enrolled are still living so far as you know ? A Yes sir, I think they are.
Q How far do you live from Thomas Pegg ? A Five or six miles.
Q Do you know how long Thomas Pegg has been married to Nancy ? A No sir, I don't think they have been married but three or four years; I don't know how long.

Q They have got one child? A I don't know.
 Q Susie? A I know they have got some children, but I don't know them.
 Q One of these children is about a year old?
 A That's Tom's I guess.

Ply or Creek, I. T. September 13, 1900.

IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION OF JENNIE COCHRAN FOR THE ENROLLMENT OF HERSELF AND CHILDREN AS CITIZENS OF THE CHEROKEE NATION.

The said Jennie Cochran, being duly sworn by Commissioner T.B. Needles, testified as follows.

- Question. What is your name? A Jennie Cochran.
Q (Through the interpreter) How old is she? A Forty.
Q What is her post office? A She says Rose.
Q Who does she want to enroll? A Herself and three children.
Q What is the name of your three children? A Annie Cochran.
Q How old is Annie? A Thirteen.
Q The next one? A William.
Q How old is William? A Eight.
Q What is the name of the next one? A Stop Cochran.
Q How old is that one? A Five.
Q Is her name sometimes called Jane? A She says yes.
Her maiden name was Jennie Johnson and she lived in Saline District. She married a man by the name of Redbird.
Q Ask if she always lived in Saline District.
A She says she was born and raised right there.
1896 Roll, page 984, No. 226, Jane Cochran, Saline District.
1896 Roll, page 984, No. 227, Annie Cochran, Saline District.
1896 Roll, page 984, No. 229, Stop Cochran, Saline District.

The name of Jennie Cochran appears upon the Census Roll of 1896, and also the names of her children Annie, William and Stop. The name of the applicant is not found on the Roll of 1880. She presents herself in person, and it is apparent that she is a full blood Cherokee Indian, and the children are the same; consequently they will all be enlisted by this Commission as Cherokee citizens by blood for enrollment.

The undersigned being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony in this case, and all other proceedings and that the foregoing is a correct and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

testified as follows:

- Q. What is your name? A. Emmet Starr.
Q. What is your age? A. Thirty one years.
Q. What is your post office address? A. Claremore, I. T.
Q. Are you a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation?
A. Yes, sir, I am.
Q. For whom do you desire to make application for enrollment?
A. For the following named persons on the 1896 Cherokee roll, their families and descendants:

- Q. Are there any other persons for whom you desire to make appli-

Cher 2701

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Pryor Creek, I.T., September 13, 1900.

In the matter of the application of James T. Vann for the enrollment of himself and children as Cherokees by blood and his wife as a Cherokee by intermarriage; being sworn and examined by Commissioner Beckenridge, he testified as follows:

- Q What is your full name? A James T. Vann.
Q What is your age? A 39.
Q What is your post office? A Pryor Creek.
Q What district do you live in? A Cooweescoowee.
Q Who is it you wish now to have put on the roll? A Myself and wife and children.
Q How many children? A Five.
Q Do you apply for yourself as a Cherokee by blood? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you apply for your wife as a Cherokee by blood? A No, sir, by adoption.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A 39 years.
Q All your life? A Yes, sir.
Q How long have you lived in Cooweescoowee district? A About 25 years.
Q You are registered in 1880 from Cooweescoowee district? A Yes, sir.
Q And in 1896 from Cooweescoowee district? A Yes, sir.
Q Give me the name of your father? A Joseph G. Vann.
Q Cherokee or white man? A Cherokee.
Q Is he dead or alive? A He is dead.
Q How long has he been dead? A Over 12 years.
Q Give me the name of your mother? A Nannie A. Trot was her maiden name.
Q Cherokee or white woman? A Cherokee.
Q Is she dead or alive? A Dead.
Q How long has she been dead? A 25 years.
Q Give me your wife's full name at the present time? A Cornelia F.
Q How old is she? A 24 I believe.
Q When did you marry her? A In 1894, the 8th of July.
Q What was her name when you married her? A Franklin.
Q Was that her maiden name? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you a certificate of your marriage? A Yes, sir. (Exhibits paper.)
(Applicant presents a certificate of marriage in accordance with his testimony, showing that on July 18, 1894, he and his wife were married by the Rev. D. D. Bryant. This has been recorded in Cooweescoowee district and the paper is filed herewith.)
Q Give me now please the name of your wife's father? A Marl on Franklin.
Q White man? A Yes, sir.
Q Dead or alive? A Dead.
Q The name of your wife's mother, her given name? A Jane.
Q A white woman? A Yes, sir.
Q Dead or alive? A She is alive.
Q Now give me the names of your children? A Nannie E., 10 years old.
Q The next child? A Bertha Annie Laurie, 5 years old.
Q The next child? A Oscar T., 5 years old.
Q The next child? A Lula M., 3 years old.
Q The next child? A Ivey Jane, 4 months old.
Q Are these all the children of your present wife? A Yes, sir.
Q I notice that you were married in 1894 and one of these children is ten years old? A Yes, sir, we were married in 1887 before, the first time.
Q Are these children all living? A Yes, sir.
Q Was the child Nannie E. the child of a former marriage? A Yes,

James T. Vann - 2.

sir.

Q Give me please, the name of that child's mother? A Florence A. Harris was her maiden name.

Q Cherokee or white woman? A White woman.

Q Is she dead or alive? A She is dead.

Q How long has she been dead? A She died in 1893, I believe, or 1892.

Q When did you marry her? A I married her in 1887, May 19.

Q Have you a certificate of that marriage? A (Exhibits paper.)

(The applicant presents a certificate from James M. Keys, the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the Cherokee Nation, stating that he married the applicant and his former wife as stated in the testimony on June 19, 1887. This is filed with the application.)

Q Now your wife, you say, died in 1892 or 1893? A Yes, sir.

Q And she was the mother of the oldest child, Nannie E.? A Yes, sir.

The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself, his wife and five children. He is identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1896 as a native Cherokee, and he will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. His wife is identified with him on the roll of 1896 as an adopted Cherokee. Their marriage in 1887 is attested by the marriage certificate filed herewith, and cited in the testimony. She is living with him at this time, and she will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by adoption. His child, Nannie E. Vann, 10 years of age, is the child of a former marriage. The mother of this child died in 1892 or 1893. The applicant was married to this child's mother in 1887, as shown by the certificate of marriage filed herewith and cited in the testimony. This child is identified with her father on the roll of 1896, and she will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. The child Bertha A. L. Vann is of the present marriage. It also is identified on the roll of 1896, and will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. The three children, Oscar T., Lula M., and Ivey Jane, children of the present marriage, are too young to be upon any roll. When the Commission is supplied with a duly authenticated certificates of the birth of these children, they will also be listed for enrollment as Cherokees by blood.

Bruce C. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above case, and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this the 14th of September, 1900.

Cher. 2701

Muskogee, Indian Territory, January 10, 1907.

Cornelia F. Vann,

Pryor Creek, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:

There is inclosed a copy of the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated January 10, 1907, rejecting, among others, the application for your enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. The Commissioner's decision has this day been forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior for review. You will be advised of the Secretary's action as soon as this office is informed of same.

Respectfully,

Incl. Decn. C

Commissioner.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Commissioner.

IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION OF MARY J. SHERMAN FOR THE ENROLLMENT OF HERSELF AS A CHEROKEE CITIZEN.

The said Mary J. Sherman, being duly sworn by Commissioner T. B. Needles, testified as follows:

- Q What is your full name? A Mary J. Sherman.
 Q What is your age? A Thirty four.
 Q What is your post office address? A Pryor Creek, I.T.
 Q What District do you live in? A Cooweescoowee.
 Q Are you a Cherokee citizen by blood? A Yes, sir.
 Q What degree of blood do you claim? A I don't know.
 Q For whom do you apply for enrollment? A For just myself.
 Q What is your husband's name? A J. L. Sherman.
 Q Where does he live? A Pryor Creek.
 Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A All my life.
 Q What was your name in 1880, twenty years ago? A Peaugh.
 Q Mary J. Peaugh? A Yes, sir.

1880 Roll, page 39, No. 1080, Mary Jane Peaugh, Canadian District.

- Q When were you married? A In 1893.

1896 Roll, page 1011, No. 922, Mary Jane Peaugh, Saline District.

- Q When were you married you say? A 1893.
 Q You were not married by Cherokee laws, then? A No, sir.

The name of Mary J. Sherman appears upon the Authenticated Roll of 1880 as Mary J. Peaugh, and upon the Census Roll of 1896 as Mary Jane Peaugh. She avers that she was married to one John L. Sherman in the year 1893, according to the laws of the United States. She being duly identified and having made satisfactory proof as to her residence, she will therefore be duly enlisted for enrollment as a Cherokee citizen by blood.

The undersigned, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a full and correct transcript of his stenographic notes of the same.

Q What is the name of her father? A Joseph Peaugh.
Q The name of her mother? A Josephine Peaugh.
Q Is your wife living at this time? A Yes sir.
Q Living with you? A Yes sir.
Q What is your object in appearing at the Land Office today?
A To designate lands as allotment for my wife.
Q Have you any written authority from your wife to make this designation? A Yes sir. Power of Attorney.

Witness offers power of attorney executed by Mary J. Sherman March 11, 1905, wherein she appoints John L. Sherman her lawful attorney to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes to make selection for an allotment for herself and minor child Albert Markham Sherman.

- Q Is the Mary J. Sherman who executed this power of attorney your wife?
A Yes sir.
Q And you are identical with the John L. Sherman named in this power of attorney? A Yes sir.
Q The power of attorney also authorizes you to select lands for an allotment for Albert Markham Sherman. Do you desire to make application for him? A No sir.

SUBJECT:
 In the matter of the enrollment of Albert
 M. Sherman, Cherokee.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to bring to the attention of the Department the case of Albert M. Sherman, a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, enrolled opposite No.
 6908.

No application having been received to select an allotment of land for Albert M. Sherman, an investigation was begun to determine whether he was living and, if not, the date of his death. On November 8, 1909, Mary J. Sherman, mother of Albert M. Sherman, testified that her said son died on June 26, 1901, and presented for inspection her family bible, in which the date of the birth and death of this child were entered.

On January 29, 1910, Mary J. Sherman was notified by registered mail of the information secured by this office relative to the date of the death of Albert M. Sherman and of the provisions of Section 31 of the Act of Congress of July 1, 1908 (35 Stat., 1, 716), that no person, whose name was on the roll of Cherokee citizens and who died prior to September 1, 1902, was entitled to an allotment of land or other tribal property, and that she might appear within a stipulated time to show cause why recommendation should not be made to the Department that a notation should be placed on the roll, showing that the said Albert M. Sherman was not entitled to participate in the distribution of the tribal property of the Cherokee Nation. This notice was received, as evidenced by the return of the registry receipt properly signed, but no appearance has been made.

I am of the opinion that the evidence secured by this office clearly shows that Albert M. Sherman died prior to September 1, 1902, and I have the honor to recommend that the following notation be placed on all copies of the approved roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation, opposite No. 6908:

"Died prior to September 1, 1902; not entitled to land or money."

Copies of the record, pertaining to the death of this citizen, are enclosed herewith.

Respectfully,

Acting Commissioner.

Cherokee 2702.

Muskogee, Oklahoma, January 29, 1910.

Mrs. Mary J. Sherman,
Vinita, Oklahoma.

Sir:

Evidence has been secured by this office showing that your son, Albert M. Sherman, whose name appears on the roll of Cherokee citizens by blood opposite No. 6908, died on June 25, 1901.

The act of Congress of July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 716), contains the following provision:

"That no allotment of land or other tribal property shall be made to any person, or to the heirs of any person, whose name is on said roll and who died prior to the first day of September, nineteen hundred and two. The right of such person to any interest in the lands or other tribal property shall be deemed to have become extinguished and to have passed to the tribe in general upon his death before said date, and any person or persons who may conceal the death of anyone on said roll as aforesaid for the purpose of profiting by said concealment, and who shall knowingly receive any portion of any land or other tribal property or of the proceeds so arising from any allotment prohibited by this section, shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and shall be proceeded against as may be provided in other cases of felony, and the penalty for this offense shall be confinement at hard labor for a period of not less than one year nor more than five years, and in addition thereto a forfeiture to the Cherokee Nation of the lands, other tribal property, and proceeds so obtained."

Mary J. Sherman - 2.

You are, therefore, notified that on or before February 28, 1910, you may appear at this office, if you so desire, to show cause why recommendation should not be made to the Department of the Interior that the following notation be placed opposite the name of Albert M. Sherman on the approved roll of Cherokee citizens:

"Died prior to September 1, 1902; not entitled to land or money."

Respectfully,

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.
Muskogee, Oklahoma, January 5, 1920.

IN THE MATTER of the date of the death of Albert M. Sherman, Cherokee Field Card, No. 2702, Roll No. 6908:

Mary J. Sherman, after having been first duly sworn by Albert
G. McMillan, deputy clerk of the United States Court for the Eastern District of Oklahoma, testified as follows at her home in Vinita, Oklahoma.

EXAMINATION ON BEHALF OF THE COMMISSIONER:
Conducted by Albert G. McMillan.

- Q What is your name? A Mary J. Sherman.
Q What is your age? A 42 Years old.
Q What is your post office address? A Vinita, Oklahoma.
Q Are you a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q What is the name of your husband? A John L. Sherman.
Q Is your husband a citizen? A Yes sir.
Q How many children have you had by Mr. Sherman? A Two.
Q What is the name of the oldest? A Thelma Edna.
Q And what is the name of the next one? A Albert M. Sherman.
Q Are both of these children dead? A Yes sir.
Q Do you remember the date of the death of Albert M? A No sir only as it is on the record.

(Witness here produces a memorandum book which shows that Albert M. Sherman died June 25, 1901, age at the time of his death, four months.)

- Q Where were you living when Albert was born? A Pryor Creek, Indian Territory.
Q Do you remember the date of his birth? A Born March 22, 1901.

(Witness here produces bible in which it is set forth that Albert Marcus Sherman was born March 22, 1901, died June 25, 1901)

- Q Who wrote this in this bible? A I did.
Q And you are sure this date is correct? A Yes sir.
Q Did you write it soon after the child died? A Quite awhile after.
Q You are sure of the year are you? A Yes sir quite sure but about the date of the month I am not sure.
Q He was just two or three months old when he died? A Between three or four months old.
Q You know he died in June 1901? A Yes sir.
Q Where was he buried? A Pryor Creek, Indian Territory.
Q Is there a tomb stone there? A No sir, none there. We intended to move him from there but never did.
Q Is there anything that you can remember the date of his death besides this record? A No sir I could not. No other way. I was sick in bed at the time of his death and a long time before he was born.

- Q Do you know who you bought the coffin from in Pryor Creek? A I think from Harrison's not sure though.
- Q How long have you been living in Vinita, Oklahoma? A 6 or 7 years. I guess longer.
- Q And how long did you live at Pryor Creek after he died? A Year or so I guess. I think we lived there in 1903.
- Q What was your father's name? A Joseph Peauch.
- Q And what was the name of your mother? A Josephine.
- Q At the time you were enrolled by the Dawes Commission did you enroll yourself? A Yes sir.
- Q Where did you go before the Dawes Commission? A Pryor Creek.
- Q And how long was that before Albert was born? A I don't remember--in 1900 I think.
- Q And Albert died in June of the next year after you were enrolled? A Yes sir.

Witness excused.

I, Frank L. Doble, Stenographer to the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, state on oath that the above and foregoing is a true and correct transcript of my stenographic notes taken in the above cause on the date before mentioned.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to transmit herewith a report of March 1, 1910, from the Acting Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, relative to the death of Albert M. Sherman, whose name appears opposite No. 3908 on the final approved rolls of citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

It is shown by the enclosed papers that the above named person died prior to September 1, 1902. Section 31 of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat. L. 716) provides that no allotment of land or other tribal property shall be made to any person, or to the heirs of any person, whose name is on the Cherokee roll, and who died prior to September 1, 1902. It is recommended, therefore, that opposite the name of Albert M. Sherman upon the final approved roll of citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, there be placed the notation -

"Died prior to September 1, 1902; not entitled to land or money."

and that this Office and the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes be authorized to make a similar notation on

In the matter of the application of Mary D. Hayes for enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

Joseph F. Hayes, being duly sworn, and examined by the Commission, testified as follows:

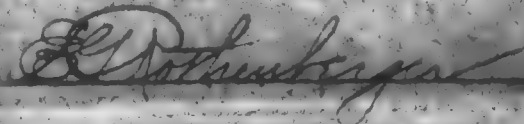

- Q State your name? A Joseph F. Hayes.
Q How old are you? A Twenty-six.
Q What is your postoffice? A Pryorocreek.
Q Who is Mary D. Hayes? A She is an aunt of mine.
Q How old is she? A She is about sixty-two or three.
Q Is she about sixty-five? A Somewhere along there; I don't know exactly how old she is.
Q Are you living with her? A No sir.
Q Is Mary D. Hayes sick at the present time? A I don't think she is sick, she is feeble; she has rheumatism and heart trouble.
Q And not able to get around much? A No sir, not very much.
Q She has authorized you to select her allotment for her? A Yes sir.

Witness presents a duly executed power of attorney dated May 19, 1903, and signed by Mary D. Hayes, authorizing the said Joseph F. Hayes to select allotment of lands in the Cherokee Nation and designate a homestead therein for the said Mary D. Hayes.

It appears from the evidence that the said Mary D. Hayes is an aged and infirm person, and Joseph F. Hayes, therefore, will be permitted to select an allotment and designate a homestead for the said Mary D. Hayes.

IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION BY SAMUEL H. MAYES FOR THE ENROLLMENT OF TWO ORPHAN CHILDREN NAMED ETTA McNAIR and ADELINE
MAYES AS CHEROKEE CITIZENS.

The said Samuel H. Mayes, being duly sworn by Commissioner T. B. Needles, testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A Samuel H. Mayes.
Q What is your age? A Fifty five.
Q What is your post office? A Pryor Creek, I.T.
Q Are you a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q Who is it you apply for now? A Etta McNair and Adeline
Mayes, two orphan children.
Q Are these children living? A Yes, sir.
Q What is the age of Etta McNair? A Eighteen, I think.
Q And Adeline Mayes, how old is she?
A Nine, I think.
Q Who is the mother of Etta McNair? A Rachel Sanders.
Q Was she a Cherokee by blood? A Yes, sir.
Q Is she on the 1880 Roll, as Rachel McNair? A Yes, sir.
Q Are both these children alive and living with you at this time? A Yes, sir.
Q Who is the mother of Adeline? A Lizzy Mayes.

On 1880 Roll, page 137, No. 1811, Rachel McNair, Coowescoowee
District.

1880 Roll, page 782, No. 1394, Lizzy Mays, Tahlequah District.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Fryer Creek, I.T., September 13, 1900.

In the matter of the application of Sarah Dolen for the enrollment of herself and three children as Cherokees by blood; being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckenridge, he testified as follows:

- Q What is your full name? A Sarah Dolen.
Q How old are you? A I don't know exactly, about 29 I guess.
Q What is your post office? A Locust Grove.
Q In what district do you live? A Saline district.
Q Who is it you want to have put on the roll? A Myself and my children.
Q How many children? A Three.
Q Do you apply for yourself as a Cherokee by blood? A Yes, sir.
Q Are you a native of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q Lived here all your life? A Yes, sir.
Q Is Dolen your maiden name? A No, sir, it is my husband's name.
Q When were you married? A I have been married 13 years.
Q What was your name when you were married, your maiden name?
A Sarah Rogers.
Q In what district were you enrolled in 1880? A Saline.
Q And in 1896 from Saline? A I guess so, I had been living over there a long time.
Q Give me the name of your father? A My father's name was Jeff Bean, but I don't know much about him.
Q What proportion of Cherokee blood do you claim? A I don't know hardly, 1/4 I guess.
Q What is the name of the father of these children? A William Dolen.
Q Cherokee or white man? A He is a white man.
Q Is he dead or alive? A He is dead.
Q How long has he been dead? A He has been dead about a year now.
Q Give me the names, please, of these children. A Josephine is the oldest, ten years old.
Q How the next child? A Clarry, 7 years old.
Q How the next child? A May, 3 years old.
Q Have you a certificate of your marriage to your husband?
A Yes, sir.
Q Your husband's name was William H.? A Yes, sir.
(The applicant presents a duly authenticated Cherokee marriage license and certificate showing that she was married to her husband as stated by her on the 8th of July, 1888, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. N. J. Crawford. This evidence is filed herewith.)
Q Give me your mother's name? A Eliza Rogers.
Q Was she a Cherokee? A Yes, sir.
Q She alive or dead? A She is dead.
Q How long has she been dead? A Three years I think.
Q What was your mother's name in 1880 when you were 9 years old, was she still a Rogers? A Yes, sir.
Mr. J. L. Baugh, representative of Cherokee Nation: Did you have a sister named Maggie? A Yes, sir.
Q Did you have a brother named George? A Yes, sir.
(Sarah Dolen on 1880 roll, page 795, No. 1733, Sarah Rogers, Tahlequah district; Eliza Rogers on 1880 roll, page 795, No. 1732, Eliza Rogers, Tahlequah district. Sarah Dolen on 1896 roll, page 987, No. 297, Sarah Dolin, Saline district. Josephine Dolen on 1896 roll, page 987, No. 298, Saline district. Clarry Dolen on 1896 roll, page 987, No. 299, Carrie May Dolin, Saline district. William H. Dolen on 1896 roll, page 1033, No. 6, William Dolin, Saline district.)
Q Is that child named Clarry May? A Yes, sir.

Sarah Helen - 2.

Q What brothers or sisters did you have along in 1880? A One sister and one brother, I had a brother named Lewis too.

The applicant applies for the enrollment of herself and three children. She is identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1896 as a native Cherokee. She has lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life. Her change of name is established by the marriage license and certificate filed herewith. Her husband has been dead about one year. She will now be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. Her two children, Josephine and Glarry May, are identified with her and her husband on the roll of 1896. They will now be listed for enrollment as Cherokees by blood. The youngest child, May, is not of sufficient age to be upon any roll. When the commission is supplied with a duly authenticated certificate of the birth of this child, she will also be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

Bruce G. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above case, and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Q And John Richardson after? A Charles Richardson.
Q Is Joseph Card a white man or a Cherokee? A White man.
Q Is he dead or alive? A He is living.
Q When were you married to him? A In 1890.
Q How long did you live with him? A Just about a year.
Q When did you marry Charles Richardson? A In 1894.
Q Is he a white man or a Cherokee? A He is a white man.
Q Is he dead or alive? A He is living.
Q You married him you say in 1894? A Yes, sir.
Q How long did you live with him? A I am still living with him.
Q Were you married to him according to Cherokee law? A No, sir.
Q Give me the name of your own father. A Joseph Vann.
Q Cherokee or a white man? A Cherokee.
Q Dead or alive? A Dead.
Q How long has he been dead? A 11 years.
Q The name of your mother? A Nannie Vann.
Q Cherokee or white woman? A Cherokee.
Q Is she dead or alive? A She is dead.
Q How long has she been dead? A 25 years.
Q Give me the names, please, of these children? A Carrie Elizabeth Card, the oldest one.
Q How old is that child? A 9 years old.
Q The next child? A Nannie Vann Richardson, 5 years old.
Q The next child? A Alma Elizabeth, 2 years old.
Q Have you any certificates of marriage showing your two marriages? A Just the last marriage is the only one I have.
(The applicant presents a duly authenticated marriage license and certificate, which are filed herewith, showing that she was married on December 30, 1894, to her husband as she states, her name being given in the marriage license as Emma Vann.)
Q After leaving your first husband you resumed your maiden name?
A Yes, sir, I had a divorce.

Emma Richardson - 2.

Q Have you a copy of the decree of divorce? A No, sir, I haven't the license or the divorce either, the house got burned.

Q Is there someone here who knew you? A Mr. Vann, Mr. Web Vann.

Daniel W. Vann, being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckenridge, testified as follows:

Q Give your name? A Daniel W. Vann.

Q Give your age? A 55.

Q Your post office? A Fryer Creek.

Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A About all my life.

Q Do you know this lady here, Mrs. Richardson? A I do.

Q What was the name of her husband before she was married to her present husband? A Joe Card.

Q Was she divorced from him? A That is what I understood.

Q What was her maiden name? A Vann; she is a niece of mine.

Q She has one child, has she, by her first marriage? A Yes, sir.

Q And two children by her second marriage? A Yes, sir.

Q These children are all three living now are they? A Yes, sir.

Emma Richardson, recalled, testified:

Mr. J.L. Baugh, representative of Cherokee Nation: When were you married to Joe Card? A In 1890.

Q How long did you live with him? A Hardly a year.

Q What was the cause of your separation? A We just didn't get along and he left.

Q Did he leave you? A Yes, sir.

Q He was a white man, wasn't he? A Yes, sir, he was a white man.

Q You stayed at home, at the place where you and he lived, when he abandoned you? A Yes, sir.

Q What Court did you sue for your divorce in, Cherokee Court?

A Yes, sir.

Commissioner Breckenridge: The applicant applies for the enrollment of herself and three children. She is identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1896 as a native Cherokee. She has lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life. The change of name arising from marriage is accounted for by the marriage license and certificate filed herewith and by satisfactory personal testimony. She will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. Her child by her first marriage, Carrie E. Card, is identified with its mother on the roll of 1896. It was there enrolled under the name of her husband at that time, who is also her husband at this time, but no application is made for him as he has never been married to her under Cherokee law. This child is living with its mother at this time, and will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. The child, Nannie V. Richardson, the child of the present marriage, is identified with its mother on the roll of 1896. It is living with its mother now, and it will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. The youngest child, Alma E. Richardson, is too young to be upon any roll. When the Commission is supplied with a duly authenticated certificate of the birth of this child, it will also be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

Bruce C. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above case, and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 18th of September, 1900.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al, vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Commissioner

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,
this January 10, 1907.

Chouteau, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

There is inclosed a copy of the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated January 10, 1907, rejecting, among others, the application for your enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. The Commissioner's decision has this day been forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior for review. You will be advised of the Secretary's action as soon as this office is informed of same.

Respectfully,

Incl. Decn. C

Commissioner.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Commissioner.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,

A Yes, sir.

Q And living with him at this time? A Yes, sir.

Q As his wife? A Yes, sir.

Q Were they married back some fourteen years ago or such a time?

A About 14 or 15 years ago I think.

The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself, his wife and three children. He is shown by the official copy of the act of the Cherokee Council to have been admitted to citizenship as a Cherokee by blood on December 1, 1884. He has lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since that time. He is identified on the roll of 1896, and he will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. His wife is identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1896 as a native Cherokee. Her change of name in enrollment is occasioned by her marriage, which is established by the testimony of the applicant and additional personal testimony, and shown to have taken place in 1886. She has continued to live with her husband as his wife and has lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life, and she will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. Their three children, Catherine, Knox, and Eva, are identified on the roll of 1896 with their parents. They are living with their father and mother, and they will be listed now for enrollment as Cherokees by blood.

Bruce O. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above case, and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 11th day of September, 1900.

MY COMMISSION EXPIRES MAY 12, 1906.

J. J. Parks
Notary Public.

Cherokee 2711.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, September 18, 1900.

Henry H. Rogers,

Adair, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:

The Commission is informed that Claude Rogers, who was an applicant before this Commission on September 13, 1900, for enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, has died since the date of such application.

There is enclosed you herewith a blank form of affidavit, and if this information is correct, you are requested to have the affidavit properly executed and return to the Commission as promptly as possible, in order that the death of Claude Rogers may be shown upon the Commission's records.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

J. M. Bryan, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

BY MR. DAVENPORT:

Q What is your name? A J. M. Bryan.

Q What is your post office? A Locust Grove.

Q How old are you? A 51.

Q Did you know Takey Bighead in her life time? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know whether or not she is living now? A No sir, she is dead.

Q Have you any knowledge or any information in the way of books or anything that shows you about the date of her death? A Yes sir, my books show that Tom Pegg bought burial clothes for his mother sometime between the 28th and 30th of May, 1901.

Q What relation was Tom Pegg to Takey Bighead? A She was his mother.

Q I wish you would examine your books and get the page,--- I will ask you another question first, what business are you engaged in and were you engaged in any business in 1901? A General merchandise in Locust Grove.

Q Examine your books and see if you find any entry on your books showing the date or about the date of the death of Takey Bighead?

A Yes sir, there it is on page 86 of the day book, there it shows $2.15, and then in posting this, he posted burial clothes for his mother.

Q What do you mean by posting it? A Carrying it from the day book to the ledger.

Q What day is it dated? A Now this is dated May 28 and the other May 31.

Q What year? A 1901.

Q When the item was brought from the day book to the ledger, what date was it? A 1901, it is blotted there though.

Q Does the ledger give the day of the month? A No sir.

Q From what book do you get the day of the month of the item bought by Tom Pegg? A My day book.

Q You find that on what page? A Page 86, between May 28 and 31, 1901.

Q How far did they live from your store? A About 4 or 5 miles,
I guess, maybe 6.

ON BEHALF OF THE COMMISSIONER:

Q Was Takey Bighead a Cherokee by blood? A Yes sir.

Q About how old a woman was she? A I don't have any idea, she was old, she must have been in 70 somewhere.

- Q Was she the mother of Thomas Pegg? A That is what I always understood.
- Q I will ask you to examine your book that you refer to as your day book and state when you began using it and when was the date of the last entry in it? A It was December 19, 1900, that is when I began, and I believe the last entry is about March 3, 1903.
- Q The book is numbered from 1 to 500 inclusive? A Yes sir, I believe that is right. The last item I have on the book there charged is 490 something.
- Q Was this book used in your store to record the daily accounts from December 19, 1900, to March 3, 1903? A Yes sir, that was my day book during that time.
- Q Who kept your day book for you? A Mr. Barton, he made this entry here, and maybe some other clerk if I had one there.
- Q Were the entries which are made throughout the book made on the dates the articles charged were purchased? A Yes sir, about that time.
- Q I find on page 86, which was referred to by you, the entry, "Tom Pegg, burial clothes $2.15?" A Yes sir.
- Q At the top of the page is given the date, May 28, 1901, and at the top of the next page is given the date May 31, 1901, can you state on what day the burial clothes were purchased by Tom Pegg? A It was sometime between the 28th and 31st.
- Q I will ask you to examine your record on page 85 and see what the date of that page is? A That is May 27, 1901.
- Q I will ask you to examine page 88 and state what date that shows? A June 1, 1901.
- Q I find the entry in regard to the burial clothes purchased by Tom Pegg has been checked, and the figures 123 is written above the check mark? A No, you are mistaken about that, that is for George Brewer. This is simply checked out, these little accounts are not indexed in the ledger, there is no index for them.
- Q What does this 74 mean? A That means that this Jim Barger account here is carried to 74 on some other page. Tom Pegg had no regular account with me at that time, and when he got those burial clothes---
- Q To what page in your ledger was the charged entered on your day book page 86 against Tom Pegg transferred? A It is carried from the day book from page 86 to page 286 in the ledger.
- Q Your ledger shows page 286 an entry made which appears to be 1901, then immediately under it is 1902, "Tom Pegg, Db. burial clothes mother, 86, $2.15," does this 86 indicate the page on your daily account book? A Yes sir.
- Q Does the $2.15 represent the amount then charged against him on your day book? A Yes sir.
- Q The year seems to appear there as 1902, how do you account for that? A I don't understand it that way, this is 1901, this 1902 must be the small ledger. 1903, Feb. 25 is $5.00. That makes the three years Tom owed me $8.15, then it was straightened up and carried to page 215 and opened for an account, there are three years dated there. This is just a memorandum ledger, it isn't an indexed ledger, just got these little things. That cover three years, that $8.15.
- Q The account appearing just above this Tom Pegg account appears to be 1902, is that correct? A Yes sir, that is 1902.
- Q The account following Tom Pegg appears 1902? A Yes sir, that is the ledger, this ledger was made out I reckon in 1902. At the top of this page is 1901.

- Q Are you prepared to state from an examination of your account book and ledger that the burial clothes were purchased by Tom Pegg during the year 1901? A Yes sir.
- Q For whom were the burial clothes purchased? A The book shows for his mother, I don't remember myself.
- Q You knew his mother during her life time? A Yes sir.
- Q It is your understanding she is dead? A Yes sir, that is what I understand.

WITNESSES EXCUSED.

JESSE GRASS, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

BY MR. DAVENPORT:

- Q What is your name? A Jesse Grass.
- Q What is your post office? A Salina.
- Q What is your business, do you farm, or a minister of the Gospel? A Yes sir, Minister of the Gospel.
- Q Did you know Takey Bighead during her life? A Yes sir.
- Q Is she dead or living? A She is dead.
- Q Did you attend her funeral? A Yes sir.
- Q When did she die Mr. Grass? A She died May 29, 1901.

ON BEHALF OF THE COMMISSIONER:

- Q You remember that of your own knowledge? A Yes sir.
- Q Have you any record or anything by which you could refresh your memory? A Yes sir.
- Q What is it, what record have you? A I got a record.
- Q Have you got it with you? A No sir, It is at home.
- Q What kind of a record is it, what have you got in your book, what kind of a record is it? A I am Secretary and Treasurer of the Church.
- Q Did you keep a record of the death of the Church? A Yes sir.
- Q Did Takey Bighead belong to your Church? A Yes sir.
- Q What does your record with reference to her death, when does it show she died? Does the book show the date of her death? A Yes sir.
- Q What is it? A May 29.
- Q What year? A 1901.
- Q You haven't got your book with you? A No sir.
- Q Are you positive as to the date of her death? A Yes sir.
- Q Are you related to her? A I don't know, I can't tell you that.
- Q Was she a full blood? A Yes sir.
- Q Has she got a son named Tom Pegg? A Yes sir.

WITNESSES EXCUSED.

JACK ROSS, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

BY MR. DAVENPORT;

- Q What is your name? A Jack Ross.
- Q How old are you? A 57.
- Q What is your post office? A Locust Grove.
- Q Did you know Takey Bighead during her life time? A Yes sir.
- Q Is Takey Bighead dead or living? A She is dead. She died the 29th of May, 1901.
- Q Do you know Tom Pegg? A Yes sir.
- Q What kin was he to Takey Bighead? A She was his mother.

ON BEHALF OF THE COMMISSIONER:

- Q Do you fix the date of her by your own personal knowledge?
A I was on my way to Sulphur Springs, passed her place where she was living, the road comes into the road where I was traveling, and met Jesse Grass and he told me that she died that morning, and I know that she was very low at the time.
Q Are you sure as to the date of her death? A Yes sir, I believe she died on that date. I haven't seen her since.
Q How far did you live from her? A About two miles.
Q Have you ever seen her since that date? A No sir.
Q Was she a full blood Cherokee? A Yes sir.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the death of Takey Bighead, a regularly enrolled citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

FINDING OF FACT AND CONCLUSION.

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That at Pryer Creek, Indian Territory, on September 13, 1900, Thomas Pegg appeared before the Commission to the five Civilized Tribes and made application for the enrollment of his mother, Takey Bighead, as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, and that her name is included in a partial roll of citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation approved by the Secretary of the Interior June 11, 1904, opposite No. 30123.

The records further show that on the 16th of December 1905, Thomas Pegg made affidavit that his mother, the said Takey Bighead, died on the 28th day of October 1903; that thereafter on April 12, 1906, the attorney for the Cherokee Nation filed with this office a motion to reopen said case for the purpose of introducing testimony to show that the said Takey Bighead died prior to September 1, 1902. Further proceedings relative to the death of the said Takey Bighead were had at Muskogee, Indian Territory May 3, 1906.

At Muskogee, Indian Territory, on May 3, 1906, J. W. Bryan appeared before the Commissioner to the five Civilized Tribes and testified as follows: My name is J. W. Bryan. I am fifty-one years of age, and my postoffice is Locust Grove, Indian Territory. I was acquainted with Takey Bighead, mother of Tom Pegg, during her lifetime. I am engaged in a general merchandise business in Locust Grove, and sometime between the 28th and 30th of May 1901, I sold Tom Pegg burial clothes for his mother. You will find the record of the sale on my book, page 86 between May 28, and 31, 1901.

Jesse Grass, same day and place, testified as follows: My name is Jesse Grass, and my postoffice is Salina, Indian Territory. I am a Minister of the Gospel. I was acquainted with Takey Bighed during her lifetime. She died May 29, 1901. Takey Bighed was a member of my Church. I keep a record of the death of members of the Church and my book shows that Takey Bighed died May 29, 1901.

Jack Ross, same day and place, testified as follows: My name is Jack Ross. I am fifty-seven years of age and my postoffice is Locust Grove, Indian Territory. I was acquainted with Takey Bighed, mother of Tom Pegg, during her lifetime. She died the 29th day of May 1901. I fix the date of her death in this way "I was on my way to Sulphur Springs, passed her place where she was living, the road comes into the road where I was traveling, and met Jesse Grass and he told me that she died that morning, and I knew that she was very low at the time".

In view of the foregoing I am of the opinion that Takey Bighed died prior to the first day of September 1902, and so hold.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior:

Sir:

There is transmitted herewith the record of proceedings had in the matter of the application of Thomas Pegg for the enrollment of his mother, Takey Bighead, as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, together with the opinion of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes of October 6, 1906, holding that said Takey Bighead died prior to September 1, 1902.

On September 13, 1900, Thomas Pegg appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and made application for the enrollment of his said mother as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, and her name is included in a partial roll of such citizens approved by the Secretary of the Interior June 11, 1904, opposite number 30123. On December 26, 1905, there was filed with the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes an affidavit executed by Thomas Pegg, as to the death of his mother, on October 25, 1903; and on May 3, 1906, a motion having been filed by the Attorney for the Cherokee Nation to be permitted to introduce testimony as to the date of the death of Takey Bighad, testimony in the case was taken at Muskogee, Indian Territory, which seems to conclusively show that said Takey Bighad died prior to September 1, 1902. Due notice of the taking of the testimony in the case was given to Thomas Pegg.

The records of this office further show that on December 18, 1905, at the request of Thomas Pegg, certain land was designated by the Commissioner as a partial allotment in the Cherokee Nation for Takey Bighad, and that certificates describing the land designated were mailed to Thomas Pegg January 9, 1906. The records show that no deeds describing said land have been prepared.

In view of the provisions of Sections 28 and 31 of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 716) it is respectfully recommended that the name of Takey Bighad be stricken from the approved partial rolls of citizens of the Cherokee Nation retained by the Department, and in the office of the Commissioner of

Indian Affairs; that this office be authorized to strike her name from the copies of said roll in its possession, and that the application for the enrollment of Takey Bighead as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, be dismissed.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is enclosed a report from the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated October 6, 1906, transmitting the record relative to the death of Takey Bighead an enrolled citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

On September 13, 1900, Thomas Pegg applied to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes for the enrollment of Takey Bighead as a citizen by blood.

Takey Bighead was enrolled as a citizen by blood on a partial list of citizens of the Cherokee Nation approved by the Department on June 11, 1904 at No. 30123.

On October 6, 1906, the Commissioner recommended that the name of Takey Bighead be stricken from the roll and that the application for her enrollment as a citizen by blood of that nation be dismissed.

A preponderance of the evidence shows that Takey Bighead died prior to September 1, 1902.

In view of Section 25 of the Act of July 1, 1902 (32 Stat.L., 716), the Office concurs in the recommendation of the Commissioner that this person's name be stricken from the rolls of the Cherokee Nation and that the application for her enrollment as a citizen by blood of that nation be dismissed.

In the matter of the application of Sime Mayes for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood; being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckenridge, he testified as follows:

- Q What is your full name? A Sime Mayes.
Q How old are you? A I will soon be 25.
Q What is your post office? A Pryor Creek.
Q What district do you live in? A Cooweescoowee.
Q Who is it you want to have put on the roll, yourself?
A Yes, sir.
Q Anybody else? A No, sir.
Q You apply as a Cherokee by blood? A Yes, sir.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A Always.
Q What district are you from in 1880? A Cooweescoowee.
Q The same in 1896? A Yes, sir.
Q Give me the name of your father? A Wiley B. Mayes,
He a Cherokee? A Yes, sir.
Q Dead or alive? A Alive.
Q The name of your mother? A Emma.
Q Cherokee? A No, sir.
Q She dead or alive? A She is dead.
Q How long has she been dead? A I don't know, I was small.
(On 1880 roll, page 137, No. 1830, Susie Mayes, Cooweescoowee dist.; on 1896 roll, page 211, No. 3174, Sinnie Mayes, Cooweescoowee dist.)
Q Did you have any sisters in 1880? A No, sir.
Q You have no sister named Susie? A Lola is the only one I have.
Q She is on the roll of 1880 by her proper name; did you have a brother? A Yes, sir.
Q What is his name? A Tom; he went on with Uncle George.

The applicant is identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1896 as a native Cherokee. He has lived in the Cherokee Nation all his life. It is evident from careful inquiry into the family names that his name was mistaken for Susie in the enrollment. He will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee citizen by blood.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Commissioner.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,

- Q They been married some seven years or such a time? A Yes, sir, I expect it has been that long.
- Q Still live together as husband and wife? A Yes, sir.
- Q And have so lived ever since their marriage? A Yes, sir.

James Coats, recalled, testified as follows:

- Q Whatrix Did you have a brother David? A Yes, sir.
- Q Richard? A I don't know about Richard.
- (Susie Coats on 1880 roll, page 182, No. 2829, Susie Sunday, Coowees-coowee district. James Coats on 1896 roll, page 125, No. 783, Cooweescoowee district. Susie Coats on 1896 roll, page 125, No. 784, Cooweescoowee district. James McKenzie Coats on 1896 roll, page 125, No. 786, James M. Coats, Cooweescoowee district.)

The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself, his wife and two children. He is identified on the roll of 1896 as a native Cherokee. He is not on the authenticated roll of 1880, but it is considered due to the fact that in the enrollment of his family two of his brothers, David and Henry, are each enrolled twice, giving the family one member more than it possessed, and doubtless the applicant should have been included in the enrollment given to one of his brothers. He was born in the Cherokee Nation and has lived there all his life, and he will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. His wife is identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1896 as a native Cherokee. Her change of name is represented by her marriage, which is established by satisfactory personal testimony. She is enrolled ~~at~~ in 1896 with her husband, and will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. Their two children, Jennie B. and James M. Coats, are identified on the roll of 1896 with their parents. They are living at this time and they will be duly listed for enrollment as Cherokees by blood.

Bruce C. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above case, and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this the 14th of September, 1900.

Nicholas S. Sanders, recalled:

- Q Your wife has lived with you ever since you were married, has she? A Yes, sir.
Q Both these children are living with you now are they? A Yes, sir.

The applicant is identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1896 as a native Cherokee. He has lived in the Cherokee Nation all his life, and he will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. His wife is identified on the roll of 1896 as his wife. She is a white woman. It is established by the statement of the clergyman who married them that they were married in 1889. She has lived with her husband all the time and she will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by adoption. Their child, Irene, is identified with her parents on the roll of 1896. She is living with them at this time and she will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. The child, Elmer Fields, is the child of the applicant's wife by a former husband, who died some 13 years ago. That husband is identified on the roll of 1880 as a native Cherokee, and by personal testimony it is established that the applicant's wife was married to this child's father prior to her present marriage. This child is living with its mother at the present time, and will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

Bruce G. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above case, and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, January 10, 1907.

Fannie Sanders,

Pryor Creek, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:

There is inclosed a copy of the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated January 10, 1907, rejecting, among others, the application for your enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. The Commissioner's decision has this day been forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior for review. You will be advised of the Secretary's action as soon as this office is informed of same.

Respectfully,

Incl. Decn. C

Commissioner.

Department of the Interior, Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Albert G. Gass as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

D E C I S I O N

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That at Pryor Creek, Indian Territory, September 13, 1900, application was received by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes for the enrollment of Albert G. Gass as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Muskogee, Indian Territory, October 13, 1902, January 7 and 11, and February 19, 1907.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That the applicant herein, Albert G. Gass, a white man, was married in accordance with Cherokee law, in August, 1868, to one Lucy A. Gass, nee Ward, who was at the time of said marriage, a recognized citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, who is identified upon the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880, Going Snake District, No. 768, as a native Cherokee, and whose name is included on the approved partial roll of citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation opposite No. 6945. It is further shown that from the time of said marriage the said Albert G. Gass and Lucy A. Gass resided together as husband and wife and continuously lived in the Cherokee Nation up to and including September 1, 1902. Said applicant is identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880, and the Cherokee census roll of 1896 as an intermarried citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. the United States, nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, the said applicant, Albert G. Gass, is entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and his application for enrollment as such is accordingly granted.

Q What has become of your other two wives? A They are dead.
Q Did they die before you married your present wife? A Yes sir.

The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself and wife. He is identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1896, as a Native Cherokee. He has lived in the Cherokee Nation all his life, and he will be duly listed for enrollment by this Commission as a Cherokee citizen by blood.

His wife is a white woman. He states that he married her some fourteen years ago. She is identified with him on the roll of 1896, as a Cherokee by adoption. It is established by personal testimony, in addition to his own, that she has lived with him as his wife for the last ten years, and she will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by adoption.

The undersigned, being sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, January 16, 1907.

Martha L. Rider,

Fryer Creek, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:

There is inclosed a copy of the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated January 10, 1907, rejecting, among others, the application for your enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. The Commissioner's decision has this day been forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior for review. You will be advised of the Secretary's action as soon as this office is informed of same.

Respectfully,

Incl. Decn. C

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1870. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Commissioner.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,
this January 10, 1907.

ACTING

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Pryor Creek, I.T., Sept. 13, 1900.

In the matter of the application of William A. Henry for the enrollment of himself, wife and children as Cherokee citizens; being sworn and examined by Commissioner Needles he testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A William A. Henry.
Q What is your age? A Fifty last January.
Q What is your post-office? A Pryor Creek.
Q What district do you live in? A Cooweescoowee.
Q Are you a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation by blood?
A By blood, yes sir.
Q What degree of blood do you claim? A I claim about one-eighth.
Q How long have you resided in the Cherokee Nation? A Since I moved my family back, I moved them back here in 1893.
Q Your name appear upon the authenticated roll of 1880?
A No sir.
Q By what right do you claim citizenship? A Readmitted.
Q Have you a certificate of re-admission? A Yes sir. (Produces certificate)
Com'r Needles: The said applicant presents a certificate of admission issued from the executive department of the Cherokee Nation dated Tahb quah, June 10, 1890/ certifying among others that William A. Henry was re-admitted to Cherokee citizenship on the 9th day of November 1887; are you the identical William A. Henry mentioned in this certificate? A Yessir.
Com'r Needles: Certificate issued under the Great Seal of the Cherokee Nation, signed by Connell Rogers, Executive Secretary.
Q When did you return to the Cherokee Nation, in what year? A In 1889.
Q You have been living here ever since? A No sir.
Q Where have you been living since 1889? A I have been to re-off and on since that time, - I was here in 1889 and 1890.
Examined by Cherokee Representative W.W. Hastings:
Q You came here in 1889? A Yessir.
Q How long did you live here at that time? A I didn't live here very long.
Q About how long? A Couple of months I guess.
Q Where did you go to then? A Went to California.
Q How long before you came back? A I came back in 1890.
Q How long did you remain here in 1890? A I ~~think~~ should judge about a couple of months, - two or three months.
Q Did you go back to California again in 1890? A Yes sir.
Q When did you come back here next time? A In 1891.
Q How long did you remain in 1891? A I come back here in February and I left here in June.

The Department's instructions of June 1, 1905 (I.T.D. 6240-1205), and October 4, 1905 (I.T.D. 12220-1205), as to the proceedings to be taken with reference to these persons have been complied with. Notice, under date of March 1, 1906, of the information received as to the date of the death of the above named persons, was given by publication for four consecutive issues in "The Cherokee Advocate" and "Pryor Creek Clipper", both weekly newspapers of general circulation, the former published in the Cherokee Nation at Tahlequah, Indian Territory, and the latter published at Pryor Creek, Indian Territory, in the Recording District in which the above named persons are shown to have resided at the time of their death. The first issue of this publication in "The Cherokee Advocate" was on March 3, and the first issue in the "Pryor Creek Clipper" on March 8, 1906. Attention was called to Section 22 of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 716), and notice given to the heirs of the persons named, the administrators of their estates, or any other person having any interest in the estates of the decedents, that the Commissioner would, at the expiration of sixty days from the date of the notice, recommend to the Secretary of the Interior the cancellation of the enrollment of said persons as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, unless conclusive evidence was presented to the effect that said persons were living on September 1, 1902.

In addition to this notice a letter was on May 1, 1906, addressed to each of the above named persons, or his heirs, at his last known postoffice advising the information received, the law with reference to the making of the roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and that unless conclusive evidence was presented within thirty days from date to the effect that the decedent was living September 1, 1902, the Commissioner would recommend to the Secretary of the Interior the Cancellation of the enrollment of said person as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

No information having been received that any one of the above named persons was living September 1, 1904, it is respectfully recommended that their names be stricken from the approved partial rolls of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee nation in the possession of the Department and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs; that this office be authorized to strike their names from the copies of the approved partial rolls in its possession, and that the applications for their enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation be dismissed.

August 23, 1906.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to transmit herewith a report from the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated August 9, 1906, forwarding affidavits as to the deaths of certain persons whose names appear on a partial roll of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation. Commissioner Bixby refers to Departmental letters of May 31, (I.T.D.6186-1905), June 1, (I.T.D.6240-1905), October 4, (I.T.D.12228-1905), and January 12, (I.T.D.110-1906), relative to striking from the approved roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation the names of 286 persons who are shown to have died prior to September 1, 1902.

Commissioner Bixby reports that the Department's instructions as to the proceedings to be taken with reference to these persons, have been complied with, and no information having been received that any of the persons enumerated in his report were on September 1, 1902, he recommends that their names be stricken from the approved partial rolls of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of the Department and this this Office, and that he be authorized to strike their names from the copies of the approved partial rolls in his possession, and that the application for their enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation be dismissed.

The affidavits have been examined in this Office, and are transmitted herewith, the Office concurring in the Commissioner's recommendation.

Very respectfully,

F. H. Leupp.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Commissioner.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,

The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself, and his wife and five children: He and his wife are both identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1896, as Native Cherokees: Her variation in name as occasioned by her marriage is established by satisfactory personal testimony. Both of them have lived in the Cherokee Nation all their lives, and will be listed now for enrollment as Cherokees by blood.

The first four of their children enumerated in the testimony are the children of a former marriage, and that wife is identified on the roll of 1880. She died before the roll of 1896. Her change of name, occasioned by marriage, is explained by satisfactory personal testimony. These four children are identified on the roll of 1896; they are living at this time; and they will now be listed for enrollment as Cherokees by blood.

When the Commission is supplied with a duly authenticated certificate of the birth of the youngest child, Josephine Mary, it also will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

The undersigned, being sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

The Department's instructions of June 1, 1905 (I.T.D. 6240-1905), and October 4, 1905 (I.T.D. 12220-1905), as to the proceedings to be taken with reference to these persons have been complied with. Notice, under date of March 1, 1906, of the information received as to the date of the death of the above named persons, was given by publication for four consecutive issues in "The Cherokee Advocate" and Fryer Creek Clepper", both weekly newspapers of general circulation, the former published in the Cherokee Nation at Tahpequah, Indian Territory, and the latter published at Pryor Creek, Indian Territory, in the Recording District, in which the above named persons are shown to have resided at the time of their death. The first issue of this publication in "The Cherokee Advocate" was on March 3, and the first issue in the "Pryor Creek Clipper" was on March 2, 1906. Attention was called to Section 31 of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 710), and notice given to the heirs of the persons named, the administrators of their estates, or any other person having any interest in the estates of the decedents, that the Commissioner would, at the expiration of sixty days from the date of the notice, recommend to the Secretary of the Interior the cancellation of the enrollment of said persons as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, unless conclusive evidence was presented to the effect that said persons were living on September 1, 1902.

In addition to this notice a letter was on May 1, 1906, addressed to each of the above named persons, or his heirs, at his last known postoffice advising the information received, the law with reference to the making of the roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and that unless conclusive evidence was presented within thirty days from date to the effect that the decedent was living September 1, 1902, the Commissioner would recommend to the Secretary of the Interior the cancellation of the enrollment of said person as a citizen of the Cherokee nation.

No information having been received that any one of the above named persons was living September 1, 1902, it is respectfully recommended that their names be stricken from the approved partial rolls of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of the Department and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs; that this office be authorized to strike their names from the copies of the approved partial rolls in its possession, and that the applications for their enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee nation be dismissed.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to transmit herewith a report from the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated August 9, 1906, forwarding affidavits as to the deaths of certain persons whose names appear on a partial roll of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation. Commissioner Bixby refers to Departmental letters of May 31, (I.T.D. 6186-1905), June 1, (I.T.D. 6240-1905), October 4, (I.T.D. 12228-1905), and January 12, (I.T.D. 110-1906), relative to striking from the approved roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation the names of 286 persons who are shown to have died prior to September 1, 1902.

Commissioner Bixby reports that the Department's instructions as to the proceedings to be taken with reference to these persons, have been complied with, and no information having been received that any of the persons enumerated in his report were on September 1, 1902, he recommends that their names be stricken from the approved partial rolls of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of the Department and this office, and that he be authorized to strike their names from the copies of the approved partial rolls in his possession, and that the application for their enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation be dismissed.

The affidavits have been examined in this Office, and are transmitted herewith, the Office concurring in the Commissioner's recommendation.

Very respectfully,

F. E. Leupp.

ALLISON L. AYLESWORTH
SECRETARY

ADDRESS ONLY THE
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

Muskogee, Indian Territory.

October 7th. 1902.

Hattie O. Williams,

Pryor Creek, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:

The Act of Congress, approved July 1, 1902, and entitled "An Act To provide for the allotment of the lands of the Cherokee Nation, for the disposition of town sites therein, and for other purposes," (Public No. 241), provides that "the roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation shall be made as of September first, nineteen-hundred and two."

In accordance with said provision, you are hereby notified that the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes will be at its offices at Muskogee, Indian Territory, until Friday, October 31, 1902, inclusive, for the purpose of affording you an opportunity to show that you have not, between the date of the original application for your enrollment and Sept 2, 1902, forfeited your right as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

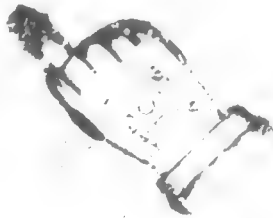

This evidence should be introduced immediately, as it is necessary in determining your right to share in the allotment of the lands of the Cherokee Nation, and until the same is furnished no further action can be taken looking toward your final enrollment as an intermarried citizen.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

Department of the Interior.
Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes,
MUSKOGEE, IND. TER.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, January 10, 1907.

Hattie O. Williams,

Pryor Creek, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:

There is inclosed a copy of the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated January 10, 1907, rejecting, among others, the application for your enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. The Commissioner's decision has this day been forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior for review. You will be advised of the Secretary's action as soon as this office is informed of same.

Respectfully,

Incl. Decn. C-----

Commissioner.

Department of the Interior, Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Queen Watkins et al. as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Commissioner.

Applicant recalled:

The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself, wife and two children. He and his wife are duly identified on the rolls of 1896, as Native Cherokees: They have lived in the Cherokee Nation all their lives. His wife's variation of name is explained by her marriage, which is established by the roll, and by personal testimony: They will both be listed now for enrollment as Cherokees by blood.

Their child, Carrie B. Vann is identified on the roll of / 1898: This child is now living and will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. When the Commission is supplied with a duly authenticated certificate of the birth of Martha E. Vann the youngest child, it also will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

The undersigned, being sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,

Commissioner.

- Q Did you and he come to the Cherokee Nation shortly after your marriage? A Yes sir, were here in '73; we came here to live in '76.
- Q But during those years he was temporarily absent, he considered the Cherokee Nation his home? A Yes sir, he never had a home anywhere else.
- Q You came to the Cherokee Nation in 1876, and from that time on this was your permanent home? A He came here in the fall of '74, and we came here in '76, and haven't been away.
- Q You have been here continuously since? A Yes sir.
- Q You have not married since the death of your husband? A No sir.
- Q Have you any evidence to show your marriage to your husband?
 A No sir, I haven't it here. My certificate was burned, and the license also.

APPEARANCES:

Cherokee Nation represented by
 W. W. Hastings, Attorney.

Cynthia A. Fields being first duly sworn by Mrs. Lyman K.
 Lane, Notary Public, testified as follows:

ON BEHALF OF COMMISSIONER.

- Q What is your name? A Cynthia A. Fields.
 Q What is your age? A 50.
 Q What is your post office address?
 A Chouteau, Indian Territory.
 Q What is the name of your husband?
 A James L. Fields.
 Q You claim the right to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation by virtue of your marriage to him?
 A Yes sir.
 Q When were you married to him?
 A In 1872.
 Q Where were you married? A Benton County, Texas.
 Q Was he a recognized citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation at the time you married him?
 A Yes sir.
 Q His absence from the Cherokee nation was only of a temporary character?
 A He was a trading man, - traded in this country and Texas also;
 he came from this country in '71 and we were married in '72.
 Q He was recognized when you came to the Cherokee Nation with him from Texas, as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation?
 A Yes sir.
 Q It wasn't necessary after you came here for him to go before the authorities and be re-admitted?
 A I don't know; if he did, I don't know anything about it.
 Q You never heard of anything like that?
 A No sir.
 Q Have you a certificate showing your marriage to your husband?
 A No sir; there was no certificate issued because the court house burned before the certificate was issued.
 Q The court house where the marriage record was recorded, was burned before a certificate was issued to you?
 A Yes sir. I have sent for affidavits of those who knew we was married
 Q About how many years was your husband out of the Cherokee Nation at the time you were married?
 A He wasn't out at all; he was here in '71 and we were married in '72 and came back in '73.
 Q Where did he live prior to 1871?
 A Well, I don't know; here I guess.

C. F. B.

Cherokee 2738.

- Q Do you know where he was born?
A On what was commonly known as the neutral strip.
Q Do you know when he first came down to what is known now as the Cherokee Nation?
A No, because I didn't know him at that time; I wasn't living then.

BY MR. HASTINGS.

- Q Then you don't know anything about his citizenship in the Cherokee nation except by hearsay, previous to your marriage?
A No sir; but his people are all here and he has always lived here.
Q You mean after he came back here and after your marriage to him, don't you?
A Yes sir, up to the present time.
Q You don't know how long he remained in the Cherokee Nation, if at all, after he left the neutral land,-- you don't know how long he remained in the Nation until he went down to Texas?
A No sir, I don't know.
Q So far as you know he might have gone from the neutral strip to Texas?
A Yes sir.
Q You were married to him in '72 in Texas?
A Yes sir.
Q And how long did you remain in Texas after you married?
A Nearly three years; we came here in December---
Q About how long did you know him before you were married?
A I have known of him all my life; he was a trading man; he was in partnership with a man by the name of Rector.
Q How long had you known him continuously before you married?
A 6 months.
Q And you remained there about three years before you came to the Cherokee Nation?
A Yes sir.
Q And you don't know whether he applied to the National Council--
A No sir; I don't know whether he did or not.
Q Have you any information about him applying for citizenship in the Cherokee Nation?
A No sir; if he ever applied I don't know anything about it but I suppose the records would show whether he did or not. The first I ever knew anything about the Cherokee laws was a payment that he got, only that he was always a citizen.

ON BEHALF OF COMMISSIONER.

- Q Did you ever know any other person in the Cherokee Nation by the name of James L. or J. L. Fields?
A He has a nephew by the same name.
Q But he is considerably younger? A Yes.
Q When was he born? A I don't know.
Q How old is the nephew of your husband?
A I don't know.

The records of the Cherokee Nation in charge of this office, showing the list of persons admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by the National Council and Supreme Court of the Nation since 1866, shows on page 12 of said record that one J. L. Fields was admitted to citizenship in said Nation

C. F. B.

Cherokee 2736.

November 21, 1879, said admission being unconditional.

- Q You will have those affidavits as to your marriage?
A Yes sir; I have sent for them. They will be here in a few days.
Q Where do you live?
A 1104 South Second Street, Muskogee, Indian Territory.

The undersigned being first duly sworn states that as stenographer to the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, she recorded the testimony taken in this case and that the foregoing is a true and correct transcript of her stenographic notes thereof.

Dear Madam:

November 6, 1906, the United States Supreme Court held that white persons who intermarried with Cherokee citizens according to Cherokee law prior to November 1, 1875, are entitled to enrollment and allotments of land as citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

You are advised that to properly determine your right to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, it will be necessary for you to appear before the Commissioner for the purpose of giving testimony as to the date of your marriage and whether or not your husband, by reason of your marriage to whom you claim the right to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, was a recognized Cherokee citizen at the time of your marriage to him.

You are, therefore, directed to appear before the Commissioner at Muskogee, Indian Territory, at 9 o'clock A. M., on Thursday, January 3, 1907, and give testimony as above indicated.

Respectfully,

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Cynthia A. Fields as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

D E C I S I O N

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That at Pryor Creek, Indian Territory, September 14, 1900, application was received by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes for the enrollment of Cynthia A. Fields as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Muskogee, Indian Territory, October 14, 1902, January 3, January 24, and February 6, 1907.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That the applicant herein, Cynthia A. Fields, is a white woman, and neither claims nor possesses any right to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation other than such right as she may have acquired by virtue of her marriage in 1874, to one James Fields, since deceased, who was, at the time of said marriage, a recognized citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, who is identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880, Coowescoowee District, No. 1139 as a native Cherokee; that the said James Fields was not, at the time of said marriage, a recognized citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, and did not become such until his admission to citizenship therein by the duly constituted authorities of said Nation on November 21, 1879. Said applicant did not, therefore, marry a recognized citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, the said applicant, Cynthia A. Fields, is not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and her application for enrollment as such is accordingly denied.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Commissioner.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,
this January 10, 1907.

ACTING CHAIRMAN

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

Pryor Creek, I.T. September 14, 1900.

IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION OF MARION SCOTT FOR THE ENROLLMENT OF HIMSELF, HIS WIFE AND CHILDREN, AS CITIZENS OF THE CHEROKEE NATION.

The said Marion Scott, being duly sworn by Commissioner C. R. Breckinridge, testified as follows:

- Q What is your full name? A Marion Scott.
Q How old are you? A Thirty four.
Q What is your Post office? A Rose.
Q What district do you live in? A Saline.
Q Who is it you want to have put on the roll? A Myself.
Q And your wife? A Yes, sir.
Q And your children? A Yes, sir.
Q How many children? A Three.
Q Do you apply for yourself as a Cherokee by blood? A No,
sir.
Q As a citizen by adoption? A Yes, sir.
Q Do you apply for your wife as a citizen by blood? A Yes, sir.
Q Have you a marriage license and certificate? A Yes, sir.
Q First tell me what is the name of your wife.
A Cherokee Scott.
Q How old is she? A Twenty four years old.
Q When were you married to her? A March 8th, 1892.
Q And her maiden name was Cherokee Paris? A Yes, sir.
Q And that was her name when you married her? A Yes, sir.
- The applicant presents a duly authenticated Cherokee marriage license and certificate showing that he was married to his wife as stated by him, by the clerk of Going Snake District, March 8th, 1892. The license and certificate are filed herewith.

1880 Roll, page 299, No. 2031, Cherokee Paris, Delaware District.
1896 Roll, page 1035, No. 34, Marion Scott, Saline District.

The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself, his wife and three children. His wife is identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1896 as a native Cherokee, the change of name arising from her marriage, as shown by the marriage license and certificate filed herewith. She is now living and has lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life, and she will now be enlisted for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. The applicant himself is identified on the roll of 1896. His marriage is established by the license and certificate referred to. He has lived with his wife ever since their marriage, and he will now be enlisted for enrollment as a Cherokee by adoption.

Their two children, Jessie and William are identified with their parents on the roll of 1896. They are living at this time, and will be enlisted now for enrollment as Cherokees by blood. The youngest child, David, will, when the Commission is supplied with the proper certificate of its birth, be enlisted for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

The undersigned being sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and other proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a correct and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Commissioner.

- Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A Came here in 1882.

Com'r Needles:--The name of Albert T. Ingram is not found upon the authenticated roll of 1880. He having moved to the Cherokee nation since said roll was compiled. His name is found upon the pay roll of 1894. His name is also found on the list of North Carolina Cherokees, who removed to the Cherokee Nation July 8, 1881, under an act of the National Council, approved December 3, 1880. Satisfactory proof being made as to his residence, and he being duly identified as a Cherokee by blood, said Albert T. Ingram will be duly listed for enrollment by this Commission as a Cherokee by blood.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES,
MUSKOGEE, IND. TER., SEPT. 16, 1902.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Albert T. Ingram as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation:

SUPPLEMENTAL STATEMENT.

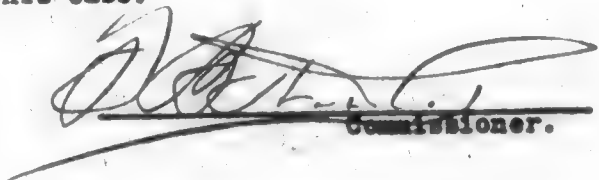

Upon examination of the 1896 Census Roll of the Cherokee Nation, now in possession of the Commission, it appears that the applicant is identified thereon as a native Cherokee as follows:

1896 roll, page 1164, Tahlequah District, #940, Albert T. Ingram.

It is ordered that the statement of the 1894 enrollment of the applicant, made by the Commission on September 14, 1900, be amended by striking out Coowessocowee and inserting Tahlequah District, so that said enrollment, as corrected, reads as follows:

1894 Enrollment, page 1087, Tahlequah District, #1647, Abert Theo Ingram.

And it is further ordered that a copy of this statement be filed with the testimony in this case.

Commissioner.

2747

Amended by striking out Cherokee and inserting Tahlequah District (Cherokee) and of the Commission of September 14, 1900, page 4 and in the second case the amendment of the first enrollment of the said land of the said Cherokee Nation, which is as follows:

CHIEF OF BUREAU OF INDIAN AFFAIRS, GEORGETOWN, GEORGIA:

Reference is made to the report of the said Cherokee Nation, dated the 10th day of August, 1900, and to the report of the said Cherokee

CHIEF OF BUREAU OF INDIAN AFFAIRS.

ADDRESS ONLY THE
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

Tahlequah, Indian Territory, December 8, 1903.

Albert T. Ingram,
Mena, Arkansas.

Dear Sir:

You are hereby notified that before your application for enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation will be complete it will be necessary that you introduce further testimony establishing your residence in the Cherokee Nation.

This testimony can be presented at the Cherokee Land Office of this Commission at Tahlequah, and should be introduced at the earliest possible date, as until it is introduced the Commission can not well determine your right to be placed upon the final roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

When you appear, please present this letter.

Respectfully,

C. R. Breckinridge
Commissioner in Charge
Cherokee Land Office.

Tahlequah, Indian Territory, January 9, 1904.

Albert T. Ingram,
England, Arkansas.

Dear Sir:

The Commission is in receipt of your letter of December 31, stating that you have recently been informed that there is some question in regard to your right to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation. You ask if this information is correct that you be advised what steps it will be necessary for you to take in order to establish your right to enrollment.

In reply, you are advised that, before your application for enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation will be complete, it will be necessary that you introduce further testimony in regard to your residence in the Cherokee Nation. This testimony can be presented at the Cherokee Land Office of this Commission at Tahlequah, and should be introduced at the earliest possible date as, until it is introduced, the Commission cannot well determine your right to be placed upon the final roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation; and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Commissioner.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,

- Q What is your wife's name at this time? A Roxie Scott.
- Q Is that the wife for whom you present a marriage license and certificate here? A No, sir.
- Q Well, you were married, it seems, in July 1882 to one Belle Paris. That is the one you claim under? A Yes, sir.
- The applicant presents a duly authenticated Cherokee marriage license and certificate, showing that he was married July 4th, 1882, to Miss Belle Paris. That was your wife's maiden name, was it?
- A Yes, sir.
- Q This was issued to John H. Scott. Have you an initial H in your name? A No, sir.
- (The marriage license and certificate mentioned re filed herewith)
- Q Now, your deceased wife was a Cherokee was she? A Yes, sir.
- Q When did she die? A 1895, I believe.
- Q Now, give me the name please of your present wife.
- A Roxie Scott.
- Q How old is she? A Twenty-one.
- Q When did you marry her? A Three years ago.
- Q Have you a marriage license and certificate?
- A Not for the last woman.
- Q Is she a Cherokee or a white woman? A She is a Cherokee.
- Q What was her name when you married her? A Roxie Parris.
- Q What was the name of her father? A Bud Parris.
- Q Cherokee or white woman? A Cherokee.
- Q Is he dead or alive? (No response)
- Q Give me the name of her mother? A Gatsie Parris.
- Q Cherokee or white woman? A Cherokee.
- Q Is she dead or alive? A Dead.
- Q How long has she been dead? A I don't remember; about ten or twelve years somewhere along there.
- Q Have you a personal witness by whom you can establish the fact that you are living with Roxie Scott, or Roxie Parris? A Yes, sir.
- Q Now give me please the names of your five children.

A Prince Scott.
 Q How old is that child? A Fifteen.
 Q The next child, give his name.
 A Noly.
 Q How old is that child? A He is fourteen.
 Q The next child? A Geo. Scott.
 Q How old is that child? A Ten years old.
 Q The next child? A Buster.

 1880 Roll, page 460, No. 1259, Roxie Parris, Going Snake District.
 1896 Roll page 588, No. 473, John Scott, Delaware District.
 1896 Roll, page 1012, No. 939, Rocky Anna Parris, Saline
 District.
 1896 Roll, page 528, No. 2714, Price Scott, Delaware. District.
 1896 Roll, page 528, No. 2715, Nola Scott, Delaware. Delaware.
 1896 Roll page 528, No. 2716, George Scott, Delaware District.

Q These children are all living now are they? A Yes, sir.
 Q Now, give me the name of some one who knew your present wife as Roxie Parris.

GEORGE PARRIS, being called and sworn by the Commissioner,
 testified as follows:

Q What is your name? A George Parris.
 Q What is your age? A Forty-eight.
 Q What is your post office? A Rose.
 Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A Ever since
 I was born, I guess.
 Q Do you know the applicant here, Mr. John Scott?
 A Yes, sir.
 Q Do you know his wife? A Yes, sir.
 Q What was her name when she married him? A Why, they had a nick name that they call her "Sis," but her right name was Roxie Parris.
 Q The person Roxie Parris and Roxie Scott, that is one and the same person? A Yes, sir.
 Q Is she any kin to you? A Yes, sir.
 Q What? A She is my daughter.
 QQ That is this applicant's wife now? A Yes, sir.

The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself, his wife and five children. He is shown by the marriage license and certificate filed herewith to have been married in accordance with the Cherokee law in 1882. That wife, now deceased, is identified on the roll of 1880. Since her death he has married again, but he has married a Cherokee woman who is identified on the roll of 1880 and also on the roll of 1896. He has lived in the Cherokee Nation ever since the original marriage and will be enlisted now for enrollment as a Cherokee by adoption. His present wife Roxie Scott is identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1896 as a native Cherokee. Her marriage is established by the testimony of the applicant and by that of the father of his present wife. She will now be enlisted for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. The three children, Price, Nola and George Scott, are children of the first marriage. They are identified on the roll of 1896. They are living at this time, and will be enlisted now for enrollment as Cherokees by blood. When the Commission is supplied with proper certificates of birth of the two youngest children, Buster and Edna, they, also, will be enlisted for enrollment as Cherokees by blood.

The undersigned being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and other proceedings in the above entitled case, and that the foregoing is a correct and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 11th day of September

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Florence E. Lamm et al. -----Cherokee-2750.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

Pryor Creek, I.T. September 14, 1900.

IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION OF J. HOWARD LANGLEY FOR THE ENROLLMENT OF HIS TWO WARDS, FLORENCE E. LAMM AND MARY I. LAMM, AS CHEROKEE CITIZENS.

The said J. Howard Langley, being duly sworn by Commissioner C. R. Breckinridge, testified as follows:

- Q What is your full name? A J. Howard Langley.
Q How old are you? A Thirty three.
Q What is your post office? A Pryor Creek.
Q What is your district? A Cooweescoowee District.
Q Who is it you wish to have enrolled? A My two wards.
Q How many wards? A Two.
Q That is all the application you make? A Yes, sir.
Q Give me the names of your two wards.
A. Florence E. Lamm and Mary I. Lamm. Florence is fourteen years old and Mary twelve years old.
Q Now, these children are orphans, are they? A Yes, sir.
Q Give me please the name of their mother.
A. Nannie Lamm.
Q Was she a Cherokee or a white woman? A A Cherokee.
Q Is she dead? A Yes, sir.
Q How long has she been dead? A I guess it has been ten years.
Q She is on the roll of 1880 is she? A I presume she is.
Q What was her name before it was Lamm? A Riley.
Q Was that her maiden name? A Yes, sir.
Q How old was she when she died? A I don't know sir.
Q Give me the name please, now of their father.
A John L. Lamm.
Q Is he a Cherokee or a white man? A He is a white man?
Q Is he dead? A He is.
Q How long has he been dead? A Five years.
Q Now, when was he married to his wife, Nannie?
A About 1885.
Q Did they live together as husband and wife until the time of her death? A Not to my knowledge. I never knew her until I came here about ten years ago.
Q You have no marriage license or certificate of marriage?
A No, sir/ I was only appointed guardian just a few days ago.
Q Well, now there is one old neighbor here who was acquainted with her during her girlhood, I suppose? A Yes, sir; I suppose so.

In the Genealogical Genealogical Book compiled by Emmett Starr, and drawn from the family archives of the Cherokee Nation, there is a statement that Nannie Amanda Riley married John Lee Lamm, and the same record shows the statement that Florence Ethel Lamm and Mary Irene Lamm, whose names are now identified on the roll of 1896, are children of that marriage.

Q Have you articles of guardianship? A Yes, sir.

The applicant presents duly attested letters of guardianship, as claimed by him in the testimony, and the document is returned to him.

The applicant applies for the enrollment of his two wards. They are identified on the roll of 1896, and their mother is identified under ~~her~~ her maiden name on the roll of 1880 as a native Cherokee. Their father and mother both died prior to the roll of 1896 being made. Their father was a white man. No marriage license or certificate is ~~produced~~ produced to establish the change of name of the mother of these children, nor can any witness be found at present who knew this woman under her maiden name. Citation is made, however, from a record as set forth in the testimony, showing that Annie Riley was married to John L. Lamm, and that these two children were born to them. At present the application for the enrollment of these children will be placed on a doubtful card and the applicant is desired to furnish personal testimony as to the marriage, and consequent change of the name of the mother of these children.

The undersigned being duly sworn states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and other proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a correct and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

FURTHER TESTIMONY TAKEN RELATIVE TO THE APPLICATION FOR THE ENROLLMENT OF THE TWO ORPHAN CHILDREN, FLORENCE E LAMM AND MARY I. LAMM AS CHEROKEE CITIZENS.

BEFORE COMMISSIONER C.R.BRECKINRIDGE.

Joseph F. Thompson, being called and sworn by the Commissioner, testified as follows:

- Q Your age is fifty nine? A Yes, sir fifty nine.
Q What is your post office? A Salina, I.T.
Q What is your full name? A Joseph F. Thompson.
Q What is your occupation? A I am a preacher, but superintendent of the Cherokee Orphan Asylum out here.
Q Did you know a Cherokee woman named Nannie Riley? A Yes, sir.
Q Was she at the Orphan Asylum under your charge? A Yes, sir; she was there in 1882 when I first went there.
Q Was she married afterwards? A Yes, sir. I knew of the fact of her being the wife of Mr. Lamm and the mother of two children.
Q You know that this Nannie Riley was afterwards the wife of Mr. Lamm? A Yes, sir.
Q And left two children? A Yes, sir.
Witness excused.

THE COMMISSIONER: This testimony supplies the evidence necessary in the case of the enrollment of these Lamm children, Florence E. and Mary I Lamm, and they will be enrolled as Cherokees by blood.

The undersigned being duly sworn states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony in this case, and other proceedings, and that the foregoing is a correct and complete transcript of ~~the same~~ his stenographic notes of the same.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

2213

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Florence E. Lamm et al. as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

DECISION.

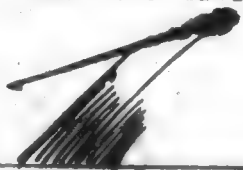

The record in this case shows that on September 14, 1900
J. Howard Langley appeared before the Commission, at Pryor Creek, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment of his two wards, Florence E. and Mary I. Lamm, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation. Further proceedings were had in the matter of this application at Tahlequah, Indian Territory, on July 16, and December 27, 1904.

The evidence herein shows that Nannie Lamm (nee Riley), who died about 1890, was a Cherokee by blood and is duly identified upon the 1880 authenticated roll of the Cherokee Nation; that about 1885 she was married to John L. Lamm, a white man, who died about 1895, and as the issue of said marriage, the applicants herein, Florence E. and Mary I. Lamm, were born.

The evidence further shows that the said Florence E. and Mary I. Lamm were about 14 and 12 years of age, respectively, at the time application was made for their enrollment; and that they were born in the Cherokee Nation and have continuously made their home therein. They are duly identified upon the 1896 Cherokee Census Roll.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Florence E. Lamm and Mary I. Lamm should be enrolled as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, in accordance with the provisions of Section twenty-one of the act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), and it is so ordered.

EXAMINATION ON BEHALF OF THE COMMISSIONER (by W. S. D. Moore):

- Q State your name?
A Charles C. Jackson.
Q What is your age?
A Twenty-three.
Q What is your post office address?
A Greenbriar.
Q What relation, if any, are you to Florence E. Lamm?
A Husband.
Q When were you married to her?
A 29th of last December.
Q What is the name of your wife's father?
A I don't believe I know.
Q Is he living?
A No, he is dead.
Q How long has he been dead, do you know?
A Several years.
Q Is her mother living?
A No sir.
Q Do you know what her name was?
A She was a Riley before she married him.
Q Has your wife any brothers or sisters?
A No sir, she has a sister dead.
Q Younger or older than she is?
A Younger.
Q Was she married?
A Yes sir.
Q What was her husband's name?
A Adams.
Q What was her given name?
A I can't think of her name now.
Q What is your wife's age?
A Twenty-two, I believe.

Dear Sir:

You are hereby notified that before your application for the enrollment of your two wards, Florence E. and Mary I. Lann, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation will be complete, it will be necessary that you introduce further testimony establishing the residence of these children in the Cherokee Nation; also as to the residence of their parents.

This testimony can be presented at the Cherokee Land Office of this Commission at Tahlequah, and should be introduced at the earliest possible date, as until it is introduced the Commission can not well determine their right to be placed upon the final roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

When you appear, please present this letter.

Dear Sir:

The Commission is in receipt of your letter of May 30, asking if J. F. Thompson of Tahlequah, gave testimony in February last in the matter of the application for the enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation of Florence E. and Mary I. Lann and if any further testimony is needed in that case.

In reply you are advised that Mr. Thompson has not appeared and testified as to the rights of these children to enrollment. Further testimony is required in their case as to the residence of the last surviving parent and of the children since the death of their parents. This testimony can be presented at the office of the Commission at Muskegee and should be introduced at the earliest possible date.

Q. What was your first wife's name? A. Susan Jackson.
Q. Susan what? A. Susan Jackson.
Q. What was her maiden name? A. It was Bibbes.
Q. Is she the wife through whom you claim citizenship?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. You were married to her when? A. I was married to her 2 or 3 years before I come to this country; right away after I come to this country. I married in Texas and come here and proved out rights right away afterwards.
Q. You were remarried? A. Yes, sir.
Q. That was before 1880? A. Yes, sir.
Q. Your wife Susan is dead? A. Yes, sir.
Q. You lived with her from the time you married her up to the time she died? A. Yes, sir.
Q. What is your second wife's name? A. Stucker, when I married her.
Q. She is a Cherokee? A. Yes, sir; about a half breed, I think.
Q. That was her maiden name? A. I don't know what---
That was the name of her last man.
Q. She was a widow? A. Yes, sir.
Q. You say you think she was a half breed Cherokee?
A. Yes, sir.
Q. Is she dead? A. She has been dead, I guess, about four years.
Q. When did you marry her? A. Well, I married her about a year before she died.
Q. You lived together a year? A. Yes, sir.
Q. She died about four years ago? A. I think it is some where about four years ago. I wouldn't be certain.
Q. Do you know when she married Stucker? A. No, sir.
I don't know when she married this Stucker.
Q. You don't know how long her name had been Stucker when you

James A. Jackson being first duly sworn testified as follows: Applicant sworn by Frances R. Lane, a Notary Public for the Western District of Indian Territory.

By the Commissioner:

- Q What is your name? A James A. Jackson.
Q Your age? A Sixty-three.
Q And your postoffice address? A Pryor Creek, I. T.
Q You are a white man, not possessed of any Indian blood?
A Well, I am a white man; don't claim to anything else.
Q You claim your right to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q And claim your right by virtue of your marriage to a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q What is the name of that citizen? A Susan Bibles.
Q When were you married to Susan Bibles? A In 1863.
Q Where did you marry Susan Bibles? A On the Verdigris, at Charles Rogers.
Q Who performed the marriage ceremony? A Charles Rogers.
Q Was that under a license of the Cherokee nation? A Yes sir.
Q Have you any documentary evidence of that marriage?
A No, I aint got none with me.
Q Did you ever have a certificate? A Yes, I had a certificate.
Q What became of it? A One of my boys--I put it in a trunk and he went west and took it with him, and lost the trunk.
Q Do you know whether or not the license was ever recorded?
A Yes, that was on the rolls.
Q I mean, was it returned to the clerk? A Yes, I have got this here certificate.
Q What district is that in? A Coowesscoowee.
Q Had you ever been married before you married Susan Bibles?
A No sir.
Q Had she ever been married before she married you?
A Yes, she had been married in Texas.
Q When did she marry in Texas? A Along the time of the war.
Q Was that husband, the man she married in Texas living at the time you and she were married? A Both dead.
Q She had been married twice? A Yes, they was both dead. One got killed in the army, and the other got killed by a horse.
Q You say you had been married before you married her?
A No, I was married in Texas, and then had to come here and comply with the laws here.
Q What was the date of your marriage in Texas? A Well, I was 22 years old when I married, but I can't tell you the date.
Q That was before your marriage on the Verdigris? A Yes sir.

- Q And you said that marriage in the Cherokee nation was what year? A 1863, about December.
- Q Is Susan Bibler living at this time? A No sir.
- Q When did she die? A She has been dead about 11 or 12 years.
- Q Have you married since she died? A I married another Cherokee woman.
- Q What is her name? A Stucker.
- Q When did you marry this Mrs. Stucker? A About six years ago.
- Q Was Susan Bibler at the time you married her a recognized citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
- Q Was this last wife also a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, nearly full blood, she said she was. I reckon she was; claimed to be.
- Q Did you and Susan Bibler live together as husband and wife and reside continuously in the Cherokee nation from the time of your marriage until her death? A Yes sir.
- Q After her death did you continue to live in the Cherokee nation? A Yes, never have been nowhere else.
- Q And since being married to his last woman you have continued to live in the Cherokee nation? A Yes sir.
- Q Since your marriage to Susan Bibler in 1863, have you enjoyed the rights of a citizen of the Cherokee nation? A Yes sir.
- Q You have voted, have you? A Yes sir.
- Q When was the first time you ever voted? A I voted the first spring after I was married.
- Q Do you remember who you voted for then? A I voted for old man Ticeater; he was running for solicitor.
- Q Is this last wife living? A No sir.
- Q When did she die? A She died about 5 or 6 years ago.
- Q You said awhile ago you married her about 6 years ago. A I did.
- Q How long did you live together as man and wife? A Lived together for about a year.
- Q The what? A Then she went over across the river to her daughters and died in the hills.
- Q How long before her death did she go away? A It was about a month.
- Q Did you have any trouble with her? A No, no serious trouble.
- Q What was the cause of her leaving you? A She was sick and wanted to go to her daughter and she died there.
- Q Did you see her any more before she died? A No, after she went over there her daughter came in and told me she was dead.
- Q You wasn't present at the funeral? A No, I don't think they had any funeral.

By Mr. Hastings:

- Q Was that separation between you and this last wife?
A Yes sir.
- Q What was the cause? A She was just contrary and I couldn't live with her; that's all.

By the Commissioner:

- Q You haven't married since this Stucker woman died, have you?
A No sir.

Q You got along with her all right until her death? A Yes, I lived with her until she died.
Q That was Susan Bibles, you lived with her continuously?
A Yes, then she died and left me.
Q Is there anyone here who can testify to your marriage to Susan Bibles in 1863, under Cherokee law? A Not that I know of.
Q Is there anyone living that was present at that marriage?
A No one, only Mr. Rogers and his wife.
Q Are they living at this time? A No, both dead. I had to get seven signers.
Q Are any of these signers living? A Yes, two of them is living.
Q What are their names? A Two Bibles, cousins of my wife.
Q They are living here in the Territory are they? A Yes.
Q They could come here and testify if necessary, could they?
A I guess they could come; they signed my petition and that is all they know about it; they are all dead that seen me married; Mr. Rogers and his wife; we went down and staid all night at his house. He was the District Judge of Cooweescoowee District at that time. There is Charley Rogers; he knows me a good long time.

The applicant, James A. Jackson is identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880, Cooweescoowee District, No. 1549, and on the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, Cooweescoowee District, Page 311, No. 540, as an intermarried citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

In Book C., Record of Marriages, Cooweescoowee District, now in the possession of this office, page 9, there appears the following entry:

"1872--Feb. 10, Issued license of marriage to J. A. Jackson, citizen of the United States, to marry Susan Bibles, citizen of the C. N.
"Issued by John Myers, District Clerk, Married by Judge Chas. Rogers, Feby 18, 1872."

Q What was the date of your marriage, Mr. Jackson, to Susan Bibles under the Cherokee license, the time you were married by Judge Rogers? A It was along about the last of December.
Q What year? A 1863.
Q You are positive of that date? 1863? A Yes, I think, if I aint mistaken.
Q It couldn't have been 1873, could it? A Yes, '73 instead of '63 is what I mean.
Q Now, which is it? A Well, 1873; you just had me a little jumbled; it is 1873.
Q It was after the war, was it? A Yes sir.

Frances R. Lane, upon oath states that as stenographer to the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, she reported the testimony in the above entitled cause and that the foregoing is an accurate transcript of her stenographic notes thereof.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, December 24, 1906.

James A. Jackson,
Pryor Creek, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

November 6, 1906, the United States Supreme Court held that white persons who intermarried with Cherokee citizens according to Cherokee law prior to November 1, 1875, are entitled to enrollment and allotments of land as citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

You are advised that to properly determine your right to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, it will be necessary for you to appear before the Commissioner for the purpose of giving testimony as to the date of your marriage and whether or not your wife, by reason of your marriage to whom you claim the right to enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, was a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation at the time of your marriage to her, and whether or not you were married to her in accordance with Cherokee laws.

You are, therefore, directed to appear before the Commissioner at Muskogee, Indian Territory, at 9 o'clock A. M., on Thursday, January 3, 1907, and give testimony as above indicated.

Respectfully,

THE RECORDS OF THIS OFFICE SHOW: That at Pryor Creek, Indian Territory, September 14, 1900, application was received by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes for the enrollment of James A. Jackson, as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Muskogee, Indian Territory, October 14, 1902, at Vinita, Indian Territory, March 11, 1903, and at Muskogee, Indian Territory, January 24, 1907.

THE EVIDENCE IN THIS CASE SHOWS: That the applicant herein, James A. Jackson, a white man, married in accordance with Cherokee law February 18, 1872 to one Susan Jackson, nee, Bibbes, since deceased, who is identified upon the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880, Cooweescoowee District, page 123, No. 1550, as a native Cherokee, that from the time of said marriage said James A. Jackson and Susan Jackson resided together as husband and wife and continuously lived in the Cherokee Nation, until the time of her death, which occurred about the year 1890; that subsequent to the death of said Susan Jackson the said James A. Jackson about the year 1900, was married to one Minerva Jackson, nee Stucker, since deceased, who at the time of said marriage was a recognized citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation and who is identified upon the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880, Cooweescoowee District, page 88, No. 728, as a native Cherokee; that from the time of said marriage the said James A. Jackson and Minerva Jackson resided together as husband and wife until the time of her death which occurred about the year 1903. Said applicant is identified upon the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880 and the Cherokee Census roll of 1896, as an intermarried citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, the said applicant James A. Jackson, is entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 496), to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation and his application for enrollment as such is accordingly granted.

wee district. Jasper H. Collier on 1896 roll, page 126, No. 816, Coombs-Cowee district.)

The name of William T. Collier appears upon the census roll of 1896. He presents a certificate of marriage more particularly described in the testimony as to his marriage with Betty Jackson, a Cherokee by blood, and the name of Betty Jackson appears upon the authenticated roll of 1880. Her name appears upon the census roll of 1896 as Sarah Collier. The names of his children, Hamie E., Missouri A., and Jasper H. appear upon the census roll of 1896, and he presents proof of birth as to his youngest child, Alice May, and they all being duly identified upon the rolls as indicated in the testimony, and having made satisfactory proof as to their residence, the said William T. Collier will be duly listed for enrollment by this Commission as a Cherokee citizen by intermarriage, and his wife and children as enumerated in the testimony as Cherokee citizens by blood.

William Thomas Collier - 2.

Bruce C. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above case, and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

ACTING CHIEF

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskegee, I. T., October 29, 1902.

In the matter of the application of William T. Collier for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee nation, and for the enrollment of his wife Bettie, and his children Maggie B., Missouri A., Jasper N., Alice W., and William A. as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

William T. Collier, being first duly sworn and examined by the Commission, testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A William T. Collier.
Q How old are you? A Forty-two.
Q Are you an applicant for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Cherokee nation? A Yes sir.
Q What is your postoffice address? A Prier Creek, I. T. I was here on the 13th. I came down to bring some papers.
Q Is your wife's right name Sarah? A Yes sir.
Q And is she sometimes enrolled as Bettie, and is enrolled as Bettie?
A Yes, she is enrolled as Bettie.
Q Had your wife been married to a man by the name of Thompson before she married you? A Yes sir.
Q And she and Thompson separated? A Yes sir.
Q Was that the only time she was married? A She married a man by the name of Williams.
Q Is Williams dead? A No, he is living.
Applicant offers in evidence a decree of divorce granted by the clerk of the court of the Cherokee nation in and for Cooweescoowee district on October 1, 1894 in the case of Sarah Thompson v. Emery Thompson.
He also presents a certificate of the assistant executive secretary of the Cherokee nation certifying that there is no record of divorce between George Williams and Bettie Williams in any of the records of the Cooweescoowee district.
Q Have you and your wife resided in the Cherokee nation ever since your marriage to her? A Yes sir.
Q Have these children lived in the Cherokee nation all their lives? A Yes.

Sarah Collier, being first duly sworn in the above entitled cause, and examined by the Commission, testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A Sarah Collier.
Q Are you the wife of William T. Collier? A Yes sir.
Q You are a Cherokee by blood, are you not? A Yes sir.
Q How many times had you been married before you and Collier were married?
A Twice.
Q What was your first husband's name? A George Williams.
Q Was he living or dead when you married Mr. Collier? A Living.
Q You and he had been separated, had you? A Yes sir.
Q Had you and he been divorced? A I applied for a divorce through Mr. Norwood.
Q Who was Norwood? A I don't know.
Q What was his business? A He was a lawyer at that time.
Q Where is he now? A He is at Dewey, I. T.
Q You got him to apply for a divorce for you? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know what court he made application in? A At Clarendon.
Q What district is that? A Cooweescoowee district.
Q Did he ever get the divorce for you? A He never sent me no papers to show he got it; he just told me he got it.
Q You don't know whether you ever had a divorce granted by the court? A Only what Norwood told me.
Q After that you married a man by the name of Thompson, did you? A Yes.

- Q Was Thompson living or dead when you married Collier? A He was living.
Q You and he separated? A Yes sir.
Q Had you and Thompson been divorced? A Yes sir.
Q In what court? A The same court.
Q And that is a copy of the decree, which your husband filed this morning, between you and Thompson? A Yes sir.
Q Is that all you know about the divorce between you and Williams, just what Norwood told you? A Yes, that is all.
Q You never went to court, did you? A Yes sir.
Q Was court in session? A Yes, I was in there but they didn't call me up.

Examination by Mr. Starr-Cherokee representative:

- Q When was it you applied for a divorce from Williams? A In 1893.
Q Who applied for that divorce? A Mr. Norwood.
Q Was that before you applied for the divorce from Thompson? A Yes sir.

James A. Jackson, called as a witness in the above entitled cause, and examined by the Commission, testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A James A. Jackson.
Q How old are you? A Fifty-nine.
Q Are you a citizen of the Cherokee nation? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know William T. Collier and his wife Sarah? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you known them? A I have known her all my life; she is my child--my daughter.
Q What was her first husband's name? A George Williams.
Q Was she living when she married Collier? A Yes sir.
Q Had she been divorced from him? A Norwood said he had the papers all right. I heard him say so.
Q You heard Norwood say so? A Yes sir.
Q You never saw any court judgment? A No sir.
Q All you know about it is what Norwood told you? A Yes sir.
Q And then she married a man by the name of Thompson? A Yes sir.
Q She was divorced when she married Collier? A Yes sir.
Q Collier is her third husband? A Yes sir.
Q She had been divorced from Thompson all right? A Yes sir.

Examination by Mr. Starr-Cherokee representative.

- Q Do you know when she was married to Collier? A She was married in 1894.
Q What time? A About September.

John Jackson being first duly sworn as a witness in the above entitled cause, and examined by the Commission, testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A John Jackson.
Q How old are you? A Twenty-nine.
Q Do you know William T. Collier? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know his wife Bettie or Sarah? A Yes.
Q Was his wife Sarah ever married before she married Collier? A She was married twice.
Q What was her first husband's name? A George Williams.
Q He was living or dead at the time she married Collier? A Living.
Q He is living yet, isn't he? A Yes, I guess so.
Q What was her second husband's name? A Emory Thompson.
Q Was Thompson living when she married Collier? A Yes.
Q Had she ever been divorced from Williams? A No,--just Norwood's word.
Q You were not present in court when any divorce was granted in her favor?
A I was there when she applied for the divorce.

3-Cher-2752

- Q Were you there when it was granted? A No sir.
Q You don't know whether it was granted or not? A No sir.
Q She was divorced from Thompson was she? A Yes sir.
Q As a matter of fact, she never was divorced in any court from Thompson?
A I only knew what the lady said.

Examination by Mr. Starr- Cherokee representative.

- Q When was Mrs. Collier married to Collier? A September, 1894.

Mrs. Collier Re-called.

Examination by Mr. Starr:

- Q Where were you and William T. Collier married--when?
A In 1894.
Q At what time? A September.
Q In September, 1894? A Yes sir.
Q You are sure about that, are you? A Yes, I am sure.
Q What day of the month? A I don't remember just the day of the month-- it was the 30th day of September.
Q Thirtieth day of September, 1894? A Yes.
Q Are you positive about that? A Yes sir.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application of William T. Collier for the enrollment of himself, as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and for the enrollment of his wife, Bettie Collier, and minor children, Maggie B., Missouri A., Jasper N., Alice M. and William A. Collier, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation:

D E C I S I O N .

The record in this case shows that on September 14, 1900, William T. Collier appeared before the Commission at Pryor Creek, Indian Territory, and made personal application for the enrollment of himself, as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and for the enrollment of his wife, Bettie Collier, and minor children, Maggie B., Missouri A., Jasper N., Alice M. and William A. Collier, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation. An affidavit was filed with the Commission on June 10, 1901, showing the birth of William A. Collier on May 13, 1901. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on October 14 and 29, 1902.

The evidence shows that the applicant, William T. Collier, was married under a Cherokee marriage license to Sarah (or Bettie) Jackson, a Cherokee by blood, on September 30, 1894, at which time the said Bettie Jackson had a husband then living and from whom she had not been divorced.

Section 21 of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), provides for the enrollment of Cherokee citizens "with such intermarried white persons as may be entitled to citizenship under Cherokee laws."

Section 692 of the Compiled Laws of the Cherokee Nation (1892) provides:

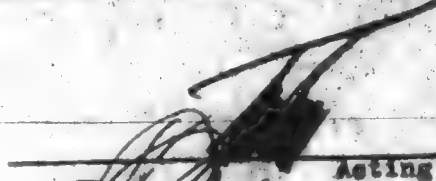

"All marriages which are herein prohibited on account of consanguinity between the parties, or on account of either of them having a former husband or wife then living, shall be absolutely void in this nation, without any judgment of divorce or other legal proceeding."

The evidence further shows that the said Bettie Collier is a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation and is duly identified on the 1890 authenticated roll of the Cherokee Nation and the 1898 census roll of said nation as a native Cherokee; and that Maggie B., Missouri A., Jasper N., Alice M. and William A. Collier are the minor children of the said Bettie Collier. The said Maggie B., Missouri A. and Jasper N. Collier are identified on the 1898 census roll of the Cherokee Nation as native Cherokees, and the said Alice M. and William A. Collier, being too young to appear on any of the rolls of said nation, are duly identified by birth affidavits made a part of the record herein.

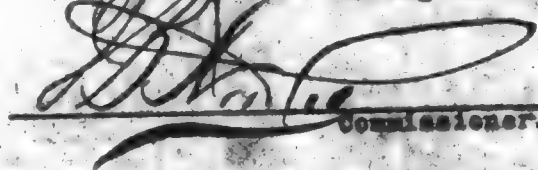

The evidence further shows that the said Bettie Collier has resided continuously in the Cherokee Nation since the year 1894, and that Maggie B., Missouri A., Jasper N. Alice M. and William A. Collier have resided in said nation since their birth.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that the application for the enrollment of William T. Collier, as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, should be denied under the law above quoted, and that Bettie Collier, Maggie B. Collier, Missouri A. Collier, Jasper N. Collier, Alice M. Collier and William A. Collier should be enrolled as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, in accordance with the provisions of Section 21 of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 498), and it is so ordered.

December 3, 1903.

The Commission
to the Five Civilized Tribes.

Gentlemen:

With your letter of February 26, 1903, you transmitted the record of proceedings had in the matter of the application of William T. Collier for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by intermarriage, and for his wife and minor children as citizens by blood, of the Cherokee Nation.

It appears that on September 14, 1900, William T. Collier appeared before your Commission at Pryor Creek, Indian Territory, and made personal application for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by intermarriage, and for the enrollment of his wife Bettie Collier, and minor children, Maggie B/, Missouri A., Jasper N., Alice M., and William A. Collier, as citizens by blood, of the Cherokee Nation. Further proceedings were had in the matter at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on October 14 and 29, 1902.

It appears that applicant William T. Collier was married under Cherokee license to Sarah (or Bettie) Jackson, a Cherokee by blood, on September 30, 1894, at which time said Bettie Jackson had a husband then living from whom she had not been divorced.

The rights of William T. Collier claiming as an intermarried citizen will not be adjudicated by the Department in this decision, but will await the decision of the Court of Claims upon the question submitted to it February 24, 1903, relative to the rights of intermarried Cherokees.

The evidence shows that Bettie Collier is a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, and is duly identified on the 1880 authenticated roll of the Cherokee Nation and the 1896 Census roll of said nation; that Maggie B., Missouri A., Jasper N., Alice M., and William A. Collier are the minor children of said Bettie Collier. The said Maggie B., Missouri A., and Jasper N. Collier are identified on the 1896 Census roll of the Cherokee Nation, and the said Alice M. and William A. Collier are identified by birth affidavits made a part of the record herein.

The evidence further shows that said Bettie Collier has resided continuously in the Cherokee Nation since the year 1894, and that the minor applicants herein have resided in said nation since their birth.

Reporting November 23, 1903, the Commissioner of Indian Affairs recommends that your decision holding that the applicants who apply for enrollment as citizens by blood should be enrolled as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, be approved.

The Department concurs in said recommendation and your decision so far as it affects the applicants Bettie Collier, Maggie B.

Collier, Missouri A. Collier, Jasper N. Collier, Alice M. Collier, and William A. Collier, is affirmed.

A copy of the report of the Commissioner is inclosed.

Respectfully,

Thos Ryan

Acting Secretary.

Refer in reply to DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, the following: Office of Indian Affairs,
Land. 13853-1903. Washington,

November 23, 1903.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is enclosed herewith a report from the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes dated February 26, 1903, transmitting the record relative to the application of William T. Collier, et al., for enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation. William T. Collier applies for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by intermarriage, and for the enrollment of his wife, Bettie Collier, and their minor children, Maggie B., Missouri A., Jasper N., Alice M., and William A. Collier as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation. William A. Collier was born subsequent to the original application, and is properly identified by a birth affidavit. February 2, 1903, the Commission held that the application of William T. Collier for enrollment as a intermarried citizen should be denied, and that the other applicants were entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood.

The evidence shows that William T. Collier and Sarah, or Bettie, Jackson, a Cherokee by blood, were married, September 30, 1894, in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation, and that at that time Bettie Jackson had a husband living from whom she had not been divorced. Bettie Jackson is a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, and her name appears on the 1890 roll, and also the 1896 Census roll. Maggie B., Missouri A., Jasper N., Alice M., and William A. Collier are the minor children of Bettie Collier. All of these minor children, except Alice M. and William A., are identified by the 1896 Census roll. The two last mentioned are identified by birth affidavits.

In view of the foregoing it appears to the office that the decision of the Commission holding that the applicants, who apply for enrollment as citizens by blood should be enrolled is correct, and its approval is recommended.

It is doubtful whether William T. Collier would be entitled to enrollment in view of Section 692 of the Cherokee laws, even if the Court of Claims should hold that intermarried white persons are entitled to share in the distribution of the Cherokee estate. It is suggested, however, that his right to enrollment be not passed upon until such time as the Court of Claims shall have rendered an opinion on the questions submitted to it by the Department, February 24th last.

Very respectfully,

W. A. Jones,

Commissioner.

Sir:

Referring to departmental letter of December 3, 1903, in the matter of the application for the enrolment of certain persons as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, including William T. Cellier as a citizen of that nation by intermarriage, in view of the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 3, 1904, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, appealed from the Court of Claims, the application for the enrolment of said William T. Cellier is denied. The claims of the other applicants were disposed of in said letter.

The papers in the case have been sent to the Indian Office.

Respectfully,

(Signed) Thos. Ryan,

- Q You say these children are all living with you? A Yes, sir.

The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself, his wife and four children. He shows by the marriage license and certificate filed herewith that he was married in accordance with the Cherokee law in 1893. He and his wife have lived together in the Cherokee Nation ever since his marriage, and his wife is identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1896. The applicant will now be enlisted for enrollment as a Cherokee by adoption. His wife will be enlisted for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. She has lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life and their children, Cornelius and Gertie are identified on the roll of 1896. They are living at this time and will be enlisted for enrollment as Cherokees by blood. The two younger children, William and Myrtle will be enlisted for enrollment as Cherokees by blood when the Commission is supplied with proper certificates of their birth.

The undersigned being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly received the testimony and other proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a correct and complete transcript of his stenographic notes of the same.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Pryor Creek, I.T., September 14, 1900.

In the matter of the application of Lizzie Wood for the enrollment of herself and child as Cherokees by blood; being sworn and examined by Commissioner Needles, she testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A Lizzie Wood.
Q How old are you? A I am 35 or 36.
Q What is your post office address? A Afton.
Q What is your district? A Delaware.
Q Are you a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A I suppose I am.
Q By blood or intermarriage? A I am black enough to be by blood.
Q So am I, but I haven't got any blood in me of that kind. What degree of blood do you claim? A A full blood.
Q For whom do you apply for enrollment? A Myself and my boy.
Q What is your father's name? A Rollin M. Wood, 11 years old.
Q That is the boy's name. What is your husband's name? A His name was Thomas Wood.
Q Is he living? A No, sir.
Q When did you marry Thomas Wood? A It was in 1886.
Q What was your father's name? A Cullicayah Smith.
Q He living? A No, sir.
Q What was your mother's name? A Rachel.

The name of Lizzie Wood appears upon the authenticated roll of 1880 under her maiden name of Elizabeth Smith, she having been married since to one Thomas Wood, a white person, now deceased, and her name is found upon the census roll of 1896 as Elizabeth Wood, and the name of her boy, Rollin M. Wood, is also found upon the census roll of 1896 and they being duly identified, and having made satisfactory proof as to their residence, the said Lizzie Wood and her child, Rollin M. Wood, will be duly listed for enrollment by this Commission as Cherokee citizens by blood.

Bruce C. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above case, and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

- Q How old are you? A Twenty-nine years old.
- Q What is your post office? A Pryor Creek, I.T.
- Q In what district do you live? A Cooweescoowee.
- Q Who is it you want to have put on the roll? A Myself and three children.
- Q Do you apply for yourself as a Cherokee by blood? A Yes, sir.
- Q What was your name before it was Collier? A Jackson.
- Q Was that your maiden name? A Yes, sir.
- Q When were you married? A Nine years ago.
- Q What was the name of your husband? A S. M. Collier.
- Q Cherokee or whiteman? A White man.
- Q Is he alive or dead? A I couldn't tell you whether he is a live or dead. I know not where he is at.
- Q How long did you and he live together as husband and wife? A About eight years; he has been gone a year.
- Q Have you a certificate of your marriage? A No, sir he has got it. He took it off with him.
- Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A I was born and raised here.
- Q For what district were you enrolled in 1880? A Cooweescoowee.
- Q You were enrolled as a Jackson? A Yes, sir. I suppose I was.
- Q Well, that was your name then? A Yes, sir.
- Q In 1896 you were enrolled as a Collier? A Yes, sir.
- Q From what district? A Cooweescoowee.
- Q You say you have lived in the Cherokee Nation all your life? A Yes, sir.
- Q Give me the names of your children, please.
- A James Washington Collier.
- Q How old is he? A He is eight years old.
- Q Give me the name of your next child. A Lottie.
- Q How old is she? A She is six years old.
- Q The next child. A William Edgar.
- Q How old is the child? A Two years old.
- Q These children are all living at this time, are they? A Yes, sir.
- Q Have you somebody here who knows that your husband lived with you as your husband? A Yes, sir.
- WILLIAM T. COLLIER, being called and sworn by the Commissioner testified as follows:
- Q Give your full name. A William T. Collier.
- Q What is your age? A Forty-two.
- Q What is your post office? A Pryor Creek.
- Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A Ever since 1871.

 Q Do you know this applicant there, Mrs. Collier? A Yes,
 sir.
 Q What was her name before she married? A Jackson.
 Q What is her given name? A Lettie.
 Q How long since she married her husband? A Why it has been eight or nine years.
 Q How long did they live together as husband and wife? A Well until last June a year ago.
 Q Up to the last year or such a matter? A Yes, sir.
 Q And lived in the Cherokee Nation all the time? A Yes, sir.
 Q Has he got any children? A Yes, sir.
 Q How many? A She has got three.

Witness excused.

Q What was your father's name? A James.
 Q And your mother's name? A Susan.

1880 Roll, page 123, No. 1552, Lydia Jackson, Cooweescoowee
 District. Native.

1896 Roll, page 126, No. 806, Lettie Collier, Cooweescoowee
 District.

1896 Roll, page 298, No. 202, Samuel M. Collier, Cooweescoowee
 District.

1896 Roll, page 126, No. 810, James Collier, Cooweescoowee
 District.

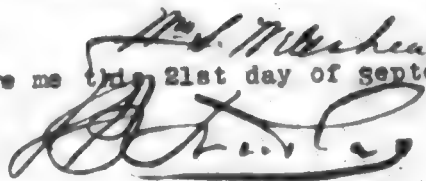

1896 Roll, page 126, No. 811, Charlotte Collier, Cooweescoowee
 District.

Q Now, this child Lottie, should that be Charlotte? A Yes,
 sir.

The applicant applies for the enrollment of herself and three children. She has been identified on the rolls of 1880 and 1896 as a native Cherokee. On the roll of 1896 she is identified with her husband, and the change of name is further established by the testimony of her father. She has lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life and she will be enlisted now for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. Her two older children, James W. and Charlotte Collier are identified with her on the roll of 1896. They are living at this time and they will now be enlisted for enrollment as Cherokees by blood. The youngest of the children, William Edgar Collier, will also be enlisted for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood when the Commission is supplied with a properly authenticated certificate of its birth.

The undersigned being duly sworn states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and other proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a correct and complete transcript of his stenographic notes of the same.

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

Pryor Creek, I.T. September 14th, 1900.

ADDITIONAL TESTIMONY OF MRS. LETTIE COLLIER, in examination conducted by Mr. Joel L. Baugh, Representative of the Cherokee Nation.

Question. When were you married to Samuel M. Collier?

A The 19th day of February, nine years ago.

Q That would have been in 1891 would it? A Yes, sir.

Q How long did you and he live together? A Eight years, I guess; he left the 15th day of June a year ago.

Q Are you living at the place you and he ~~lived~~ lived on at the time of the separation? A Not just exactly but right close to it.

Q You own that place do you not? A No, sir.

Q Was it your place or his place? A It was ~~an~~ his place.

Q Did you go off and leave it in his possession? A Yes, sir; in his son's possession. He turned it over to his son before he left.

Q Was his son a citizen of the Nation? A Yes, sir.

Q By what right did he turn it over to his son? A He claimed he aimed it for him in the beginning.

Q Did he ever institute divorce proceedings against you? That is, your husband? A No, sir.

Q Have you sued him for a divorce? A No, sir.

Q Where is he at now? A I couldn't tell you.

Q Is he outside of the Nation? A I don't know. The last I heard of him he was in Colorado.

The undersigned being duly sworn states that as stenographer to the commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and that the foregoing is a correct transcript of his stenographic notes of the same.

Dear Madam:

The Commission is informed that James W. Collier, who was an applicant before this Commission on September 14, 1900, for enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, has died since the date of such application.

There is enclosed you herewith a blank form of affidavit, and if this information is correct, you are requested to have the affidavit properly executed and return to the Commission as promptly as possible, in order that the death of James W. Collier may be shown upon the Commission's records.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

Dear Madam:-

The affidavit forwarded to the Commission showing the death, on April 9, 1902, of your son, J. W. Collier, heretofore an applicant before this Commission for enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, is returned to you for the reason that the signature by mark of James A. Jackson is witnessed as an ordinary witness by the notary public before whom James A. Jackson executed this affidavit. The Commission requires that all signatures by mark be witnessed by two persons other than the person taking the acknowledgment.

You are requested to have the affidavit corrected in this respect and return to the Commission as promptly as possible.

Respectfully,

Acting Chairman.

THE COMMISSIONER: The applicant applies for the enrollment of himself, his wife and three children. He and his wife are identified on the roll of 1880 and also the roll of 1896 as native Cherokees. They have lived in the Cherokee Nation all their lives. Her change of name is occasioned by the marriage, as established by personal testimony as well as by the roll of 1896, and they will both be enlisted now for enrollment as Cherokees by blood. Their three children enumerated in the testimony are identified with their parents on the roll of 1896. They are living now and will be enlisted for enrollment as Cherokees by blood.

The undersigned being duly sworn states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and other proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a correct and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

The Department's instructions of June 1, 1905 (I.T.D. 6240-1905), and October 4, 1907 (I.T.D. 12228-1905), as to the proceedings to be taken with reference to these persons have been complied with. Notice, under date of March 1, 1906, of the information received as to the date of the death of the above named persons, was given by publication for four consecutive issues in "The Cherokee Advocate" and "Pryor Creek Clipper", both weekly newspapers of general circulation, the former published in the Cherokee Nation at Tahlequah, Indian Territory, and the latter published at Fryer Creek, Indian Territory, in the Recording District in which the above named persons are shown to have resided at the time of their death. The first issue of this publication in "The Cherokee Advocate" was on March 3, and the first issue in the "Fryer Creek Clipper" on March 2, 1906. Attention was called to section 21 of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 716), and notice given to the heirs of the persons named, the administrators of their estates, or any other person having any interest in the estates of the decedents, that the Commissioner would, at the expiration of sixty days from the date of the notice, recommend to the Secretary of the Interior the cancellation of the enrollment of said persons as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, unless conclusive evidence was presented to the effect that said persons were living on September 1, 1902.

In addition to this notice a letter was on May 1, 1906, addressed to each of the above named persons, or his heirs, at his last known postoffice advising the infraction received, the law with reference to the making of the roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation, and that unless conclusive evidence was presented within thirty days from date to the effect that the decedent was living September 1, 1902, the Commissioner would recommend to the Secretary of the Interior the cancellation of the enrollment of said person as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

No information having been received that any one of the above named persons was living September 1, 1902, it is respectfully recommended that their names be stricken from the approved partial rolls of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of the Department and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs; that this office be authorized to strike their names from the copies of the approved partial rolls in its possession, and that the applications for their enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation be dismissed.

The Honorable,
The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to transmit herewith a report from the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated August 9, 1906, forwarding affidavits as to the deaths of certain persons whose names appear on a partial roll of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation. Commissioner Bixby refers to Departmental letters of May 21, (I.T.D. 6186-1905), June 1, (I.T.D. 6240-1905), October 4, (I.T.D. 12238-1905), and January 12, (I.T.D. 110-1906), relative to striking from the approved roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation the names of 286 persons who are shown to have died prior to September 1, 1902.

Commissioner Bixby reports that the Department's instructions as to the proceedings to be taken with reference to these persons, have been complied with, and no information having been received that any of the persons enumerated in his report were on September 1, 1902, he recommends that their names be stricken from the approved partial rolls of citizens and freedmen of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of the Department and this office, and that he be authorized to strike their names from the copies of the approved partial rolls in his possession, and that the application for their enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation be dismissed.

The affidavits have been examined in this Office, and are transmitted herewith, the Office concurring in the Commissioner's recommendation.

Very respectfully,

F. E. Loupp.

Commissioner.

Q What is your post office address? A Salina.

Q What district do you live in? A I am staying in Salina, but I live in Cooweescoowee.

Q For whom do you apply? A For myself and one child of my own and two orphan children.

Q What is the name of your father? A Valentine Gray.

Q Is he living? A Yes, sir.

Q What is the name of your mother? A Fannie Gray.

Q When were you married? A October, 1882.

Q What is the name of your child? A Walter T. Adair.

Q How old is he? A 15.

(On 1896 roll, page 975, No. 29, Walter T. Adair, Jr., Saline dist.)

Commissioner Needles: The name of Fannir Adair appears upon the authenticated roll of 1880 as Fannie Gray, her maiden name. She avers that she married one Adair in 1882, and by him has a child named Walter T., who appears upon the census roll of 1896, and the said Fannie Adair's name appears upon the census roll of 1896 as Fannie Adair, and she having made satisfactory proof as to her residence and being duly identified on the rolls, she and her son will be duly listed for enrollment as Cherokee citizen by blood.

Q You apply for the enrollment of Lola Adair? A Yes, sir.

Q What is her age? A She is insane, she is 22 years of age.

Q Is she insane, you say? A Yes, sir.

Q Confined in the insane asylum? A Yes, sir.

Dear Sir:

There is inclosed a copy of the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated January 10, 1907, rejecting, among others, the application for your enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. The Commissioner's decision has this day been forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior for review. You will be advised of the Secretary's action as soon as this office is informed of same.

Respectfully,

Incl. Decn. C-----

Commissioner.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Commissioner.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,

Muskogee, Indian Territory, April 25, 1902.

Mr. Lewis Teter,
Fryer Creek, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:

When application was made for the enrollment of your wife as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, the Commission was advised that her name was Alice Teter. In the affidavit as to the birth of her child Goldie Ethel Teter, she states that her name is Alice V. Teter.

Please inform the Commission immediately whether your wife desires to be listed for enrollment under the name of Alice Teter or Alice V. Teter.

Yours truly,

Commissioner in Charge.

Lewis Teter,

Pryor Creek, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

You are advised that the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated January 10, 1907, rejecting your application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, was affirmed by the Secretary of the Interior, January 26, 1907.

Respectfully,

Commissioner.

Mary McKenzie

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Pryor Creek, I.T., Septe/14, 1900.

In the matter of the application of Mary McKenzie for the enrollment of herself and child as Cherokee citizens; being sworn and examined by Commissioner Breckinridge she testified as follows:

- Q What is your full name? A Mary McKenzie.
Q What is your age? A About twenty-three or twenty-four.
Q What is your post-office? A Wagoner.
Q In what district do you live? A Cooweescoowee.
Q Who is it you want to have put on the roll? A Myself, and my little boy.
Q Are you a Cherokee by blood? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A All my life.
Q Where were you enrolled in 1880? A Illinois I think.
Q In 1896 where were you enrolled? A Cooweescoowee District.
Q What was your name before it was McKenzie? A Peaks.
Q That was your maiden name? A Yes sir.
Q When were you married? A Seven years ago.
Q What is the name of your father? A John Peak.
Q Cherokee? A Yes sir.
Q Is he dead or alive? A Dead.
Q How long has he been dead? A About eighteen years.
Q Give me your mother's name? A Katie Backbone.
Q Is she a Cherokee? A Yes sir?
Q Is she dead? A Yes sir.
Q How long has she been dead? A Fifteen years.
Q She was Katie Peak when she died? A No sir, she was Backbone, she had married another man.
Q Peak before that? A Yes sir.
Q Give me the name of this child? A Benjamin McKenzie.
Q How old is the child? A Five years old.
Q What is the name of the father of that child? A Jeff Mc-Kenzie.
Q Cherokee or a white man? A Cherokee.
Q Is he dead or alive? A Dead.
Q How long has he been dead? A Pretty near a year.
Q What proportion of Cherokee blood do you claim? A I don't know.
Q You claim to be a full-blood? A Yes sir.
Q You think you are a full-blood? A Yes sir.
Q Jeff McKenzie was your husband? A Yes sir.
Q And this is your own child? A Yes sir.
1880 roll for applicant as Peak, and name not found;
1880 roll for applicant's mother, Mary Backbone, and name not found 1896 roll for applicant, page 203 #2922 Mony McKinsey Cooweescoowee District, native Cherokee.
1896 roll page 203 #2923 Benjamin McKinsey Cooweescoowee District;
1896 roll page 203 #2921 Jeff McKinsey Cooweescoowee;
1880 roll page 145 #2022 Jeff McKinsey Cooweescoowee;
Applicant: I might have been put down as Mary Hawk in 1880.
1880 roll examined for that name and name not identified;
Q This child is living with you? A Yes sir.

Com'r Breckinridge: The applicant applies for the enrollment of herself and child; her husband is dead; she is identified on the roll of 1896 as a native Cherokee; her name in 1880 is not of doubt, and she cannot be identified on that roll but she is a full-blood Cherokee and has lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life and she will be listed now for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood. Her child is identified with her and also with her deceased husband on the roll of 1896; her deceased husband is identified on the roll of 1880; this child is now living with its mother and it will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

Mary McKenzie et al 2

M. D. Green, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Cherokee 2765.

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Tahlequah, I. T., May 16, 1905.

In the matter of the application of Mary McKenzie for the enrollment of herself and her child, Benjamin McKenzie, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

Simon McKinsey, being duly sworn, and examined by the Commission, testified as follows:

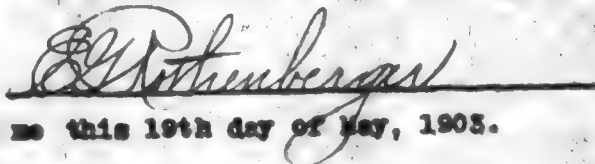

- Q What is your name? A Simon McKinsey.
Q How old are you? A Sixty-one.
Q What is your postoffice? A Pryorocreek.
Q Do you know a child by the name of Benjamin or Bennie? A Yes sir.
Q Any relation to you? A My grandson.
Q What was his mother's name? A Mary McKinsey.
Q She was your daughter-in-law? A Yes sir, my daughter-in-law.
Q Is this boy's parents both dead? A Yes sir, they are both dead.

The witness presents original letters of guardianship, issued by the United States Court in Indian Territory, for the Northern District, on April 11, 1905, for a minor child by the name of Bennie McKinsey.

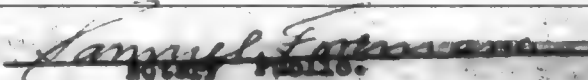

- Q His correct name is Benjamin, is it not? A Yes sir.
Q But you call him Bennie? A Yes sir, that is a nickname, Bennie.

In view of the testimony of witness the name of Benjamin McKenzie will be changed on this card to conform with what is apparently the proper spelling McKinsey.

The undersigned, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 16th day of May, 1905.

Dear Sir:

The Commission is informed that Mary McKensie, who was an applicant before this Commission on September 14, 1900, for enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, has died since the date of such application.

There is enclosed you herewith a blank form of affidavit, and if this information is correct, you are requested to have the affidavit properly executed and return to the Commission as promptly as possible, in order that the death of Mary McKensie may be shown upon the Commission's records.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

Referring to schedule number 24 of citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation heretofore forwarded to the Department, the Commission has the honor to report that the name of number 23574 on that schedule, Benjamin McKensie, should be changed to Benjamin McKinney. On May 16, 1903, the guardian of this child appeared before the Commission and testified that the child's correct name is McKinney and not McKensie.

The Commission, therefore, respectfully recommends that the copy of the schedule retained by the Department and the copy in the office of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs be corrected so that the name will appear as Benjamin McKinney instead of Benjamin McKensie, and that the Commission be directed to make a similar change upon

The Honorable

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

Referring to department letter of January 16, 1903--I. T. D. 340-1903-- there is enclosed, herewith, a report from the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated May 19, 1903, in which it is stated that the name of Benjamin McKenzie which appears on the Cherokee partial roll opposite No. 23,574, should be changed to Benjamin McKinzey.

The Commission asks authority to make the proper correction.

It is recommended that the Commission be authorized to correct this partial roll and that the office be authorized to make the proper correction on the partial roll in its files.

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, I. T.

Gentlemen:

In accordance with the recommendation contained in your report of May 19, 1903, you are directed to correct schedule No. 24 of citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, so that the name opposite No. 23574 will appear thereon as Benjamin McKinzey, instead of Benjamin McKenzie as now shown on said schedule, it having been represented that the former is the correct name of the citizen intended to have been enrolled.

The change has been noted on the copy of the schedule in this office, and the Commissioner of Indian Affairs directed to correct the original of the schedule on file in his office.

A copy of the Acting Commissioner's letter of May 28, is inclosed herewith.

Respectfully,

Thos Ryan

Acting Secretary.

Q What was her name then? A Her name was Guinn.
Q That was her maiden name was it? A Yes sir.
Q Is she a native of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir. Born and raised here.
Q Lived here all her life? A Yes sir. She never was nowhere else.
Q What district was she enrolled from in 1880? A I couldn't say, in Tahlequah though I reckon, if she was enrolled at all.
Q In 1896 she was enrolled with you? A Yes sir, I believe she was enrolled in Saline in 1896.
Q What is the name of her father? A Asa Guinn.
Q Cherokee or a white man? A He was a white man.
Q Dead or alive? A He is dead.
Q How long has he been dead? A He has been dead about three years, I believe.
Q Her mother's name? A Her mother's name, I don't know, they called her Calola Guinn that was her Cherokee name.
Q Is she dead? A Yes sir.
Q How long has she been dead? A She has been dead about four years.
Q What is the name of your child? A Charlie Willis.
Q No middle name? A No sir.
Q How old is that child? A He is six years old.
Q Living with you at this time is he? A Yes sir.
Q You have only the one child? A That's all.
Applicant: My wife's father's name was Dobson; Guinn was her step-father.

ACTING CHAIRMAN

In the United States Court, for the Northern District of the Indian Territory.

Lissie Willis, Plff. :
vs :
Theodore Willis, Deft. : No. 335 Equity.

DECREE of DIVORCE.

Now on this 17th day of October, 1900, being a day of the regular October term of the United States Court, for the Northern District of the Indian Territory, came the Master in Chancery, and filed his report herein and no exceptions being filed thereto, and same being regular in all things, is by the court confirmed.

And it appearing to the satisfaction of the court that the plaintiff and defendant were married in the year 1892, that they lived together as husband and wife until Sept., 1st 1900, that the defendant was guilty of the charges and grounds of divorce alleged against him in the complaint, that the cause of action arose in this District and Territory, and within five years next before the beginning of this action, and the divorce prayed for in the complaint ought to be granted.

It is therefore ordered and decreed by the court that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Lissie Willis and the defendant Theodore Willis, be and the same are dissolved, set aside and annulled, and that the plaintiff has the care and custody of the only child of said marriage, Charles Willis, aged seven, under the further order of the court.

And it further appearing that the said defendant is able to contribute towards the support, maintenance, and education of said child and ought to do so, it is further ordered by the court that said defendant pay to the plaintiff the sum of \$4.16 $\frac{2}{3}$ (four dollars and sixteen and two-thirds cents), monthly on the first day of each month, and upon his failure to pay any and all of said monthly payments, he to be held in contempt of this court therefor.

It is further adjudged by the court that the defendant pay to the plaintiff the costs by her expended herein and that his failure to do so shall be treated as contempt of this court.

Dear Sir:

You are hereby notified that before your application for the enrollment of Roy V. Young as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation will be complete, it will be necessary that further evidence be introduced establishing the residence of this child in the Cherokee Nation; also as to the residence of his parents.

This testimony can be presented at the Cherokee Land Office of this Commission at Tahlequah, and should be introduced at the earliest possible date, as until it is introduced the Commission can not well determine the right of Roy V. Young to be placed upon the final roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

When you appear, please present this letter.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES,
PRYOR CREEK, IT., SEPTEMBER 14, 1900.

In the matter of the application of Mary J. Stevens for the enrollment of herself and baby as citizens of the Cherokee nation; said Stevens being sworn by Commissioner C. R. Breckinridge, testified as follows:

- Q What is your full name? A Mary J. Stevens.
Q What is your age? A 19.
Q What is your post office? A Pryor Creek.
Q Who is it you want to have put on the roll? A Myself and baby.
Q How long have you lived in the Cherokee Nation? A All my life.
Q What was your name before it was Stevens? A Vann.
Q Was that your maiden name? A Yes, sir.
Q When were you married? A In 1897.
Q Have you a marriage license and certificate? A Yes, sir, certificate.

Com'r Breckinridge:--The applicant presents a certificate from W. M. Dodson, stating that he married the applicant to Leslie Stevens on the 28th day of November, 1897. I make a note on the bottom of the certificate that Mr. Dodson is shown in other cases to be a Minister of the Gospel. This is filed herewith.

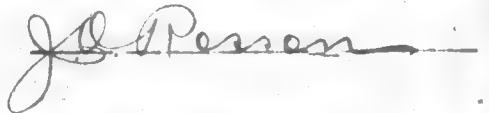

- Q Have you and your husband lived together ever since your marriage? A Yes, sir.
Q He is living with you at this time? A Yes, sir.
Q What is the name of your father? A Joseph Vann.
Q Your mother's given name? A Martha.
Q Is your father a Cherokee? A Yes, sir.
Q Dead or alive? A Dead.
Q How long has he been dead? A He died in 1888.
Q Your mother a Cherokee? A Yes, sir.
Q Dead or alive? A Alive.
Q Was she married to your father in 1880? A Yes, sir.
Q Give me the name of the child, please? A Joe M Stevens.
Q How old is that child? A Two years old.
Q Your husband is a white man is he? A He is a claimant he has not established himself, he is a white man.
Q What district was your other from in 1880? A Cooweescoowee.

1880 enrollment; page 194, #3101, Martha Vann, Cooweescoowee.
1896 enrollment; page ~~XXX~~ # 275, #4992, Jane Vann,

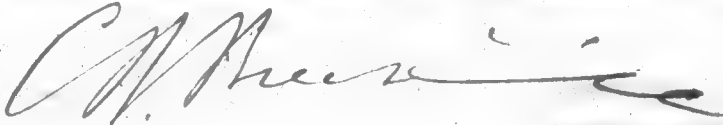

Com'r Breckinridge:--The applicant is identified on the roll of 1896, as a native Cherokee. She is too young to be on the roll of 1880 but her mother and father are identified on that roll. She has lived in the Cherokee Nation all her life? Her change of name since her enrollment in 1896 is accounted for by her marriage which is established by her marriage license filed herewith, as set forth in the testimony. She will now be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood, and when the Commission is supplied with a duly authenticated certificate of the birth of her infant child, Joe M. Stevens, this child also will be listed for enrollment as a Cherokee by blood.

Mary J. Stevens--2.

The undersigned, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

SUPPLEMENTAL TESTIMONY in the matter of the enrollment of MARY J. STEVENS, ET AL., as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, introduced on part of the Cherokee Nation:

J. C. STARR, being duly sworn, testified as follows on part of the Cherokee Nation:

MR. HASTINGS, Cherokee Representative:

Q What is your name? A J. C. Starr; post office Vinita; age 31.
Q Did you try to get any service upon this applicant, Mary J.
Stevens? A Yes, sir; I learned she was in Rye Colorado and I sent a notice to the City Marshal at this place whose name is W.
O. Hayes, and he could not serve it upon her because she had moved to Pueblo, Colorado, and I sent it there and she could not be found.

Mr. Hastings: Comes now the Representatives of the Cherokee Nation and move to be permitted to take testimony in this case without any further notice to the applicant under the above statements of facts; tending to show the non-residence of the applicant.

Commission: The motion of the representative of the Cherokee Nation will be entertained and testimony heard.

MATHIAS WASHAM, being duly sworn, testified as follows on part of the Cherokee Nation:

MR. HASTINGS:

Q What is your name? A Mathias Washam.
Q What is your age? A 61.
Q What is your post office address? A Pryor Creek.
Q Do you know this applicant, Mary J. Stevens?
A I know her, Janie; I don't know her other name, she is my stepdaughter.
Q Does she live up there about Chouteau or Pryor Creek?
A Which Janie Stevens?
Q Yes. A No, sir.
Q What is her husband's name? A They called him Leslie Stevens, but I don't know how he signs his name; I have been with him for years.
Q She married him in '97 didn't she? A I suppose so, I don't know just the time.
Q Where is she now? A The last I heard of her she was in Rye, Colorado.
Q Those facts you gave us? A Yes, sir.
Q How long has she been outside of this country?
A It has been two years the last of September or first of October.
Q Will it be three years next September? A I bought a little piece of corn from him, but I don't know whether it was three years or not.
Q Did she go back to Colorado after enrolling? A She did but he never.
Q Did she have a return ticket? A Yes, sir.
Q What were they doing out there? A I believe he was carrying the mail then; he had been on the mail route.
Q Do you know whether they have got any property here or not?

A I give the old lady 160 acres, give up part of the place here, that is it I stated when I was here on the stand here; she said it was Janie's, I don't know whether she give it to her, they were living right there joining, right in sight.

Q You give it to your wife? A Yes, sir; and she said it was hers; They left here and taken everything, taken their wagon and team.

Q Take their personal effects? A They might have left something in the house, I don't know--stove or something.

Q So far as you know? A So far as I know, I did hear some of them say they left their organ, but it was moved to Leonard Morgan's, I heard them talk about the organ.

Q Well, with the exception of her coming here to enroll they have been out there since the time you stated? A Yes, sir.

Q And are here now? A Yes, sir, he never has come back and she come to enroll and she had a 20 or 20 days ticket.

COMMISSION:

Q Where did they live immediately after their marriage?

A I think right close around, first one place and another, right in the house with me.

Q Do you know the exact time of their departure to Colorado?

A Pueblo was the first place they went.

Q Do you know what year that was? A It was in '90 I think.

Q When? A It was in '90, I guess; Oh! 1900, it was just two years ago last September, last of August or September.

Q That was in 1899, September, 1899? A Yes.

Q Prior to that time had she always lived here in the Cherokee Nation? A Yes, sir.

Q She made her home here up until that time? A Yes, sir.

Tahlequah, Indian Territory, December 8, 1903.

Superintendent Cherokee Orphan Asylum,
Salina, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

On September 14, 1900, the Superintendent of the Orphan Asylum applied to this Commission for the enrollment of Blaine Liver, age at that time 16 years, as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

You are hereby notified that before the application for the enrollment of this child as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation will be complete, it will be necessary that further evidence be introduced establishing his residence in the Cherokee Nation; also identifying his parents on the tribal rolls of the Cherokee Nation.

This testimony can be presented at the Cherokee Land Office of this Commission at Tahlequah, and should be introduced at the earliest possible date, as until it is introduced the Commission can not well determine his right to be placed upon the final roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge

WASHINGTON, D. C.

Tahlequah, Indian Territory, December 8, 1903.

Superintendent Cherokee Orphan Asylum,
Salina, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

On September 14, 1900, the Superintendent of the Orphan Asylum applied to this Commission for the enrollment of Mary and Susie Tyner, age at that time 13 and 11 respectively, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

You are hereby notified that before the application for the enrollment of these children will be complete, it will be necessary that further evidence be introduced establishing their residence in the Cherokee Nation; also identifying their parents upon the tribal rolls of the Cherokee Nation.

This testimony can be presented at the Cherokee Land Office of this Commission at Tahlequah, and should be introduced at the earliest possible date, as until it is introduced the Commission can not well determine their right to be placed upon the final roll of citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

When you appear, please present this letter.

Respectfully,

Sir:

Referring to schedule No. 31 of citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation heretofore approved by the Department, the Commission has the honor to report that Nos. 30133 and 30134, Mary and Susie Tyner, are duplicate enrollments of Nos. 20919 and 20920, Mary and Susan Turner.

On November 22, 1904, testimony was taken by the Commission establishing the fact that these enrollments are duplicates. A copy of the testimony is enclosed herewith.

The Commission, therefore, respectfully recommends that the enrollment of Mary and Susie Tyner, appearing opposite Nos. 30133 and 30134, be cancelled; that the schedule retained by the Department and in the office of the Commissioner of Indian Affairs be changed accordingly and that the Commission be directed to make similar changes upon copies of

Gentlemen:

November 26, 1904, you recommended that the enrollment of Mary and Susie Tyner, opposite Nos. 30133 and 30134, respectively, on the approved schedule of citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, be cancelled, it appearing from testimony taken November 22, 1904, that said persons are identical with Mary and Susan Turner, enrolled opposite Nos. 20919 and 20920, on said schedule.

The Department concurs in said recommendation, and has made such cancellations on its part of said schedule, instructing the Indian Office to do the same. You are authorized to make such cancellations on the part of said schedule in your possession.

A copy of Indian Office letter of December 16, 1904, transmitting your report, is inclosed.

The Honorable

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is enclosed a report from the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes dated November 26, 1904, from which it appears that Mary and Susie Tyner, Cherokees, are enrolled at Nos. 30133 and 30134, and also at 20919 and 20920. It seems that their enrollment has been duplicated and the Commission recommends that authority be granted for the cancellation of the enrollment of Mary and Susie Tyner at Nos. 30133 and 30134.

From the testimony of J. F. Thompson transmitted by the Commission and the statements contained in the Commission's report, it is believed that the request of the Commission should be allowed and I therefore recommend that the proper correction be made on the Cherokee roll on file with the Department and this this office and the Commission be authorized to correct their respective rolls accordingly.

Subject: Enrollment in Five Civilized Tribes.

Commissioner of Indian Affairs.

Sir:

With his letter to you of December 26, 1908, the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes forwarded two lists of names of persons stricken from the approved rolls of citizens and freedmen of the Five Civilized Tribes at various times. These papers were filed in your office, December 30, 1908, as No. 88,228, and, on the same date, referred to the Department.

One of said lists purports to show the names of persons stricken from the rolls, without prior notice; the other purports to show the names of those persons to whom notice was given before their names were stricken from the rolls.

The Department has considered the first of said lists and, in various letters, has taken action concerning the names included therein by directing, in some instances, that the parties be restored to the status of recognized citizens, and, in others that supplemental reports be furnished.

But there were persons named in the first of said lists whose cases were totally different than those dealt with heretofore, in that their names were stricken from the rolls merely to remedy clerical defects such as duplication and erroneous classification. It cannot be said that such persons have suffered any legal injury, and therefore the Department must and does decline to issue any order looking to the erasure of interlineations and notations purporting to cancel their names from the approved rolls from which they were stricken. The names of the persons included in this ruling are as follows:

Department of the Interior,
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Pryor Creek, I.T., September 14, 1900.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Mantie Rice and Ruby Rice as Cherokees by blood.

J. F. Thomson, being sworn and examined by Commissioner Needles, testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A J. F. Thompson.
Q What is your age? A 59.
Q What is your post office address? A Salina, I. T.
Q What official position do you hold? A Superintendent of the Cherokee Orphan Asylum.
Q You apply for the enrollment of whom? A Mantie and Ruby Rice.
Q How old is Mantie? A Mantie is 16 and Ruby is 13.
Q Are these children alive and living with you? A Yes, sir.
Q What degree of blood have they? A 1/4.
Q Do you know the name of their father? A James T. Rice.
Q He living? A No, sir.
Q What is the name of their mother? A Annice Rice.
Q She living? A No, sir.

The name of Mantie Rice is found upon the census roll of 1896 as Ida S. Rice. The name of Ruby Rice is found upon the census roll of 1896. The name of their mother, Annice T. Rice, is found upon the authenticated roll of 1880, all as indicated by the page and number of the rolls as recited in the testimony. They being all fully identified and having made satisfactory proof as to their residence, the said Mantie Rice and Ruby Rice will be duly listed for enrollment by this Commission as Cherokee citizens by blood.

Bruce C. Jones, being duly sworn, says that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the proceedings and testimony in the above case, and the foregoing is a true and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

IN THE MATTER of the date of the death of Mantice Rice, Cherokee By Blood, Field Card No. 2787, roll No. 27504.

Testimony of D. W. Wilson, taken at Tahlequah, Oklahoma, January 15, 1910.

EXAMINATION ON BEHALF OF THE COMMISSIONER:
(Conducted by Frank L. Doble.)

- Q What is your name? A D. W. Wilson.
Q What is your post office address? A Tahlequah, Oklahoma.
Q Are you a member of the firm of Adair and Wilson? A Yes sir.
Q You were, at one time, administrator of the estate of Mantice Rice, deceased, were you not? A Yes sir.
Q Do you know who is administrator at the present time? A Belle Rush, of Muskogee, Oklahoma.
Q Do you know when Mantice Rice died? A On or about the ~~11~~ third day of September 1902.
Q Do you know of your own personal knowledge that Mantice Rice died September 3, 1902? A I secured the information relative to the date of her death from her Aunt Belle Rush, at whose house she died.
Q And you regard this information as true and correct? A Yes sir, I think it is correct for when I went to file before they would let me file for Mantice Rice I had to show that she was entitled to an allotment of land.
Q Have you a record of any kind showing the date of the death of Mantice Rice, for whom you were administrator? A Yes sir.

(Witness here produces small book used by him for miscellaneous records and in said record appears the following notation of the appointment of D. W. Wilson as administrator of Mantice Rice, deceased; "Probate No. 130 appointed administrator of the estate of Mantice Rice, deceased, who died on or about September 3, 1902; leaving the following named heirs to-wit:- etc.,)

- Q Are you willing that when these notes shall have been transcribed, subscribed and sworn to by me before a notary public, that they shall be taken as your testimony and be of the same force and effect as if subscribed and sworn to by you? A Yes sir.

TAYLOR GOINS, being first duly sworn, and examined, testified as follows:

Examined by the Commission:

Q State your name ? A Taylor Goins.
Q How old are you ? A I will be fifty four the fourth day of July if I live.
Q What is your post office ? A Chelsea.
Q You are a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, are you ?
A I am a claimant, yes sir, I am a claimant.
Q You mean you are an applicant for enrollment ?
A I am what is called a claimant, I am a Cherokee alright, but I am on this claimant list, they aint said I aint nor I is, that's the way I stand.
Q Do you know Nellie Davis ? A Yes sir.
Q And her sister Ella Davis ? A Yes sir.
Q Who is their father ? A Johnnie Davis.
Q Was he a Cherokee ? A Yes sir.
Q Who was their mother ? A Laura Davis.
Q Was she a white woman ? A She was a claimant.
Q Well, was she a white woman ? A No, she was my child, and I know I am a Cherokee.
Q She has the same status as you ? A Yes sir.
Q Well now, when did the mother of these children die ?
A The mother of these children die eight or nine years ago.
Q When did the father die ? A Well, he died two years after that, he got killed by a marshal, him and Baker killed each other.
Q Were him and Laura Davis, your daughter, married ?
A I suppose they were, I never heard anything to the contrary.
Q You didn't see them married ? A No sir, I wasn't at home.
Q How long did they live together ?
A Several years, I don't know how many years.
Q Do you know if John Davis was on the roll of 1880 ?
A I know he drew money.
Q Had he been a resident of the Cherokee Nation all his life ?
A Yes sir. I knowed when he was born on Bird Creek.
Q Then John and your daughter lived together after their marriage ?
A Yes sir.
Q Where have these children been since the death of their father and mother ? A Over here in school.
Q Where ? A Orphans Home at Tahlequah.
Q Are they still there ? A Yes sir.
Q Have they been there ever since their father's death ?
A Not ever since, but as soon after that as I could get them in.
Q Have they been there ever since ? A Yes sir.
Q Are you guardian for them ? A Yes sir.
Q I thought James R. Stout was guardian ?
A That's some of Joe Esquichie's put up work.
Q Have you presented letters of guardianship ? A Yes sir.
Q When ? A Today. And before when I come to get my number
I fetched them again.
Q You know that these children have lived in the Cherokee Nation all their lives ? A Yes sir, if they have ever been out of it I never heard of it.

- Q They lived with their parents up to their deaths in the Cherokee Nation ? A Yes sir.
- Q And since that time they have been in the Orphans Asylum at Tablequah ? A Yes sir; not immediately, but shortly after that.
- Q Where did they stay in the meantime ? A At their uncle's.
- Q But not a very long time ? A Not very long, as quick as we could get them up some money and clothes.
- Q You don't know John and Mack Davis ? A Yes sir.
- Q Did you know their father ? A Yes sir.
- Q What was his name ? A Rowe Davis.
- Q Was your daughter Laura the mother of these children ? A No sir, she's not, only the two girls.
- Q Your daughter is not the mother of John and Mack ? A No sir.
- Q Who is their mother ? A Eliza Davis, is said to be. I reckon she was.
- Q Was she a white woman ? A No sir, she was a Cherokee.
- Q Rowe Davis was a Cherokee ? A Yes sir.
- Q Were they married ? A I don't know.
- Q Did they live together as husband and wife ? A Yes sir, when I knew them.
- Q Were they living together at the time these two boys were born ? A I wasn't there when they was born, I suppose they was.
- Q How long since they died ? A Oh its been, Rowe has been dead about four years, and Eliza has been dead about eight or ten.
- Q These children lived with their parents up until they died ? A Yes sir, they all lived together until death come into the family, and then they kinder busted up.
- Q Had their parents lived in the Cherokee Nation always ? A If they ever was out I never knowed it.
- Q How long did you know them ? A I knowed them seven or eight years.
- Q Before they died ? A Yes sir.
- Q Are these two children John and Mack Davis also in the Orphan Asylum ? A Yes sir. The Dawes Commission has been trying to have me take them both but I couldn't.
- Q Have they been in the asylum since the death of their father ? A Yes sir, they are there now.

Q At the time you made application you gave your name as Napoleon, but your full name, you state, is Napoleon Banner Luckey, and you spell your name Lucky? A Yes sir, a great many spell it "ey" but then I don't spell it----
Q How old are you? A Seventy-five the 27th day of last month, August.
Q What is your present post office address? A Pryor Creek.
Q What was your post office address when you made application for enrollment? A Salina.
Q You made application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation? A Yes sir.
Q What is the name of your wife? A Martha French.
Q Martha Luckey is her present name isn't it? A Yes sir, that's her.
Q Is she living? A Yes sir, right there.
Q Is she a Cherokee by blood? A Yes sir.
Q Do you claim your right to enrollment by reason of your marriage to her? A Yes sir, to her and to the other one besides. I married a Cherokee before I did her.
Q What was the name of your first wife? A Lucy M. Ward.
Q Is she living? A No sir.
Q Was she a Cherokee by blood? A Yes sir.
Q When were you married to her? A Married to her in 1867, I believe it was.
Q Was she the first woman to whom you were ever married?
A No sir, my first wife was a white woman. Her name was Copeland. She was a white woman.
Q What was her full name, given name? A Ambrillas.
Q Is she living? A No sir.
Q Was she living at the time you married your wife Lucy M.
A No sir. She had been dead about a year, perhaps a little over.
Q Was that white woman to whom you were married the first woman to whom you were married? A Yes sir.
Q Lucy M. was your second wife? A Yes sir, and this is my third.

Q Was your first Cherokee wife, Lucy Ann, ever married before she married you? A Yes sir.
Q What was the name of her first husband? A Howell.
Q What was his full name? A I don't know his full name. He was dead. I have heard his full name, but I don't recollect.
Q Was he living at the time you and Lucy Ann were married?
A No sir, he had been dead seven or eight years.
Q Was that the only time she was ever married before she married you?
A No sir, married a man by the name of Thompson.
Q Before she married Howell? A Yes sir.
Q Were those two times the only times she was ever married before she married you? A No sir, there was another man before that, but I don't recollect his name. She was married three times before she married me.
Q Was that first husband living when you married her? A No sir.
Q All three husbands were dead? There was one by the name of Thompson, I don't know whether he is dead or not, but I supposed, though, that he was dead. He left this country and went off, and they never heard of him any more. This old man here, Preacher Joe Thompson, never hear anything more of him. They suppose he is dead. They didn't get along very well, that is what they all say. It was his fault. He was a powerful rowdy. He just left and they never did hear of him any more. She lived single a number of years and then married this man Howell.
Q You state she lived single after Thompson left, a number of years?
A Yes sir.
Q Then she married this man Howell? A Yes sir.
Q You have just stated that he was dead when you and your former wife Lucy Ann were married? A Yes sir.
Q Were those three times the only times she was ever married before she married you? A Yes sir.
Q You are her fourth husband? A Yes sir, that is right.
Q She was your third wife? A She was my second wife. My first wife was white, she was my second, and this is my third.
Q Were you and your wife Lucy Ann living together at the time of her death? A Yes sir.
Q After she died what was the next woman you married? A Right there I married Martha French, my present wife.
Q Have you resided in the Cherokee Nation continuously since you married your first wife, Lucy Ann? A Yes sir, ever since 1867.
Q Did your wife Lucy Ann reside in the Cherokee Nation continuously until the time of her death? A Yes sir, she came here a little girl from the Old Nation. Her father died, and she was raised up on Beaty's Prairie.

Q Have you exercised the right of suffrage or citizenship in any way in any other nation or state since you married your first Cherokee wife, Lucy Ann? A No sir.

Q You made application for the enrollment of how many children?

A Two children, hers.

Q The two French children? A Yes sir, I had no children.

Q Are they both living at this time? A Yes sir. Living with us, as far as that is concerned.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
 COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.
 Muskogee, Indian Territory, January 21, 1907.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Napoleon B. Luckey as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

Martha Luckey being first duly sworn by B. P. Rasmus, Notary Public, testified as follows:

- Q What is your name?
 A My name now is Martha Matney but I want it changed to Martha Luckey; me and Mr. Matney parted long ago.
 Q You want your name then to appear upon our records at this time as Martha Luckey?
 A Yes sir.
 Q What is your age? A I was born in 1845.
 Q What is your post office address?
 A Pryor Creek.
 Q You are a citizen by blood of the Cherokee nation?
 A Yes sir.
 Q Born and raised here, were you?
 A No sir; I was born and raised in East Tennessee.
 Q When did you first come to the Cherokee Nation?
 A I was brought here in the year '61 through the invitation of Chief Bushyhead.
 Q On coming to the Cherokee nation, you were admitted to citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by the proper authorities?
 A Yes sir; the Government brought us here.
 Q And since that time you have been recognized as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation?
 A Yes sir.
 Q You desire to give testimony relative to the right to enrollment of Napoleon B. Luckey as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation?
 A Yes sir.
 Q When were you married to Napoleon B. Luckey?
 A In 1895; 13th day of April.
 Q Where were you living at the time you married him?
 A Tahlequah.
 Q He was at that time a resident of the Cherokee nation?
 A Yes sir.
 Q Was he your first husband? A No sir.
 Q Your former husband was dead at the time you married him?
 A No sir; he was dead to me; we had been parted about 15 years.
 I had a lawful divorce from my first husband.
 Q You were lawfully divorced from him when you married Napoleon
 B. Luckey?
 A Yes sir.
 Q Were you Napoleon B. Luckey's first wife?
 A No sir.
 Q Do you know the name of his first wife?
 A Yes sir; what he told me.

- Q What was her name?
 A Lucy Luckey; Lucy Ward before she married anybody.
 Q Do you know when Napoleon B. Luckey was married to his wife, Lucy Luckey?
 A He told me he was married in '68.

The original marriage records for Delaware District, Cherokee Nation, Docket 8, in the possession of this office, shows at No. 35, the following entry:

"This is to certify by me that N. B. Luckey, a white man, was licensed to marry Lucy A. Howell, a female Cherokee, on the 1st day Jan., 1868, and the license executed and returned Jan. 1st, 1868, being with according to the Act passed by the National Council, bearing date October 15, 1855, in regard to white men marrying in this Nation.

(Signed) T. J. McGhee, Clerk D. C. D. D. C.H."

- Q Is it your understanding that Napoleon B. Luckey was ever married prior to his marriage to Lucy A. Howell?
 A Yes sir; he was married to a white woman in Texas and has one heir living, by her.
 Q Was this white woman he married in Texas living or dead at the time he married Lucy A. Howell?
 A She was dead.
 Q Is Napoleon B. Luckey living at this time?
 A No sir.
 Q When did he die? A 1903, 22nd day of February.
 Q Was his former wife, Lucy A. Luckey, nee Howell, living or dead at the time you married him?
 A She was dead.
 Q Did he live with her as her husband from the time of their marriage until her death?
 A Yes sir.
 Q After her death, he married you?
 A Yes sir.
 Q And did you and he continuousl, live together as husband and wife until his death?
 A Yes sir.
 Q There was no separation between yourself and Napoleon B. Luckey from the time you married him until his death?
 A No sir.
 Q You lived together continuously?
 A Yes sir.
 Q After the death of Napoleon B. Luckey, did you marry?
 A Yes sir.
 Q Whom did you marry?
 A A man by the name of Stephen Matney.
 Q Is he living at this time? A Yes sir.
 Q You and he are not living together as husband and wife?
 A No sir.
 Q Have you precured a divorce from him?
 A Not yet; but I am going to.
 Q You and he are separated and you desire your name considered by the Commissioner as Martha Luckey?
 A Yes sir; because I enrolled that way and we filed that way and everything.

Gideon Morgan being first duly sworn by B. P. Bassus, Notary Public, testified as follows:

- Q. What is your name? A. Gideon Morgan.
- Q. What is your age? A. 55.
- Q. What is your post office address?
A. Pryor Creek, Indian Territory.
- Q. Were you at one time acquainted with a man by the name of Napoleon B. Luckey?
A. Yes sir.
- Q. He is dead? A. Yes sir.
- Q. When did he die?
A. I think he died about four years ago; I remember the time he died.
- Q. His death occurred subsequent to September 1, 1902?
A. Yes sir.
- Q. When did you first become acquainted with him?
A. I have known Mr. Luckey about 20 or 25 years; I have been in this country 35.
- Q. You were intimately acquainted with him during his lifetime?
A. Very well.
- Q. He is an applicant for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee nation?
A. I think he enrolled that way in his life time.
- Q. After you became acquainted with him, he was always recognized as that class of citizen?
A. We recognized him as a citizen and I think he always voted.
- Q. Do you know anything about his marriages?
A. Well, he said he had had a white wife before he married his first Cherokee wife, a Ward, and after her death he married Mrs. Luckey, whom I have known since about '81 or '82.
- Q. Were you acquainted with his wife Lucy A. Howell, nee Ward?
A. I don't think I was; I may have met her but I don't remember.
- Q. He told you about his having been married to a white woman in the State of Texas and that she was dead at the time he first married this Indian wife of his, Lucy Howell, nee Ward?
A. It seems to me he told me, and about his son; he lives in Texas. I got it in some way, either from him or somebody else who knew all about it.
- Q. Was his first wife dead at the time he married Lucy Howell?
A. I don't think he would have married if she hadn't been because he was a very honorable man, and he couldn't have gotten his license unless they had been signed by several disinterested Cherokee citizens.

The applicant, Napoleon B. Luckey, is identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880, Delaware District, No. 1497.

- Q. Lucy A. Luckey was not living at the time Napoleon B. Luckey married his wife, Martha Luckey?
A. I think not; I am satisfied she wasn't.
- Q. You know of your own personal knowledge that from the time of the marriage of Napoleon B. Luckey to Martha French, that

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That the names of said persons appear upon the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880; that they possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21 of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

Muskegee, Indian Territory, January 10, 1907.

Napoleon B. Luckey, Salina, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

There is inclosed a copy of the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated January 10, 1907, rejecting, among others, the application for your enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. The Commissioner's decision has this day been forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior for review. You will be advised of the Secretary's action as soon as this office is informed of same.

Respectfully,

Incl. Decm. A

Commissioner.

Waukegee, Indian Territory, February 21, 1907.

The Honorable,

Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

January 10, 1907 the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered his decision denying, among others, the application for the enrollment of Napoleon B. Luckey as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

Said decision was on January 26, 1907 (I.T.D.1392-1907), affirmed by the Department.

Further proceedings had in this case at Waukegee, Indian Territory, January 21 and February 21, 1907 show the decision of the Commissioner in the case to be erroneous.

The records show that Napoleon B. Luckey, a white man, was married in accordance with Cherokee law January 1, 1868 to his wife, Lucy A. Luckey, formerly Howell, since deceased, who was at the time of said marriage a recognized citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, who is identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880, Delaware District No. 1498 as a native Cherokee marked "Dead". It is further shown that from the time of said marriage until the death of said Lucy A. Luckey, which occurred about the year 1894, the said Napoleon B. Luckey and Lucy A. Luckey resided together as husband and wife and continuously lived in the Cherokee Nation. It is also shown that in 1898 the said Napoleon B. Luckey was married to Martha Luckey, formerly French, who was at the time of said marriage a recognized citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, having been admitted to citizenship therein by the duly constituted authorities of said Nation on December 3, 1881. It is further shown that from the time of said marriage the said Napoleon B. Luckey and Martha Luckey resided together as husband and wife and continuously lived in the Cherokee Nation up to and including September 1, 1902. Said applicant is identified on the Cherokee authenticated tribal roll of 1880 and the Cherokee census roll of 1896 as an intermarried citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

In view of the decision of the Supreme Court, dated November 5, 1906 in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, it is respectfully recommended that the Department rescind its said decision of January 26, 1907, so far as it relates to this applicant, and that the application for the enrollment of Napoleon B. Luckey as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation be granted. The record of proceedings had in the case is inclosed.

Commissioner.

Sir:

In accordance with the recommendations contained in your letter of February 21, 1907, copy of which has been filed by Mr. A. F. McGarr, representing your office, the decision of the Department of January 26, 1907, adverse to Napoleon B. Luckey, a white man, claiming citizenship in the Cherokee Nation by intermarriage, is rescinded and you are requested to enroll him as a citizen of said nation by intermarriage, as it now appears that he was married to his first Cherokee wife, a citizen by blood in 1868.

Since the filing of said copy of your letter, the Department has received Indian Office letter of February 27, 1907, submitting the papers in the case transmitted with your letter of February 21, 1907.

The papers have been sent to the Indian Office, together with a carbon copy hereof.

v 1028.)
James T. Coleman)

On this, June 15th 1891, this cause coming on to be heard, the plaintiff Sadie Coleman appearing by attorney, but defendant being thrice solemnly called, come not but makes default herein. And it appearing to the Court that W. T. Hutchings, a regular practicing attorney of this bar, was appointed attorney for the non-resident defendant, James T. Coleman, and had filed his report herein. The Court after hearing the evidence introduced in support of the complaint, doth find: That said plaintiff is now and has been for twenty years a resident of the Cherokee Nation, Indian Territory. That she is a white woman and citizen of the United States. That on the 29th day of January 1884, the plaintiff and defendant intermarried and became husband and wife, in the Cherokee Nation, Indian Territory, That in the month of March 1887, defendant wilfully abandoned the plaintiff without cause, leaving her without the means of support to meet the trials of life as best she could, that he has contributed nothing whatever to the support of herself and minor children; that defendant James T. Coleman, is a non-resident of the Indian Territory and a citizen of the United States, and was duly served by a warning order published in "Our Brother in Red" a weekly newspaper published in the First Judicial Division of the Indian Territory; that W. T. Hutchings was appointed attorney for the non-resident defendant more than sixty days before the granting of this decree, and has duly reported as such non-resident attorney.

It is therefore considered, ordered and adjudged by the Court that the bonds of matrimony heretofore ~~existing~~ entered into by and between the plaintiff Sadie Coleman, and defendant, James T. Coleman, be annulled, dissolved and held for naught; that plaintiff be restored to all the rights and privileges of a single woman, and that she have the custody and guardianship of her minor children, Charlotte Coleman and John Coleman; that defendant pay all costs of this action, and that said non-resident attorney be allowed the sum of ten Dollars to be taxed as costs herein.

Huskegee, Indian Territory, January 10, 1907.

Sadie Buffington,

Pryor Creek, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:

There is inclosed a copy of the decision of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated January 10, 1907, rejecting, among others, the application for your enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. The Commissioner's decision has this day been forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior for review. You will be advised of the Secretary's action as soon as this office is informed of same.

Respectfully,

Incl. Decn. C

Commissioner.

Department of the Interior, Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird et al. vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section 21, of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

Commissioner.

Dated at Muskogee, Indian Territory,

Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 16, 1908.

Mr. John R. Buffington,

Fryer Creek, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:-

When you applied to this Commission for the enrollment of yourself and family as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, you gave your name as John R. Buffington, while it is noticed in the affidavit which you send as to the birth of this child Cherry G. Buffington, your name appears throughout as J. R. Buffington.

Will you please advise the Commission which is your correct name and how you desire to be listed for enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation.

Yours truly,

Commissioner in Charge.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 24, 1902.

Mr. John R. Buffington,

Fryor Creek, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:-

The Commission is in receipt of your letter of March 19, stating that your correct name is John R. Buffington and you desire to be so listed for enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation

The affidavit heretofore received as to the birth of your child Cherry G. Buffington, is accordingly herewith returned and you are requested to have your name corrected therein so that it will appear as John R. Buffington instead of J. R. Buffington. Please give this matter your prompt attention and return to the Commission as soon as possible.

Yours truly,

Commissioner in Charge.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.

COMMISSION TO THE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

Pryor Creek, I.T. September 14, 1900.

IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION OF GEORGE H JACKSON FOR THE ENROLLMENT OF HIMSELF AS A CHEROKEE CITIZEN.

The said George H. Jackson, being duly sworn by Commissioner T. Needles, testified as follows:

- Question. What is your name? A George H. Jackson.
Q What is your age? A Thirty-four.
Q What is your post office address? A Chouteau
Q What district do you live in? A Coowescoowee.
Q You are a recognized citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A
Yes, sir; by adoption.
Q Your father and mother are noncitizens? A Yes, sir.
Q What is the name of your wife? A Her maiden name is Susie.
Susie Miller.
Q When did you marry her? A 1891.
Q Have you a certificate of marriage? A Yes, sir.

THE COMMISSIONER: The applicant presents a certificate of marriage and marriage license duly certified to, certifying that he was married to one Susie Chaney, nee Beamer, a citizen of the Cherokee Nation, on the 29th of November, 1891.

- Q Do you recollect the name of her father? A No, sir.
Q Nor her mother? A No, sir.
Q Are they living? A No, sir.
Q Have you any children? A No, sir.
Q Just want to enroll yourself? A Yes, sir; my wife is dead.

1896 Roll, page 311, No. 551, George H. Jackson, Coowescoowee District.

- Q Have you been married since your marriage to this Miss Beamer?--or Miller? A No, sir.

1880 Roll, page 522, No. 1097, Susie Miller, Illinois District.

THE COMMISSIONER: The name of George H Jackson appears upon the Census Roll of 1896. He presents satisfactory proof of marriage, certifying that he was married to Miss Susan Chaney, nee Beamer, and that her maiden name, which is the name appearing upon the authenticated roll of 1880, is Susie Miller. He being duly identified according to the page and number of the roll, and having made satisfactory proof as to his residence, he will be duly enlisted for enrollment as a Cherokee by adoption.

The undersigned being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and other proceedings in the above application, and that the foregoing is a correct and complete transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 14th day of September A.D. 1900.

ACTING SECRETARY

R.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.
Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes.
Muskegee, Indian Territory, July 22nd, 1902.

In the matter of the application of George H. Jackson for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee nation.

Supplemental to Cherokee #2799.

The Cherokee nation, by its representative, makes satisfactory proof of service on said George H. Jackson that it would, at the office of the Commission in the town of Muskegee, Indian Territory, on the 22nd day of May, 1902, introduce testimony tending to disprove his right to enroll as a citizen of the nation.

The applicant has this day been called and fails to respond either in person or by attorney.
The Cherokee nation appears by W. W. Hastings.

By Mr. Hastings:

In order to understand the relevancy of this testimony the Cherokee nation charges that the applicant, George H. Jackson, who was a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee nation, forfeited his right to be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee nation on the 27th day of May, 1902, by his marriage to a white woman, Mistress Alice Hartwig, in violation of section 666 of the compiled laws of the Cherokee nation.

J. C. STARR, being duly sworn, testified as follows:-- Examination by Mr. Hastings.

Q. What is your name? A. J. C. Starr.

Q. You are stenographer for the Cherokee nation? A. Yes, sir.

Q. I will ask you if you issued a subpoena for the person J. M. Porter, Pastor of the M. E. church south, stationed at Choteau?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you subpoena him to be here to-day? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did you get any reply from him? A. I received a letter from him stating that he could not be here because he had a meeting at Frier Creek, I believe it was, that he had to attend this evening.

Q. I will ask you if you also received a certificate of marriage from him certifying that he married the applicant on the 27th day of May, 1902. A. Yes, sir.

By Mr. Hastings:

The Cherokee nation wants to offer in evidence the certificate of marriage.

By the Commission:

The same will be filed and made a part of the record in this case.

By Mr. Hastings:

Q. Do you know where George H. Jackson got the license? A. Yes, sir; got it at Wagoner.

Q. Have you made any effort to get the license? A. Yes, sir; I made repeated efforts to get it but couldn't because it had not been returned.

Q. Did this man Porter say anything about what became of the marriage license and certificate? A. He said he gave them back to Jackson.

Q. Jackson has never returned the license so that you can't get a certified copy of that? A. No, sir.

The tribal rolls in the possession of the commission examined and the name of Alice Hartwig does not appear thereon.

James O. Carr, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case and that the foregoing is a true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

Mustogee, I. T., September 22, 1902.

In the matter of the application of George H. Jackson for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. Cherokee Nation appears by W. W. Hastings.

George H. Jackson, being sworn and examined by the Commission, testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A George H. Jackson.
Q What is your postoffice address? A Chouteau then, Wagoner now.
Q How old are you? A 57.
Q Are you the identical George H. Jackson who appeared before the Commission in September, 1900, and applied for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage? A Yes sir.
Q What was the name of the wife through whom you claim the right to enrollment? A Susan A. Peamor. Oney when I married her.
Q Is she living or dead? A Dead.
Q How long has she been dead? A Five years, I guess.
Q Were you ever married before you married her? A No sir.
Q Have you married since her death? A Yes sir.
Q What is the name of your present wife? A Her name is Addis Hartwig.
Q Is she living? A Yes sir.
Q Is she a Cherokee by blood or white woman? A White woman.
Q When were you married to her? A I married I believe the 24th of May, 1901.
Q You and she are living together at the present time? A We are.
Q Was she ever recognized as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation? A No sir.

W. W. Hastings: Have you returned the marriage license that you received for your marriage to your present wife? A Long ago.
The Cherokee Nation asks to be given time in which to file a certified copy of the marriage license and certificate to his present wife.

Commission: The nation will be granted ten days in which to furnish the evidence of the applicant's marriage to his present wife.

The undersigned, being duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he correctly recorded the testimony and proceedings in this case, and that the foregoing is a true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes thereof.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of George H. Jackson as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

DECISION.

The record in this case shows that on September 14, 1900, George H. Jackson appeared before the Commission at River Creek, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Muskogee, Indian Territory, at July 28, 1902, and again on September 22, 1902.

The evidence shows that George H. Jackson was lawfully married, under authority of a Cherokee marriage license and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation, on November 28, 1891, to Susie Chaney, a Cherokee citizen by blood and identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1860. George H. Jackson is identified on the Cherokee genealogical roll of 1896. It is further shown that his said wife, Susie, died about 1897, and thereafter he married one Alice Fairing, a white woman.

Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress Approved July 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 496), provides for the enrollment of Cherokee citizens with such intermarried white persons as may be entitled to citizenship under Cherokee laws.

Section 466 of the Compiled Laws of the Cherokee Nation (1892), is as follows:

"Should any man or woman, a citizen of the United States or of any foreign country, become a citizen of the Cherokee Nation by intermarriage, and be left a widow or widower by the decease of the Cherokee wife or husband, such surviving widow or widower shall continue to enjoy the rights of citizenship, unless he or she shall marry a white man or woman, or person, (as the case may be), having no rights of Cherokee citizenship by blood; in that case all of his or her rights acquired under the provisions of this act shall cease."

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that the application for the enrollment of George H. Jackson as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation should be denied, and it is so ordered.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of George H. Jackson as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation.

DECISION.

The record in this case shows that on September 14, 1902, George H. Jackson appeared before the Commission at Pryor Creek, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation. Further proceedings in the matter of said application were had at Muskogee, Indian Territory, at July 28, 1902, and again on September 22, 1902.

The evidence shows that George H. Jackson was lawfully married, under authority of a Cherokee marriage license and in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation, on November 28, 1891, to Annie Chaney, a Cherokee citizen by blood, and identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880. George H. Jackson is identified on the Cherokee census roll of 1886. It is further shown that his said wife, Annie, died about 1897, and thereafter he married one Ellen Hatching, a white woman.

Section 1267, one of the Act of Congress approved June 22, 1898 (30 Stat., 487), providing for the enrollment of Cherokee citizens with such intermarried white persons as may be entitled to citizenship under Cherokee laws.

Section 606 of the Compiled Laws of the Cherokee Nation (1892), is as follows:

"Should any man or woman, a citizen of the United States or of any foreign country, become a citizen of the Cherokee Nation by intermarriage, and be left a widow or widower by the decease of the Cherokee wife or husband, such surviving widow or widower shall continue to enjoy the rights of citizenship, unless he or she shall marry a white man or woman, or person, (as the case may be), having no rights of Cherokee citizenship by blood; in that case, all of his or her rights acquired under the provisions of this act shall cease."

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that the application for the enrollment of George H. Jackson as a citizen by Intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation should be denied, and it is so ordered.

THE RECORDS FURTHER SHOW: That said persons possess no right to enrollment as citizens of the Cherokee Nation other than by intermarriage, and that no one of said persons claims to have been married to a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation prior to November 1, 1875. The name of no one of said persons is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED: That in accordance with the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, said applicants are not entitled, under the provisions of Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat. 495), to enrollment as citizens by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and their applications for enrollment as such are accordingly denied.

WASHINGTON.

December 10, 1906.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior,

Sir:

There is enclosed herewith a report of Mr. Bixby, former chairman of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated February 12, 1903, transmitting record in the matter of the application of George H. Jackson for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, including the Commission's decision dated January 30, 1903, rejecting the application.

The applicant, a white man, claims the right to enrollment by reason of his marriage on November 29, 1901, to Susie Chaney, a Cherokee citizen by blood, in accordance with the laws of the Cherokee Nation. It is shown that the applicant's wife died about 1897, and thereafter he married one Alice Haining, a white woman. The applicant is identified on the Cherokee census roll of 1896.

Under the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States in the case of Daniel Bird, et al., versus the United States, the applicant is not entitled to enrollment, and it is recommended that his application be denied and the decision of the Commission adverse to him be approved.

Very respectfully,
G. F. Iarrabee

Acting Commissioner.

Assistant Commissioner

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Henry E. Sitsler, George W. Sitsler and Lewis Sitsler as citizens of the Cherokee Nation.

DECISION.

The record in this case shows that on September 14, 1900, Henry E. Sitsler appeared before the Commission at Pryor Creek, Indian Territory, and made application for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by intermarriage, and for the enrollment of his minor children, George W., and Lewis Sitsler as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation. Further proceedings were had in the matter of said application at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on September 8, 1902, and again on October 18, 1902.

The evidence shows that Henry E. Sitsler, a white man, was married in 1879 to one Mary Jane Fields, a Cherokee citizen by blood. As a result of that marriage the minor children applicants herein were born. It further appears that his said wife died in April, 1899, and thereafter on July 6, 1902, he married one Mary Lang, a white woman. The said Henry E. Sitsler is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880 as an intermarried white. George W. Sitsler is identified on the Cherokee census roll of 1896. Lewis Sitsler is too young to appear upon any of the tribal rolls of the Cherokee Nation, but is identified by a birth affidavit made a part of the record herein.

Section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), provides for the enrollment of Cherokee citizens "with such intermarried white persons as may be entitled to citizenship under Cherokee laws."

Section 866 of the Compiled Laws of the Cherokee Nation (1892), is as follows:

"Should any man or woman, a citizen of the United States or of any foreign country, become a citizen of the Cherokee Nation by intermarriage, and be left a widow or widower by the decease of the Cherokee wife or husband, such surviving widow or widower shall continue to enjoy the rights of citizenship, unless he or she shall marry a white man or woman, or person, (as the case may be), having no rights of Cherokee citizenship by blood; in that case, all of his or her rights acquired under the provisions of this act shall cease."

The evidence further shows that George W. Sitsler and Lewis Sitsler have lived in the Cherokee Nation all their lives.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that George W. Sitsler and Lewis Sitsler should be enrolled as citizens by blood.

of the Cherokee Nation, in accordance with the provisions of section twenty-one of the Act of Congress approved June 25, 1896 (29 Stat.
495), and it is so ordered. And it is further the opinion of this Court that the application for the enrollment of Henry M. Siskin as a citizen by the Cherokee Nation should be granted and it is so ordered.

Dear Sir:-

There is herewith enclosed a copy of the decision of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated January 30, 1903, rejecting the application of Henry E. Sitsler for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by intermarriage, and granting his application for the enrollment of his minor children, George W. and Lewis Sitsler, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

You are hereby advised that you will be allowed fifteen days from date hereof, in which to file such protest as you may desire to make against the action of the Commission in this case, a copy of which protest you will be required to serve upon the applicant. If you fail to file protest within the time allowed, this decision will be considered final.

Department of the Interior,
Office of Indian Affairs,
Washington, October 30, 1903.

The Honorable

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is enclosed herewith a report from the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated March 5, 1903, transmitting the record relative to the application of Henry E. Sitsler for enrollment as an intermarried citizen, and for the enrollment of his minor children, George W. and Lewis Sitsler, as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

January 30, 1903, the Commission held that George W. and Lewis Sitsler were entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood, and that Henry E. Sitsler was not entitled to enrollment as an intermarried citizen.

The record in this case shows that Henry E. Sitsler, a white man, was married to Mary Jane Fields, a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation, in 1879; that Mary Jane Sitsler died on April 18, 1899, and that on July 6, 1902, Henry E. Sitsler married Mary Lang, a white woman. Sitsler is identified by the 1880 roll as an intermarried Cherokee; George W. Sitsler is identified by the census roll of 1898, and Lewis Sitsler is identified by a birth affidavit.

These minor applicants are the children of the principal applicant by his first wife, Mary Jane Sitsler, who was a citizen of the Cherokee Nation. Section 666 of the Cherokee Laws, with which the Department is doubtless familiar, declares that should a man or woman, a non-citizen, become a citizen of the Cherokee Nation by intermarriage and be left a widow or widower, and afterwards marry a white person "having no rights of Cherokee citizenship by blood, in that case all of his or her rights acquired under the provisions of this act shall, cease."

From the record in this case it appears that the minor applicants are entitled to enrollment, and the approval of the Commission's decision relative to them is recommended.

August 19, 1902, (ITD. 4611), the Department held in the Ida Riddle case, that intermarried white persons, who, subsequent to the death of their citizen husband or wife, marry a non-citizen loses whatever rights such person acquired by marriage with a Cherokee citizen, and that too, where both of the white persons so intermarrying had formerly been married to citizens of the Cherokee Nation, whose citizen husband and wife was dead at the time such white persons intermarry.

However, as the Court of Claims has not made findings and rendered an opinion on the matters submitted to it by the Department, February 24th last, and considering that the name of Henry E. Sitsler appears on the 1880 roll as an intermarried white, it is respectfully recommended that his right to enrollment be not passed upon until after the Court of Claims shall have made findings and rendered an opinion.

Very respectfully,

(signed) W. A. Jones,

Commissioner.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.
WASHINGTON.

November 11, 1903.

The Commission

to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Gentlemen:

October 30, 1903, the Commissioner of Indian Affairs submitted the case involving the application of Henry E. Sitsler, for the enrollment of himself as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cherokee Nation, and for the enrollment of his minor children, George W. and Lewis Sitsler, as citizens by blood of said Nation, received with your letter of March 6, 1903, you having rendered a decision in the case January 30, 1903, in favor of said children and adverse to Henry E. Sitsler.

It appears that the principal applicant is a white man and was married in 1879 to Mary Jane Fields, a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation; that as a result of that marriage the minor applicants were born. This wife died in 1899 and in July 1902, he married Mary Lang, a white woman.

The principal applicant is identified on the Cherokee authenticated roll of 1880 as an intermarried white.

George W. and Lewis Sitsler have lived in the Cherokee Nation all their lives.

The Commissioner of Indian Affairs recommends that your decision, so far as said minor children are concerned, be affirmed and that no action be taken relative to the claim of the principal applicant until the Court of Claims has passed upon the question of intermarried Cherokees submitted to it on February 24, 1903.

Concurring in this recommendation your decision is affirmed as to George W. and Lewis Sitsler.

A copy of the Commissioner's letter is inclosed.

Respectfully,

(signed) Thos Ryan

Acting Secretary.

Sir:

Referring to departmental letter of November 11, 1903, in the matter of the application for the enrolment of certain persons as citizens of the Cherokee Nation, including Henry B. Sitsler, as a citizen of that nation by intermarriage, in view of the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, dated November 5, 1906, in the cases of Daniel Red Bird, et al., vs. the United States, Nos. 125, 126, 127 and 128, appealed from the Court of Claims, the application for the enrolment of Sitsler is denied.

The papers have been sent to the Indian Office.
